RISKS IN RELATION TO THE FIRST ISSUE

This being the first public issue of Equity Shares of face value ₹1 each of our Company, there has been no formal market for the Equity Shares of our Company. The face value of the Equity Shares is ₹1 each. The Floor Price, Cap Price and Issue Price, determined by our Company, in consultation with the Book Running Lead Managers, on the basis of the assessment of market demand for the Equity Shares by way of the Book Building Process, in accordance with the SEBI ICDR Regulations, and as stated under “Basis for Issue Price” on page 311, should not be taken to be indicative of the market price of the Equity Shares after the Equity Shares are listed. No assurance can be given regarding an active or sustained trading in the Equity Shares or regarding the price at which the Equity Shares will be traded after listing.

GENERAL RISK

Investment in equity and equity-related securities involve a degree of risk and investors should not invest any funds in this Issue unless they can afford to take the risk of losing their entire investment. Investors are advised to read the risk factors carefully before taking an investment decision in this Issue. For taking an investment decision, investors must rely on their own examination of our Company and the Issue, including the risks involved. The Equity Shares of face value ₹1 each in the Issue have not been recommended or approved by the Securities and Exchange Board of India (the “SEBI”), nor does SEBI guarantee the accuracy or adequacy of the contents of this Updated Draft Red Herring Prospectus-I. Specific attention of the investors is invited to “Risk Factors” beginning on page 31.

ISSUER’S ABSOLUTE RESPONSIBILITY

THE PRE-IPO PLACEMENT SHALL NOT EXCEED 20% OF THE SIZE OF THE FRESH ISSUE. THE UTILISATION OF THE PROCEEDS RAISED PURSUANT TO THE PRE-IPO PLACEMENT WILL BE DONE TOWARDS THE PROPOSED OBJECTS OF THE ISSUE IN COMPLIANCE WITH APPLICABLE LAW. PRIOR TO THE COMPLETION OF THE ISSUE, OUR COMPANY SHALL APPROPRIATELY INTIMATE THE SUBSCRIBERS TO THE PRE-IPO PLACEMENT, PRIOR TO ALLOTMENT PURSUANT TO THE PRE-IPO PLACEMENT, THAT THERE IS NO GUARANTEE THAT OUR COMPANY MAY PROCEED WITH THE ISSUE OR THE ISSUE MAY BE SUCCESSFUL AND WILL RESULT INTO LISTING OF THE EQUITY SHARES ON THE STOCK EXCHANGES. FURTHER, RELEVANT DISCLOSURES IN RELATION TO SUCH INTIMATION TO THE SUBSCRIBERS TO THE PRE-IPO PLACEMENT (IF UNDERTAKEN) SHALL BE APPROPRIATELY MADE IN THE RELEVANT SECTIONS OF THE RHP AND PROSPECTUS.

THE ISSUE INCLUDES A RESERVATION OF UP TO [●] EQUITY SHARES OF FACE VALUE OF ₹1 EACH, AGGREGATING UP TO ₹[●] MILLION (CONSTITUTING UP TO [●]% OF THE POST-ISSUE PAID-UP EQUITY SHARE CAPITAL), FOR SUBSCRIPTION BY ELIGIBLE EMPLOYEES ("EMPLOYEE RESERVATION PORTION"). THE ISSUE LESS THE EMPLOYEE RESERVATION PORTION IS HEREINAFTER REFERRED TO AS THE "NET ISSUE". THE ISSUE AND THE NET ISSUE SHALL CONSTITUTE [●]% AND [●]%, RESPECTIVELY OF THE POST-ISSUE PAID-UP EQUITY SHARE CAPITAL OF OUR COMPANY, RESPECTIVELY. OUR COMPANY, MAY IN CONSULTATION WITH THE BRLMS, OFFER A DISCOUNT OF ₹[●] ON THE ISSUE PRICE TO ELIGIBLE EMPLOYEES BIDDING IN THE EMPLOYEE RESERVATION PORTION ("EMPLOYEE DISCOUNT").

THE FACE VALUE OF THE EQUITY SHARES IS ₹1 EACH AND THE ISSUE PRICE IS [●] TIMES THE FACE VALUE OF THE EQUITY SHARES, THE EMPLOYEE DISCOUNT, IF ANY, TO THE ELIGIBLE EMPLOYEES BIDDING IN THE EMPLOYEE RESERVATION PORTION, THE PRICE BAND AND THE MINIMUM BID LOT WILL BE DECIDED BY OUR COMPANY, IN CONSULTATION WITH THE BOOK RUNNING LEAD MANAGERS AND WILL BE ADVERTISED IN ALL EDITIONS OF FINANCIAL EXPRESS, THE ENGLISH NATIONAL DAILY NEWSPAPER, ALL EDITIONS OF JANSATTA, THE HINDI NATIONAL DAILY NEWSPAPER, AND AHMEDABAD EDITION OF JAI HIND, THE GUJARATI DAILY NEWSPAPER (GUJARATI BEING THE REGIONAL LANGUAGE OF AHMEDABAD, GUJARAT, WHERE OUR REGISTERED OFFICE IS LOCATED), EACH WITH WIDE CIRCULATION, AT LEAST TWO WORKING DAYS PRIOR TO THE BID/ISSUE OPENING DATE AND SUCH ADVERTISEMENT SHALL BE MADE AVAILABLE TO THE STOCK EXCHANGES FOR THE PURPOSE OF UPLOADING ON THEIR RESPECTIVE WEBSITES IN ACCORDANCE WITH THE SECURITIES AND EXCHANGE BOARD OF INDIA (ISSUE OF CAPITAL AND DISCLOSURE REQUIREMENTS) REGULATIONS, 2018, AS AMENDED (THE "SEBI ICDR REGULATIONS").

In case of any revision in the Price Band, the Bid/Issue Period will be extended by at least three additional Working Days, after such revision of Price Band, subject to the Bid/Issue Period not exceeding 10 Working Days. In case of force majeure, banking strike or similar unforeseen circumstances, our Company may, in consultation with the Book Running Lead Managers, for reasons to be recorded in writing, extend the Bid/Issue Period for a minimum of one Working Day, subject to the Bid/Issue Period not exceeding 10 Working Days. Any revision in the Price Band and the revised Bid/Issue Period, if applicable, will be widely disseminated by notification to the Stock Exchanges, by issuing a public notice, and also by indicating the change on the websites of the Book Running Lead Managers and the terminals of the Syndicate Members and by intimation to the other Designated Intermediaries and the Sponsor Bank(s) (as defined hereinafter), as applicable.

The Issue is being made through the Book Building Process, in terms of Rule 19(2)(b) of the SCRR read with Regulation 31 of the SEBI ICDR Regulations. This Issue is being made in compliance with Regulation 6(2) of the SEBI ICDR Regulations, wherein not less than 75% of the Net Issue shall be available for allocation on a proportionate basis to Qualified Institutional Buyers ("QIBs") (the "QIB Portion"), provided that our Company may, in consultation with the Book Running Lead Managers, allocate up to 60% of the QIB Portion to Anchor Investors on a discretionary basis in accordance with the SEBI ICDR Regulations (the "Anchor Investor Portion"), of which 40% shall be available for allocation in the following manner: (i) 33.33% shall be available for allocation to domestic Mutual Funds, and (ii) 6.67% shall be available for allocation to life insurance companies and pension funds, subject to valid Bids being received from domestic Mutual Funds, life insurance companies and pension funds at or above the price at which allocation is made to Anchor Investors ("Anchor Investor Allocation Price"). In the event of under-subscription, or non-allocation in the Anchor Investor Portion, the balance Equity Shares shall be added to the remaining QIB Portion ("Net QIB Portion"). Further, 5% of the Net QIB Portion (excluding the Anchor Investor Portion) shall be available for allocation on a proportionate basis only to Mutual Funds, and the remainder of the Net QIB Portion shall be available for allocation on a proportionate basis to all QIBs (other than Anchor Investors), including Mutual Funds, subject to valid Bids being received at or above the Issue Price. However, if the aggregate demand from the Mutual Funds is less than 5% of the QIB Portion, the balance Equity Shares available for allocation will be added to the remaining Net QIB Portion for proportionate allocation to QIBs. If at least 75% of the Net Issue cannot be Allotted to QIBs, then the entire application money will be refunded forthwith. Further, not more than 15% of the Net Issue shall be available for allocation on a proportionate basis to Non-Institutional Bidders of which (a) one-third shall be reserved for Bidders with application size of more than ₹200,000 and up to ₹1,000,000; and (b) two-third shall be reserved for Bidders with application size of more than ₹1,000,000, provided that the unsubscribed portion in either of such sub-categories may be allocated to Bidders in the other sub-category of Non-Institutional Bidders, subject to valid Bids being received at or above the Issue Price in accordance with SEBI ICDR Regulations. Further, not more than 10% of the Net Issue shall be available for allocation to Retail Individual Bidders ("RIBs") in accordance with the SEBI ICDR Regulations, subject to valid Bids being received at or above the Issue Price. Further, Equity Shares of face value of ₹1 each will be allocated on a proportionate basis to Eligible Employees applying under the Employee Reservation Portion, subject to valid Bids received from them at or above the Issue Price (net of Employee Discount, if any, as applicable). All Bidders, other than Anchor Investors, are required to mandatorily utilize the Application Supported by Blocked Amount ("ASBA") process, providing details of their respective bank accounts (including UPI ID (defined hereinafter) in case of UPI Bidders) in which the Bid Amount will be blocked by the SCSBs, to participate in the Issue. Anchor Investors are not permitted to participate in the Issue through the ASBA process. For details, see "Issue Procedure" on page 1063. This Updated Draft Red Herring Prospectus-I is filed with SEBI and the Stock Exchanges under Chapter IIA of the SEBI ICDR Regulations.

RISK IN RELATION TO THE FIRST ISSUE

This being the first public issue of Equity Shares of face value ₹1 each of our Company, there has been no formal market for the Equity Shares of our Company. The face value of the Equity Shares is ₹1 each. The Floor Price, Cap Price and Issue Price, determined by our Company, in consultation with the Book Running Lead Managers, on the basis of the assessment of market demand for the Equity Shares by way of the Book Building Process, in accordance with the SEBI ICDR Regulations, and as stated under "Basis for Issue Price" on page 311, should not be taken to be indicative of the market price of the Equity Shares after the Equity Shares are listed. No assurance can be given regarding an active or sustained trading in the Equity Shares or regarding the price at which the Equity Shares will be traded after listing.

GENERAL RISKS

Investment in equity and equity-related securities involve a degree of risk and investors should not invest any funds in this Issue unless they can afford to take the risk of losing their entire investment. Investors are advised to read the risk factors carefully before taking an investment decision in this Issue. For taking an investment decision, investors must rely on their own examination of our Company and the Issue, including the risks involved. The Equity Shares of face value ₹1 each in the Issue have not been recommended or approved by the Securities and Exchange Board of India (the "SEBI"), nor does SEBI guarantee the accuracy or adequacy of the contents of this Updated Draft Red Herring Prospectus-I. Specific attention of the investors is invited to "Risk Factors" beginning on page 31.

ISSUER'S ABSOLUTE RESPONSIBILITY

Our Company, having made all reasonable inquiries, accepts responsibility for and confirms that this Updated Draft Red Herring Prospectus-I contains all information with regard to our Company and the Issue, which is material in the context of the Issue, that the information contained in this Updated Draft Red Herring Prospectus-I is true and correct in all material aspects and is not misleading in any material respect, that the opinions and intentions expressed herein are honestly held and that there are no other facts, the omission of which makes this Updated Draft Red Herring Prospectus-I as a whole or any of such information or the expression of any such opinions or intentions, misleading in any material respect.

LISTING

The Equity Shares of face value ₹1 each to be offered through the Red Herring Prospectus are proposed to be listed on the Stock Exchanges. Our Company has received an 'in-principle' approval from each of the BSE and the NSE for the listing of the Equity Shares pursuant to letters each dated February 17, 2026, respectively. For the purposes of the Issue, the Designated Stock Exchange shall be [●]. A signed copy of the Red Herring Prospectus and the Prospectus shall be delivered to the RoC in accordance with Sections 26(4) and 32 of the Companies Act, 2013. | Pre-IPO Placement                                                 | Our Company, in consultation with the BRLMs, may consider a further issue of specified securities, as may be permitted under the applicable law, aggregating up to ₹ 13,300.00 million prior to filing of the Red Herring Prospectus with the RoC. The Pre-IPO Placement, if undertaken, will be at a price to be decided by our Company, in consultation with the BRLMs. If the Pre-IPO Placement is completed, the amount raised pursuant to the Pre-IPO Placement will be reduced from the Fresh Issue, subject to compliance with Rule 19(2)(b) of the SCRR. The Pre-IPO Placement shall not exceed 20% of the size of the Fresh Issue. The utilisation of the proceeds raised pursuant to the Pre-IPO Placement will be done towards the proposed Objects of the Issue in compliance with applicable law. Prior to the completion of the Issue, our Company shall appropriately intimate the subscribers to the Pre-IPO Placement, prior to allotment pursuant to the Pre-IPO Placement, that there is no guarantee that our Company may proceed with the Issue or the Issue may be successful and will result into listing of the Equity Shares on the Stock Exchanges. Further, relevant disclosures in relation to such intimation to the subscribers to the Pre-IPO Placement (if undertaken) shall be appropriately made in the relevant sections of the RHP and Prospectus |

| full stack short-stay accommodation players | full stack, short-stay accommodation players refer to players such as PRISM, who provide a fully integrated set of offerings to both merchants and consumers. Merchant offerings typically include online to offline onboarding, third party distribution and demand, online revenue management, operations management and customer service, all integrated in a single place. Consumer offerings typically include services across various touchpoints, from discovery to support experience, and benefits of loyalty programs and referrals, all integrated in a single consumer-facing platform. This differs from hotel aggregators, who do not provide services such as revenue and operations management for storefront owners |

In light of this, we have also, in this Updated Draft Red Herring Prospectus-I included the audited consolidated financial information of IBL Limited Newco, LLC, on a consolidated basis, as at and for January 1, 2022 till December 31, 2022, January 1, 2023 till December 31, 2023, January 1, 2024 till March 31, 2025 and April 1, 2025 till December 31, 2025 audited by ADMS & Co LLP, Chartered Accountant. For details, see “Financial Information – G6 Financial Information” on page 916.

The financial information for the nine months ended December 31, 2025 may not be indicative of the financial results for the full year and are not comparable with financial information for the financial years ended March 31, 2025, March 31, 2024, and March 31, 2023. Further, financial information for the nine months ended December 31, 2025 has not been annualized.

Ind AS, U.S. GAAP and IFRS differ in certain significant respects from other accounting principles and standards with which investors may be more familiar. We have not made any attempt to explain those differences or quantify their impact on the financial data included in this Updated Draft Red Herring Prospectus-I, nor do we provide a reconciliation of our financial statements to those of IFRS or any other accounting principles or standards. If we were to prepare our financial statements in accordance with such other accounting principles, our results of operations, financial condition and cash flows may be substantially different. For details in connection with risks involving differences between Ind AS, U.S. GAAP and IFRS, see “Risk Factors - Significant differences exist between Ind AS and other accounting principles, such as U.S. GAAP and IFRS, which may be material to the financial statements prepared and presented in accordance with Ind AS contained in this Updated Draft Red Herring Prospectus-I.” on page 118. Prospective investors should consult their own professional advisers for an understanding of the differences between these accounting principles and those with which they may be more familiar. The degree to which the financial information included in this Updated Draft Red Herring Prospectus-I will provide meaningful information is entirely dependent on the reader’s level of familiarity with Indian accounting policies and practices, Ind AS, the Companies Act and the SEBI ICDR Regulations. Any reliance by persons not familiar with these accounting principles and regulations on our financial disclosures presented in this Updated Draft Red Herring Prospectus-I should accordingly be limited.

All figures, including financial information, in decimals (including percentages) have been rounded off to one or two decimals, or to the nearest whole number. All figures in diagrams and charts, including those relating to financial information and operational metrics have been rounded to the nearest decimal place, whole number, thousand or million, as applicable. However, where any figures may have been sourced from third-party industry sources, such figures may be rounded-off to such number of decimal points as provided in such respective sources.

In this Updated Draft Red Herring Prospectus-I (i) the sum or percentage change of certain numbers may not conform exactly to the total figure given; and (ii) the sum of the numbers in a column or row in certain tables may not conform exactly to the total figure given for that column or row. Any such discrepancies are due to rounding off.

Unless stated or the context requires otherwise, all financial and operational metrics (apart from number of storefronts, GBV, percentage of full-time employees in engineering, percentage of full-time employees based in India, unit economics as a percentage of GBV) exclude listing storefronts and India-based non-hotel businesses such as wedding venues under our Weddingz business and co-working spaces under our Workspaces business.

Unless stated or the context requires otherwise, any percentage amounts, as disclosed in “Risk Factors”, “Our Business” and “Management’s Discussion and Analysis of Financial Condition and Results of Operations” on pages 31, 426 and 952, respectively, and elsewhere in this Updated Draft Red Herring Prospectus-I have been calculated on the basis of the Restated Consolidated Financial Information.

Non-GAAP Financial Measures

In addition to our results determined in accordance with Ind AS, we use a variety of financial and operational measures such as gross profit, gross profit (as a % of revenue from operations), EBIT, EBIT (as a % of total income), EBITDA, EBITDA (as a % of total income), EBITDA excluding exceptional items, share based payment expense and other income and EBITDA excluding exceptional items, share based payment expense and other income (as a % of revenue from operations), and working capital, net assets value per equity share, net worth and return on net worth (together, “Non-GAAP Measures”) presented in this Updated Draft Red Herring Prospectus-I, to measure and analyze our financial and operational performance from period to period. We use the above mentioned Non-GAAP Measures to evaluate our ongoing operations and for internal planning and forecasting purposes. We believe that the Non-GAAP Measures, when taken collectively with financial measures prepared in accordance with Ind AS, may be helpful to investors because it provides an additional tool for investors to use in evaluating our ongoing operating results and trends and in comparing our financial results with other companies in our industry because it provides consistency and comparability with past financial performance. These Non-GAAP Measures are supplemental measures of our performance and liquidity that are not required by, or presented in accordance with, Ind AS, Indian GAAP, IFRS or US GAAP. Further, these Non-GAAP Measures are not a measurement of our financial performance or liquidity, profitability or cash flows generated by operating, investing or financing activities under Ind AS, Indian GAAP, IFRS or US GAAP.

Non-GAAP financial information is presented for supplemental informational purposes only, has limitations as an analytical tool and should not be considered in isolation or as a substitute for financial information presented in accordance with Ind AS. Non-GAAP financial information may be different from similarly titled Non-GAAP measures used by other companies. The principal limitation of these non-GAAP financial measures is that they exclude significant expenses and income that are required by Ind AS to be recorded in our financial statements, as further detailed below. In addition, they are subject to inherent limitations as they reflect the exercise of judgment by management about which expenses and income are excluded or included in determining these non-GAAP financial measures. A reconciliation is provided in “Management’s Discussion and Analysis of Financial Condition and Results of Operations- Non-GAAP Financial Measures” on page 975 for each non-GAAP financial measure to the most directly comparable financial measure prepared in accordance with Ind AS. Investors are encouraged to review the related Ind AS financial measures and the reconciliation of non-GAAP financial measures to their most directly comparable Ind AS financial measures included below and to not rely on any single financial measure to evaluate our business. Also, see “Risk Factors- Certain non-GAAP financial measures and other metrics used in this Updated Draft Red Herring Prospectus-I relating to our financial and operating performance have been included in this Updated Draft Red Herring Prospectus-I. These Non-GAAP financial measures are not measures of operating performance or liquidity defined by Ind AS and may not be comparable with those presented by other companies.” on page 113.

NOTICE TO PROSPECTIVE INVESTORS

Notice to Prospective Investors in the United States

The Equity Shares have not been recommended by any U.S. federal or state securities commission or regulatory authority. Furthermore, the foregoing authorities have not confirmed the accuracy or determined the adequacy of this Updated Draft Red Herring Prospectus-I or approved or disapproved the Equity Shares. Any representation to the contrary is a criminal offence in the United States. In making an investment decision, investors must rely on their own examination of our Company and the terms of the Issue, including the merits and risks involved. The Equity Shares offered in the Issue have not been and will not be registered under the United States Securities Act of 1933, as amended (the “U.S. Securities Act”) or any other applicable law of the United States and, unless so registered, may not be offered or sold within the United States except pursuant to an exemption from, or in a transaction not subject to, the registration requirements of the U.S. Securities Act and applicable state securities laws. Accordingly, the Equity Shares are being offered and sold (a) within the United States only to persons reasonably believed to be “qualified institutional buyers” (as defined in Rule 144A under the U.S. Securities Act and referred to in this Updated Draft Red Herring Prospectus-I as “U.S. QIBs”; for the avoidance of doubt, the term “U.S. QIBs” does not refer to a category of institutional investor defined under applicable Indian regulations and referred to in this Updated Draft Red Herring Prospectus-I as “QIBs”) in transactions exempt from, or not subject to, the registration requirements of the U.S. Securities Act; and (b) outside of the United States in offshore transactions as defined in and in compliance with Regulation S and the applicable laws of the jurisdiction where those offers and sales are made. See “Other Regulatory and Statutory Disclosures – Eligibility and Transfer Restrictions” on page 1032.

The Equity Shares have not been and will not be registered, listed or otherwise qualified in any other jurisdiction outside India and may not be offered or sold, and Bids may not be made, by persons in any such jurisdiction except in compliance with the applicable laws of such jurisdiction.

Notice to Prospective Investors in the European Economic Area

This Updated Draft Red Herring Prospectus-I has been prepared on the basis that all offers of Equity Shares in Member States of the European Economic Area (“EEA”) (each a “Member State”) will be made pursuant to an exemption under the Prospectus Regulation (as defined below), as applicable to each Member State, from the requirement to produce a prospectus for offers of Equity Shares. The expression “Prospectus Regulation” means Regulation (EU) 2017/1129.

Accordingly, any person making or intending to make an offer to the public within the EEA of Equity Shares which are the subject of the placement contemplated in this Updated Draft Red Herring Prospectus-I should only do so in circumstances in which no obligation arises for our Company or any of the Book Running Lead Managers to produce a prospectus for such offer pursuant to Article 3 of the Prospectus Regulation or supplement a prospectus pursuant to Article 23 of the Prospectus Regulation. None of our Company and the Book Running Lead Managers have authorised, nor do they authorise, the making of any offer of Equity Shares through any financial intermediary, other than the offers made by the Book Running Lead Managers which constitute the final placement of Equity Shares contemplated in this Updated Draft Red Herring Prospectus-I.

For the purposes of this provision, the expression an “offer to the public” in relation to the Equity Shares in any Member State means the communication in any form and by any means of sufficient information on the terms of the Issue and any Equity Shares to be offered so as to enable an investor to decide to purchase or subscribe for any Equity Shares.

Information to EEA Distributors (as defined below)

Solely for the purposes of the product governance requirements contained within: (a) EU Directive 2014/65/EU on markets in financial instruments, as amended (“MiFID II”); (b) Articles 9 and 10 of Commission Delegated Directive (EU) 2017/593 supplementing MiFID II; and (c) local implementing measures (together, the “MiFID II Product Governance Requirements”), and disclaiming all and any liability, whether arising in tort, contract or otherwise, which any “manufacturer” (for the purposes of the MiFID II Product Governance Requirements) may otherwise have with respect thereto, the Equity Shares have been subject to a product approval process, which has determined that such Equity Shares are: (i) compatible with an end target market of retail investors and investors who meet the criteria of professional clients and eligible counterparties, each as defined in MiFID II; and (ii) eligible for distribution through all distribution channels as are permitted by MiFID II (the “Target Market Assessment”). Notwithstanding the Target Market Assessment, “distributors” (for the purposes of the MiFID II Product Governance Requirements) (“EEA Distributors”) should note that: the price of the Equity Shares may decline and investors could lose all or part of their investment; the Equity Shares offer no guaranteed income and no capital protection; and an investment in the Equity Shares is compatible only with investors who do not need a guaranteed income or capital protection, who (either alone or in conjunction with an appropriate financial or other adviser) are capable of evaluating the merits and risks of such an investment and who have sufficient resources to be able to bear any losses that may result therefrom. The Target Market Assessment is without prejudice to the requirements of any contractual, legal or regulatory selling restrictions in relation to the Issue. Furthermore, it is noted that, notwithstanding the Target Market Assessment, the Book Running Lead Managers will only procure investors who meet the criteria of professional clients and eligible counterparties.

For the avoidance of doubt, the Target Market Assessment does not constitute: (a) an assessment of suitability or appropriateness for the purposes of MiFID II; or (b) a recommendation to any investor or group of investors to invest in, or purchase, or take any other action whatsoever with respect to the Equity Shares. Each EEA Distributor is responsible for undertaking its own target market assessment in respect of the Equity Shares and determining appropriate distribution channels.

Notice to Prospective Investors in the United Kingdom

This Updated Draft Red Herring Prospectus-I has been prepared on the basis that all offers to the public of Equity Shares will be made pursuant to an exemption under the UK Prospectus Regulation from the requirement to produce a prospectus for offers of Equity Shares. The expression “UK Prospectus Regulation” means Prospectus Regulation (EU) 2017/1129, as it forms part of UK domestic law by virtue of the European Union (Withdrawal) Act 2018 (“EUWA”). Accordingly, any person making or intending to make an offer to the public within the United Kingdom of Equity Shares which are the subject of the placement contemplated in this Updated Draft Red Herring Prospectus-I should only do so in circumstances in which no obligation arises for our Company or any of the Book Running Lead Managers to produce a prospectus for such offer pursuant to Article 3 of the UK Prospectus Regulation or supplement a prospectus pursuant to Article 23 of the UK Prospectus Regulation. None of our Company and the Book Running Lead Managers have authorised, nor do they authorise, the making of any offer of Equity Shares through any financial intermediary, other than the offers made by the members of the Syndicate which constitute the final placement of Equity Shares contemplated in this Draft Red Herring Prospectus.

For the purposes of this provision, the expression an “offer to the public” in relation to the Equity Shares in the United Kingdom means the communication in any form and by any means of sufficient information on the terms of the Issue and any Equity Shares to be offered so as to enable an investor to decide to purchase or subscribe for any Equity Shares.

Information to UK Distributors (as defined below)

Solely for the purposes of the product governance requirements contained within the FCA Handbook Product Intervention and Product Governance Sourcebook (“PROD”) (the “UK MiFIR Product Governance Rules”), and disclaiming all and any liability, whether arising in tort, contract or otherwise, which any “manufacturer” (for the purposes of the UK Product Governance Rules) may otherwise have with respect thereto, the Equity Shares have been subject to a product approval process, which has determined that such Equity Shares are: (i) compatible with an end target market of: (a) investors who meet the criteria of professional clients as defined in point (8) of Article 2(1) of Regulation (EU) No 600/2014 as it forms part of domestic law by virtue of the EUWA; (b) eligible counterparties, as defined in the FCA Handbook Conduct of Business Sourcebook (“COBS”); and (c) retail clients who do not meet the definition of professional client under (a) or eligible counterparty per (b); and (ii) eligible for distribution through all distribution channels (the “Target Market Assessment”). Notwithstanding the Target Market Assessment, distributors (for the purposes of the UK MiFIR Product Governance Rules) (“UK Distributors”) should note that: the price of the Equity Shares may decline and investors could lose all or part of their investment; the Equity Shares offer no guaranteed income and no capital protection; and an investment in the Equity Shares is compatible only with investors who do not need a guaranteed income or capital protection, who (either alone or in conjunction with an appropriate financial or other adviser) are capable of evaluating the merits and risks of such an investment and who have sufficient resources to be able to bear any losses that may result therefrom. The Target Market Assessment is without prejudice to the requirements of any contractual, legal or regulatory selling restrictions in relation to the Issue.

Furthermore, it is noted that, notwithstanding the Target Market Assessment, the Book Running Lead Managers will only procure investors who meet the criteria of professional clients and eligible counterparties.

For the avoidance of doubt, the Target Market Assessment does not constitute: (a) an assessment of suitability or appropriateness for the purposes of COBS 9A and COBS 10A respectively; or (b) a recommendation to any investor or group of investors to invest in, or purchase or take any other action whatsoever with respect to the Equity Shares. Each UK Distributor is responsible for undertaking its own target market assessment in respect of the Equity Shares and determining appropriate distribution channels.

AVAILABLE INFORMATION

Our Company is not currently required to file periodic reports under Section 13 or 15 of the Securities Exchange Act of 1934, as amended (the “U.S. Exchange Act”). In order to permit compliance with Rule 144A under the U.S. Securities Act in connection with the resales of the Equity Shares, we agree to furnish upon the request of a shareholder or a prospective purchaser the information required to be delivered under Rule 144A(d)(4) of the U.S. Securities Act if at the time of such request we are not a reporting company under Section 13 or Section 15(d) of the U.S. Exchange Act, or are not exempt from reporting pursuant to Rule 12g3-2(b) thereunder.

Industry and Market Data

Unless stated otherwise, industry and market data used in this Updated Draft Red Herring Prospectus-I have been obtained or derived from publicly available information as well as industry publications and sources such as report titled “Report on Hospitality Industry” dated June 16, 2026 prepared by Lattice Technologies Private Limited and commissioned by our Company for an agreed fees (“1Lattice Report”) pursuant to an engagement letter dated September 2, 2025. The 1Lattice Report has been prepared and issued for the purpose of understanding the industry exclusively in connection with the Issue. Further, Lattice Technologies Private Limited, pursuant to their consent letter dated June 16, 2026 has accorded their no objection and consent to use the 1Lattice Report. Lattice Technologies Private Limited, pursuant to their consent letter has also confirmed that they are an independent agency, and confirmed that they are not related to our Company, our Directors, our Promoters, our Key Managerial Personnel, our Senior Management or the BRLMs. The 1Lattice Report is available on the website of our Company at <https://www.prismlife.com/investor-relations>.

The data used in these sources may have been reclassified by us for the purposes of presentation. Data from these sources may also not be comparable. Industry sources and publications are also prepared based on information as of specific dates and may no longer be current or reflect current trends. Industry sources and publications may also base their information on estimates and assumptions that may prove to be incorrect. The extent to which the industry and market data presented in this Updated Draft Red Herring Prospectus-I is meaningful depends upon the reader’s familiarity with, and understanding of, the methodologies used in compiling such information. There are no standard data gathering methodologies in the industry in which our Company conducts business and methodologies and assumptions may vary widely among different market and industry sources. Such data involves risks, uncertainties and numerous assumptions and is subject to change based on various factors, including those disclosed in “Risk Factors” beginning on page 31. Accordingly, no investment decision should be solely made on the basis of such information.

FORWARD-LOOKING STATEMENTS

This Updated Draft Red Herring Prospectus-I contains certain “forward-looking statements”. These forward-looking statements generally can be identified by words or phrases such as “aim”, “anticipate”, “believe”, “expect”, “estimate”, “intend”, “likely”, “objective”, “plan”, “propose”, “project”, “seek to”, “will”, “will continue”, “will pursue” or other words or phrases of similar import. Similarly, statements that describe our Company’s expected financial conditions, results of operations, strategies, objectives, business plans or goals are also forward-looking statements. However, these are not the exclusive means of identifying forward looking statements. All forward-looking statements are subject to risks, uncertainties and assumptions about our Company that could cause actual results to differ materially from those contemplated by the relevant forward-looking statement.

Actual results may differ materially from those suggested by the forward-looking statements due to risks or uncertainties associated with expectations relating to and including, regulatory changes pertaining to the industries in India in which we operate and our ability to respond to them, our ability to successfully implement our strategy, our growth and expansion, technological changes, our exposure to market risks, general economic and political conditions in India which have an impact on its business activities or investments, the monetary and fiscal policies of India, inflation, deflation, unanticipated turbulence in interest rates, foreign exchange rates, equity prices or other rates or prices, the performance of the financial markets in India and globally, changes in domestic laws, regulations and taxes and changes in competition in the industries in which we operate, incidence of any natural calamities and/or acts of violence. Important factors that could cause actual results to differ materially from our Company’s expectations include, but are not limited to, the following:

- (i) A significant portion of our revenue from operations is derived from outside India. Revenue from operations from outside India were 83.77%, 79.92%, 77.66%, 74.70% of our revenue from operations for the nine months ended December 31, 2025, and Fiscals 2025, 2024 and 2023, respectively, on an aggregate basis with revenue from operations from India contributing 16.23%, 20.08%, 22.34% and 25.30% of our revenue from operations for the nine months ended December 31, 2025, and Fiscals 2025, 2024 and 2023, respectively. Any adverse developments affecting these markets could have an adverse effect on our business, financial condition, cash flows and results of operations.
- (ii) A significant portion of our revenue from operations is derived from sale of accommodation services (which contributed 54.91%, 61.17%, 63.86% and 67.96% of our revenue from operations for the nine months ended December 31, 2025, and Fiscals 2025, 2024 and 2023, respectively) and commission from bookings and royalty income (which contributed 31.91%, 24.98%, 24.94% and 22.26% of our revenue from operations for the nine months ended December 31, 2025, and Fiscals 2025, 2024 and 2023, respectively). Any decrease in the sale of accommodation services and/or commission from bookings could have an adverse effect on our business, results of operations, cash flows and financial condition.
- (iii) We may not be able to successfully integrate the businesses of G6 Hospitality, LLC, K&J Consulting (CheckMyGuest), and Key Flickers (MadeComfy), and we may not be able to successfully integrate future acquisitions or successfully launch or scale new brands and offerings, which could materially and adversely affect our business, financial condition, results of operations and prospects.
- (iv) Negative feedback in the public sphere could harm our brand or reputation, which could materially and adversely affect our business, results of operations, prospects and cash flows.
- (v) If we fail to retain existing Patrons and Customers or acquire new Patrons and Customers in a cost-effective manner, our revenue may decrease and our business, results of operations and financial condition could be adversely affected.
- (vi) Any adverse outcome in legal proceedings involving Zostel may materially and adversely affect our business, reputation, prospects, results of operation and financial condition, including potential issuance or transfer of up to 7% of our shareholding.
- (vii) While we were profitable in the nine months ended December 31, 2025, and Fiscals 2025 and 2024, we incurred a restated loss for the year of ₹12,865.18 million in Fiscal 2023. Our restated profit for the year in Fiscal 2025 was primarily attributable to a tax credit consisting of deferred tax while we incurred restated loss before tax for the said fiscal year. If we are unable to generate adequate revenue and manage our expenses, we may incur losses in the future.

- (viii) If we do not adequately protect our intellectual property and our data, our business, results of operations and financial condition could be materially and adversely affected. As on the date of this Updated Draft Red Herring Prospectus-I, our Company has certain pending trademark applications, including for 'PRISM'.
- (ix) Pursuant to certain external financing arrangements availed for a tenure of three years by one of our Promoter Group entities, being Preferred Hospitality Holdings (Cayman) ("PHH"), the shares of one of our Promoters, RA Co, constituting 100.00% of its total issued and paid-up share capital on a fully diluted basis, are pledged to a lender. Any perceived risk of enforcement of such pledge may create uncertainty in relation to the ownership and governance of entities in our Promoter Group, and any enforcement of such pledge may cause a consequent change in ownership of RA Co, including a change in the Promoter of our Company, which may have a material adverse effect on our business operations and share price.
- (x) There are pending litigations against our Company, Subsidiaries, Directors, Promoters, Key Managerial Personnel and Senior Management. Any adverse decision in such proceedings may render us/them liable to liabilities/penalties and may adversely affect our business, cash flows and reputation.

For further discussion of factors that could cause the actual results to differ from the expectations, see "Risk Factors", "Our Business" and "Management's Discussion and Analysis of Financial Condition and Results of Operations" beginning on pages 31, 426 and 952, respectively. By their nature, certain market risk disclosures are only estimates and could be materially different from what actually occurs in the future. As a result, actual gains or losses could materially differ from those that have been estimated.

Forward-looking statements reflect the current views of our Company as of the date of this Updated Draft Red Herring Prospectus-I and are not a guarantee of future performance. These statements are based on our management's beliefs and assumptions, which in turn are based on currently available information. Although we believe the assumptions upon which these forward-looking statements are based are reasonable, any of these assumptions could prove to be inaccurate, and the forward-looking statements based on these assumptions could be incorrect. Accordingly, we cannot assure investors that the expectations reflected in these forward-looking statements will prove to be correct and given the uncertainties, investors are cautioned not to place undue reliance on such forward-looking statements. None of our Company, our Directors, the Syndicate or any of their respective affiliates has any obligation to update or otherwise revise any statements reflecting circumstances arising after the date hereof or to reflect the occurrence of underlying events, even if the underlying assumptions do not come to fruition. In accordance with the requirements of the SEBI ICDR Regulations, our Company will ensure that investors in India are informed of material developments from the date of the Red Herring Prospectus until the date of Allotment.

SECTION II: RISK FACTORS

An investment in Equity Shares involves a high degree of risk. You should carefully consider all the information in this Updated Draft Red Herring Prospectus-I, including the risks and uncertainties described below before making an investment in Equity Shares.

We have described the risks and uncertainties that we believe are material, but these risks and uncertainties may not be the only risks relevant to us, Equity Shares, or the industries in which we currently operate or propose to operate. Unless specified or quantified in the relevant risk factor below, we are not in a position to quantify the financial or other implication of any of the risks mentioned in this section. If any or a combination of the following risks actually occur, or if any of the risks or uncertainties that are currently not known or deemed to be not relevant or material now actually occur or become material in the future, our business, cash flows, prospects, financial condition and results of operations could suffer, the trading price of the Equity Shares could decline, and you may lose all or part of your investment. For more details on our business and operations, see “Our Business”, “Industry Overview” and “Management’s Discussion and Analysis of Financial Condition and Results of Operations” beginning on pages 31, 426 and 952, respectively, as well as other financial information included elsewhere in this Updated Draft Red Herring Prospectus-I. In making an investment decision, you must rely on your own examination of us and the terms of the Issue, including the merits and risks involved, and you should consult your tax, financial and legal advisors about the particular consequences of investing in the Issue. Prospective investors should pay particular attention to the fact that our Company is incorporated under the laws of India and is subject to a legal and regulatory environment which may differ in certain respects from that of other countries.

This Updated Draft Red Herring Prospectus-I also contains forward-looking statements that involve risks, assumptions, estimates and uncertainties. Our actual results could differ materially from those anticipated in these forward-looking statements as a result of certain factors, including but not limited to the considerations described below and elsewhere in this Updated Draft Red Herring Prospectus-I. For details, see “Forward-Looking Statements” on page 29.

Our Company’s Fiscal commences on April 1 and ends on March 31 of the immediately subsequent year, and references to a particular Fiscal are to the 12 months ended March 31 of that year. Unless otherwise indicated or the context otherwise requires, in this section, references to “the Company” or “our Company” refer to Oravel Stays Limited and references to “we”, “us” or “our” refer to our Company, together with its Subsidiaries and Joint Ventures, on a consolidated basis.

The industry-related information contained in this Updated Draft Red Herring Prospectus-I is derived from the 1Lattice Report, which has been commissioned and paid for by our Company for the purposes of confirming our understanding of the industry, exclusively in connection with the Issue. The 1Lattice Report will be available on the website of our Company at <https://www.prismlife.com/investor-relations>. We engaged 1Lattice for purposes of commissioning the 1Lattice Report pursuant to an engagement letter dated September 2, 2025. Unless otherwise indicated, all financial, operational, industry and other related information derived from the 1Lattice Report and included herein with respect to any particular year, refers to such information for the relevant year.

Data points used by 1Lattice are arrived at by employing an integrated research methodology which includes primary and secondary research. Primary research work includes surveys and in-depth interviews of consumers, customers and other relevant ecosystem participants, and consultations with market participants and experts. In addition to the primary research, quantitative market information (historical and projected) is also derived based on data from third-party sources and industry publications.

Any decrease in our revenue from operations from India, the United States, United Kingdom and Europe, including due to any economic slowdown, social or political factors, increased competition and supply or reduction in demand in these markets, could have an adverse effect on our business, results of operations, financial condition and cash flows. Further, changes in the policies of the state or local governments of these regions, or the Government of India, could require us to incur significant capital expenditure and change our business strategy. We cannot assure you that we will be able to reduce our reliance on these markets in the future, and any adverse impact on such regions will result in an adverse effect on our business.

2. A significant portion of our revenue from operations is derived from sale of accommodation services (which contributed 54.91%, 61.17%, 63.86% and 67.96% of our revenue from operations for the nine months ended December 31, 2025, and Fiscals 2025, 2024 and 2023, respectively) and commission from bookings and royalty income (which contributed 31.91%, 24.98%, 24.94% and 22.26% of our revenue from operations for the nine months ended December 31, 2025, and Fiscals 2025, 2024 and 2023, respectively). Any decrease in the sale of accommodation services and/or commission from bookings could have an adverse effect on our business, results of operations, cash flows and financial condition.

Our revenue from operations primarily comprises sale of accommodation services and commission from bookings and royalty income, and we have limited diversification into other products or services. This concentration increases our vulnerability to fluctuations in travel demand and pricing dynamics, including seasonality, macroeconomic cycles, inflationary pressures on discretionary spending, foreign exchange volatility affecting inbound travel, changes in consumer preferences and supply constraints from accommodation partners. Competitive pressures, including discounting by existing competitors, new market entrants or shifts by accommodation partners and customers to direct channels, may reduce booking volumes and compress commission rates or margins on accommodation services. If we are unable to broaden our revenue mix, develop and scale ancillary offerings on commercially acceptable terms or deepen monetization across the customer journey, our ability to offset declines or volatility in our core streams may be limited. Any decrease in sale of accommodation services and/or commission from bookings and royalty income could have an adverse effect on our business, results of operations, cash flows and financial condition.

In addition, our reliance on third-party accommodation partners exposes us to the risk of renegotiation of commercial terms, reductions in allocable inventory, imposition of commission caps by partners or regulators, or termination of arrangements, any of which could adversely impact our take rates and volumes. Geographic or segment concentration within our partner base may amplify these effects in the event of regional disruptions, regulatory changes, public health events, natural disasters, or geopolitical developments. Moreover, increases in customer acquisition and marketing costs, constraints on working capital, technology platform disruptions or adverse changes in taxation applicable to travel services could further reduce the profitability of our business. If market conditions or competitive dynamics adversely affect accommodation supply, demand, pricing or commissions and we are unable to sufficiently diversify or mitigate these impacts, our business, results of operations and financial condition could be materially and adversely affected.

3. We may not be able to successfully integrate the businesses of G6 Hospitality, LLC, K&J Consulting (CheckMyGuest), and Key Flickers (MadeComfy), and we may not be able to successfully integrate future acquisitions or successfully launch or scale new brands and offerings, which could materially and adversely affect our business, financial condition, results of operations and prospects.

In Fiscal 2025, we acquired IBL Limited NewCo, LLC, G6 Canada Hospitality Franchising, Inc. and G6 Hospitality Franchising Canada L.P. (collectively referred to as “G6”) (which conducted the business of Motel 6 and Studio 6-branded hotels) for an all cash upfront consideration of ₹42,740.68 million (Indian Rupee equivalent of U.S.$503.60 million, based on exchange rate of U.S.$1 = ₹84.87, as of December 17, 2024) and K&J Consulting (which operates under the brand CheckMyGuest and Studio Prestige in France) for an aggregate consideration of ₹7,548.62 million (Indian Rupee equivalent of EUR 84,158,320, based on exchange rate of EUR 1 = ₹89.70, as of July 29, 2024), and in Fiscal 2026, we acquired Key Flickers Pty Ltd. (which manages vacation homes in Australia and New Zealand under the brand Made Comfy) for an aggregate consideration of ₹3,376.80 million (Indian Rupee equivalent of AUD 60.00 million, based on exchange rate of AUD 1 = ₹56.28, as of July 3, 2025) (collectively, the “Acquired Companies”). For further details relating to these acquisitions, please refer to “History and Certain Corporate Matters” beginning on page 473. These acquisitions were aligned with our growth initiatives aimed at consolidating our presence in certain fragmented markets in which we operate. However, acquisitions of this scale and nature inherently present multiple risks and complexities, particularly around post-acquisition integration and execution of business plans.

The integration of these Acquired Companies involves significant operational, cultural and regulatory challenges, which include aligning varying business models, integrating disparate technology infrastructures, financial systems and data architecture and reconciling differences in organizational structure and strategic direction. Each of the Acquired Companies has operated independently under their respective brand philosophies and operating principles, which may not be fully aligned with our platform-led, centralized and standardized approach to operations, customer experience and brand management.

There is also a risk that efforts to align the operations of the Acquired Companies with our own may not yield the intended synergies in future. We may face friction in standardizing operating procedures across markets with different customer expectations, property norms and local regulatory regimes.

Further, any unanticipated liabilities, including pending or future litigation, undisclosed contractual obligations, tax exposures, or customer service issues, whether identified during or following these acquisitions, could lead to increased costs and impair the overall value of the transactions.

Similar risks would apply to any future acquisitions or investments that we may undertake. These include challenges in identifying suitable targets, limitations on the scope and accuracy of due diligence, valuation and financing risks (including potential increases in leverage and interest costs), obtaining required regulatory approvals on acceptable terms, retaining key personnel, and executing post-closing integration. Any failure to execute our acquisition strategy effectively could constrain our growth, dilute margins, or increase volatility in our results. In addition, our strategy contemplates launching and scaling new brands and offerings from time to time, whether organically or in connection with acquisitions. New brands or offerings may not achieve market acceptance, may cannibalize our existing brands, or may require higher-than-expected investment in technology, marketing, compliance or operations. Brand architecture decisions, positioning and customer experience may not resonate as intended across diverse markets and regulatory environments, and misalignment with owner, partner or franchise expectations could impair adoption. If new brands or offerings do not perform as anticipated, we may not achieve projected returns, which could adversely affect our business, financial condition and results of operations.

While there have been no material instances in the nine months ended December 31, 2025, and Fiscals 2025, 2024 and 2023 where we have recognized any impairments on goodwill or made any provisions as a result of past acquisitions, there can be no assurance that such events will not occur in future or that we will realize the intended benefits of these acquisitions within the anticipated time frame or at all. If we do not successfully integrate the Acquired Companies or realize the intended benefits of these acquisitions, our ability to grow our business, improve unit economics and execute our strategic objectives could be materially impaired, which could materially and adversely affect our business, financial condition, results of operations and future prospects. Additionally, similar integration and execution risks would apply to any future acquisitions or investments we may undertake, including risks relating to identification of suitable targets, due diligence limitations, valuation, financing, regulatory approvals and post-closing integration. There can be no assurance that any acquisition strategy will be successfully executed or that anticipated benefits will be realized within expected timeframes or at all.

4. *Negative feedback in the public sphere could harm our brand or reputation, which could materially and adversely affect our business, results of operations, prospects and cash flows.

Media, legislative or government scrutiny around our Company could adversely affect our brand and our reputation including with our Patrons, Customers and communities. Any incident, whether actual or alleged, involving the safety or security of listings, Customers or Patrons, fraudulent transactions, negative Patron or Customer experiences with third parties that we rely on, such as web hosting sites or payment processors, or incidents that are mistakenly attributed to us, as well as unfavorable publicity regarding our business model, revenue model, customer support, technology, platform changes, platform quality, actions of our Patrons, privacy or security practices, or adverse publicity regarding our management team and any media coverage resulting therefrom, could create a negative public perception of our platform and adversely affect our reputation, which would adversely impact our ability to attract Patrons and Customers and reduce the size of our network, which could adversely affect our business, cash flows, financial condition, and results of operations. The impact of these issues may be more pronounced if we are seen to have failed to provide prompt and appropriate Customer support on our platform, if our policies are perceived to be providing Patrons and/or Customers with unsatisfactory resolutions. In order to mitigate such negative feedback, we routinely issue advisories to our Patrons in connection with events, including communications emphasizing the requirement to comply with applicable laws such as safety and security guidelines, the Immigration and Foreigners Act, 2025, maintenance of statutory registers, and related regulatory requirements. Additionally, our Company responds to Customer queries relating to suspected fraudulent messages by issuing cautionary guidance, clarifying official communication channels, alerting Customers to phishing emails, and escalating such matters to internal cyber security teams for review.

We have been the subject of media reports, social media posts, blogs and other forums both in India and globally that contain allegations about our business or activity on our platform that create negative publicity. While we believe that there has been no material impact of the media reports, social media posts, blogs and other forums, as of the nine months ended December 31, 2025 and Fiscals 2025, 2024 and 2023, social media compounds the potential scope of the negative publicity that could be generated and the speed with which such negative publicity may spread that may adversely impact the business operations.

In the past, there have been reports in the media on protests lodged against us by industry associations/organizations alleging amongst others that we engage in price parity, denial of market access, charging exorbitant commissions and deep discounting. Please see “– 14. Our business and activities may be regulated by evolving competition laws of various jurisdictions. We are currently involved in a matter before the Competition Commission of India and could be subject to penalties, if any such penalties are awarded.” on page 64. While we have addressed and will continue to address the concerns raised by our stakeholders, any such negative campaigns and instances carried out by such industry association in the future could negatively impact our reputation and operations and may lead to legal actions.

Any negative publicity or public complaints, including those that impede our ability to maintain positive brand awareness through our marketing and consumer communications efforts, could harm our reputation and may lead to fewer Patrons and Customers using our platform, and attempts to replace this traffic with other channels will require us to increase our marketing and promotion expenses and may not be successful. Such negative publicity could also make it more difficult for us to hire talented employees. Any resulting damage to our brand or reputation could materially and adversely affect our business, results of operations and financial condition.

5. If we fail to retain existing Patrons and Customers or acquire new Patrons and Customers in a cost-effective manner, our revenue may decrease and our business, results of operations and financial condition could be adversely affected.

We believe that the growth of our business and revenue is dependent on our ability to continue to grow our platform by retaining our existing Patrons and adding new Patrons in a cost-effective manner, including in new markets and by increasing our GBV and the volume of bookings processed on our platform. The table below shows the number of storefronts on our platform as of the dates indicated:

| Particulars          | As at December 31, |         | As at March 31, |         |
|----------------------|--------------------|---------|-----------------|---------|
|                      | 2025               | 2025    | 2024            | 2023    |
| Storefronts – Global | 293,554            | 231,529 | 176,449         | 170,101 |

The increase in storefronts helps attract more Customers to our platform, which in turn encourages more Patrons to join, creating a network effect. However, this growth may not continue as expected or could slow due to platform fatigue, competition or limited supply. Any failure to retain existing Patrons or Customers (whether as a result of impaired relationships, a decrease in popularity of storefronts listed on our platform, competition or otherwise) may reduce the value of our platform. In expanding our operations into new markets to acquire additional Patrons and Customers, we may be placed into unfamiliar competitive environments, and we may invest significant resources with the possibility that the return on such investments will not be achieved for several years or at all. While we have not experienced a material adverse impact on our growth rates in the nine months ended December 31, 2025, and Fiscals 2025, 2024 and 2023, our Customer or Patron retention, or the overall value of our platform attributable to the foregoing factors, there can be no assurance that such adverse impacts will not occur in the future.

The table below shows our contribution of marketing and promotion expenses (comprising advertising and sales promotion, commission and brokerage and business development expenses) to revenue from operations for the relevant period/years indicated:

| Marketing and promotion expenses as % of revenue from operations (F=D/E) (%) | 16.58%                                            | 14.56%          | 13.52%          | 13.89%          |

Despite our investment in marketing and promotion expenses, the revenue generated from Patrons and Customers might not exceed the cost of acquisition of such Patrons and Customers. If the cost to acquire and retain Patrons and Customers continues to rise without a proportional increase in bookings or GBV, our unit economics may be adversely impacted. See “Management’s Discussion and Analysis of Financial Condition and Results of Operations – Principal Factors Affecting Our Financial Condition and Results of Operations – Revenue drivers – Number of storefronts” and “Management’s Discussion and Analysis of Financial Condition and Results of Operations – Principal Factors Affecting Our Financial Condition and Results of Operations – Revenue Drivers – GBV per storefront per month” on pages 961 and 962 respectively, for further details on our number of storefronts and our GBV.

If our Patrons were to cease operations, temporarily or permanently, or face financial distress or other business disruptions, or if our relationships with our Patrons deteriorate, we may not be able to provide Customers with a sufficient range of storefronts for bookings. In addition, if we fail to negotiate satisfactory terms with Patrons or fail to generate sufficient bookings or revenue for our Patrons (in particular, in comparison with independently managed hotels and home storefronts that have not joined our platform) or ineffectively manage our relationships with our Patrons, such Patrons may terminate their contracts with us and/or enter into arrangements with our competitors. Our agreements with our Patrons generally remain in effect for a term between one to 15 years, and some are automatically renewed thereafter until terminated by them or us. Our Patrons may terminate their agreements with us by providing advance notice. If our Patrons terminate their agreements with us, the selection of storefronts available on our platform would be adversely affected.

Our ability to attract and retain Patrons and Customers is dependent in part on our ability to provide high quality Patron and Customer support. Patrons and Customers depend on our support to resolve issues relating to our platform in a timely manner. We rely on third-parties to provide some support services and products, such as call center services and payment gateway services. We renew and terminate contracts with third party service providers on an ongoing basis in the ordinary course of business. None of the renewals or terminations during the nine months ended December 31, 2025, and Fiscals 2025, 2024 and 2023 had a material adverse impact on the Company’s financial statements or business continuity. As we continue to grow our business and improve our offerings, we will face challenges related to providing high-quality support services at scale. Any failure to maintain high quality support, or a market perception that we do not maintain high quality support, could harm our reputation and adversely affect our ability to scale our platform and business, our financial condition, and results of operations.

Our ability to retain existing Customers and attract new Customers to make bookings on our platform is also affected by a number of factors, some of which are beyond our control, including our price competitiveness, our Patrons’ ability to provide exceptional accommodation, services and experiences to Customers, increasing competition, declines or inefficiencies in our marketing efforts, negative associations with or reduced awareness of our brand, natural disasters and health concerns, including any related travel restrictions, and other macroeconomic conditions affecting the travel and accommodation industry. We could also fail to convert first-time Customers and fail to engage with existing Customers if our platform is not user-friendly, Customers have an unsatisfactory experience on our platform, or the storefronts and any other content provided on our platform are not effectively displayed to Customers. If we are unable to attract and retain our Patrons and Customers in a cost-effective manner, or at all, our business, results of operations and financial condition could be materially and adversely affected.

6. Any adverse outcome in legal proceedings involving Zostel may materially and adversely affect our business, reputation, prospects, results of operation and financial condition, including potential issuance or transfer of up to 7% of our shareholding.

Our Company may face adverse consequences following consummation of our acquisitions and each acquisition could present us with risks and difficulties. To the extent we pursue acquisitions, a number of factors may prevent us from completing such acquisitions on acceptable terms. For instance, our Company signed a non-binding term sheet with Zostel Hospitality Private Limited (“Zostel”) and certain other parties for the potential acquisition of, inter alia, Zostel’s business by our Company, which did not materialize, as Zostel contended that while it had fully complied with all obligations outlined in the above-mentioned term sheet, our Company did not take the requisite steps to finalize the acquisition process. Our Company disputed the claims in entirety on the ground that the term sheet was non-binding and was merely exploratory in nature and no definitive documents were executed. Further, several commercial aspects of the transaction were not finalized and no part of Zostel’s business was transferred to our Company. While the arbitrator passed an award holding that the term sheet was binding in nature our Company has filed a petition before the High Court of Delhi challenging the award. The High Court of Delhi, set aside the award on the grounds that it was in conflict with the public policy of India. Thereafter, Zostel filed an appeal under section 37 of the Arbitration and Conciliation Act, 1996 before the Division Bench of the Delhi High Court. For further details, see “Outstanding Litigation and Material Developments – Litigation involving our Company – Material civil litigation against our Company” on page 997. If Zostel succeeds at a stage with a non-appealable order, our Company may be required to issue or transfer up to seven per cent of our shareholding (or pay an equivalent monetary value) as per the direction of the court, to Zostel and certain other parties.

We cannot assure you that we will not receive any adverse order or claim in the future or that such claims will not have a material adverse impact on us, our financial condition and/or shareholding structure and also in such case, our management’s time and attention and our Company’s resources may be diverted.

7. While we were profitable in the nine months ended December 31, 2025, and Fiscals 2025 and 2024, we incurred a restated loss for the year of ₹12,865.18 million in Fiscal 2023. Our restated profit for the year in Fiscal 2025 was primarily attributable to a tax credit consisting of deferred tax while we incurred restated loss before tax for the said fiscal year. If we are unable to generate adequate revenue and manage our expenses, we may incur losses in the future.

We recorded restated profit of ₹7,483.38 million in the nine months ended December 31, 2025, ₹2,448.22 million in Fiscal 2025 and ₹2,295.79 million in Fiscal 2024 and incurred a restated loss of ₹12,865.18 million in Fiscal 2023.

Our restated loss in Fiscal 2023 was primarily due to elevated operating expenses amounting to ₹31,372.76 million and employee benefits expense amounting to ₹15,488.40 million (including share based payment expense amounting to ₹6,303.86 million), finance costs amounting to ₹6,815.80 million and exceptional items amounting to ₹1,054.05 million (primarily comprising severance related costs incurred in connection with workforce optimization initiatives, partially offset by reversal of share based payment expense which pertained to the same employees).

Our restated profit of ₹7,483.38 million in the nine months ended December 31, 2025 was primarily due to an income tax credit consisting of deferred tax amounting to ₹(5,592.96) million and restated profit before tax of ₹2,452.18 million. In Fiscal 2025, we recorded a restated profit for the year of ₹2,448.22 million, primarily as a result of tax credit consisting of deferred tax amounting to ₹(7,675.58) million. Our restated loss before tax amounted to ₹(4,893.16) million for Fiscal 2025. Our restated profit of ₹2,295.79 million in Fiscal 2024 was primarily due to a fair value gain on our investment in joint ventures and reversal of financial liability. Although our restated profit/(loss) before tax in the nine months ended December 31, 2025, and Fiscals 2025 and 2024 reflects our focus on revenue growth and cost optimization, technology-led operational efficiencies and scaling our platform, there can be no assurance that we will continue to remain profitable in the future.

A significant increase in our operating expenses and cost base without a corresponding increase in revenue could materially affect our profitability and result in our incurring losses in the future. There can be no assurance that we will achieve positive restated profit for the year or continue to record positive restated profit for the year in the future. If we are unable to improve our operational profitability and generate positive restated profit for the year, our business, financial condition, results of operations, cash flows and prospects may be adversely affected. Accordingly, investors should not rely solely on our restated profit for the nine months ended December 31, 2025, Fiscal 2025 or Fiscal 2024 as an indicator of our future profitability or operating performance.

Our operating expenses, employee benefits expense, depreciation and amortization expense, finance costs and other expenses along with their percentage of revenue from operations for the relevant period/years indicated are set forth in the tables below:

Please refer to “Management’s Discussion and Analysis of Financial Condition and Results of Operations – Cost Drivers” on page 964 for further details.

Our future growth and profitability depend on increasing our Patron and Customer base and storefront footprint globally. For more details, see “Our Business – Our Growth Strategies” beginning on page 450. In addition, we have changed our revenue share percentage and may in the future, reduce our revenue share percentage for strategic or competitive reasons. Any decrease in the quality of our solutions or offerings, decrease in our revenue share percentage or any failure to manage potential increases in our operating expenses could result in a material adverse effect on our business, prospects, results of operations, cash flows and financial condition.

8. If we do not adequately protect our intellectual property and our data, our business, results of operations and financial condition could be materially and adversely affected. As on the date of this Updated Draft Red Herring Prospectus-I, our Company has certain pending trademark applications, including for ‘PRISM’.

We hold intellectual property across multiple jurisdictions, including registered and unregistered trademarks, copyrights, patents, and domain names. For further details please refer to “Our Business-Our Intellectual Property” on page 460. Certain trademarks associated with acquired businesses (including “checkmyguest”, “STUDIO 6”, “Motel 6”, “BELVILLA”, “MadeComfy”, “Traum Ferienwohnungen” and “DanCenter”) are owned by our Subsidiaries (K&J Consulting, G6 Hospitality IP LLC, Belvilla AG, Key Flickers Pty Ltd, Traum Ferienwohnungen GmbH and DanCenter A/S). Our Subsidiaries may obtain permissions or licences and, on revocable and limited terms, sublicense them for brand association and joint promotions. Effective intellectual property protection may not be available in every country in which we operate or intend to operate our business. Competitors could offer technologies, products, services, features or concepts that are substantially similar to ours and compete with our business, or copy or otherwise obtain, disclose and/or use our brand, content, design elements, creative, editorial, and entertainment assets, or other proprietary information without authorization. We may be unable to prevent third parties from seeking to register, acquire, or otherwise obtain trademarks, service marks, domain names or social media handles that are similar to, infringe upon or diminish the value of our trademarks, service marks, copyrights, and our other proprietary rights. In addition, our current or future trademarks or other intellectual property rights may be challenged by third parties or invalidated through administrative process or litigation. As of the date of this Updated Draft Red Herring Prospectus-I, our Company has 35 pending trademark applications in India, of which nine have been objected in India. In addition to above, the Company has also applied for and obtained various trade marks in jurisdictions outside of India. Across various jurisdictions outside of India, while our Company has 344 registered trademarks, six of the registered trademarks have expired and are pending renewal, and 180 trademark applications are pending registration. As on the date of this Updated Draft Red Herring Prospectus-I, our Company has also filed an application to register “PRISM” and “CHECK-IN” as trademarks before Controller General of Patents, Designs and Trademarks. “PRISM” is currently pending registration in class 43 (but has been accepted and advertised in the trademarks journal) and in class 35 (which has passed the formalities check). There is no assurance that the application will be approved, and it may be rejected. Further, we have applied for two patents in India, the applications for which are currently pending. As of the date of this Updated Draft Red Herring Prospectus-I, our Subsidiaries also have pending trademark applications in various jurisdictions. Failure to successfully obtain and maintain such registrations could impact our use of such trademarks, which in turn could adversely affect our business operations and financial position. While we routinely employ technological and legal measures in an attempt to divert, halt or mitigate such operations, we may not always be able to detect or halt the underlying activities as technologies used to accomplish these operations continue to rapidly evolve. While we ensure compliance with the intellectual property rights of others, we cannot determine with certainty whether we are infringing any existing third-party intellectual property rights, which may force us to alter our product or service offerings. See “– 79. Our use of “open source” software could adversely affect our ability to offer our platform and services and subject us to costly litigation and other disputes.” on page 112.

Our intellectual property assets and rights are essential to our business. If the protection of our proprietary rights and data is inadequate to prevent unauthorized use or misappropriation by third parties, the value of our brand and other intangible assets may be diminished and competitors may be able to more effectively mimic our technologies, offerings, features or methods of operations. Even if we do detect violations or misappropriations and decide to enforce our rights, litigation may be necessary to enforce our rights, and any enforcement efforts we undertake could be time-consuming and expensive, could divert our management’s attention and may result in a court determining that certain of our intellectual property rights are unenforceable. For instance, we have initiated legal proceedings against third parties in cases involving infringement of our intellectual property rights. While we have sought directions from the respective courts that such third parties be prohibited from, among other things, using any marks or names that are fraudulent or deceptively confusing and similar to our registered trademarks, we cannot assure you that such litigation will be decided in our favor. Additionally, in July 2019, a trademark and passing off suit was filed where our Company sued Khalifa Industries Private Limited and its director for using the mark “JOYO/joyo Rooms” for hotel booking services, with a website and content closely imitating OYO’s branding and online presence. The Delhi Commercial Court (Saket) held that OYO is the registered proprietor and prior user of the well-known mark “OYO” for hotel and accommodation services, and that the defendants’ JOYO/JOYO ROOMS mark and website were deceptively similar and amounted to infringement, passing off, of OYO’s trademark. The court passed a decree of permanent injunction in our favour thereby restraining Khalifa Industries Private Limited from using the trademark JOYO or any other mark similar to sale or OYO. The suit was disposed of in favour of our Company. If we fail to protect our intellectual property and data in a cost-effective and meaningful manner, our competitive standing could be harmed and our brand, reputation, business, results of operations and financial condition could be materially and adversely affected. For details in relation to risks associated with disputes arising out of violations of intellectual property rights, please see “– 73. We have been, and may in the future be, subject to claims that our Patrons or us have violated certain third-party intellectual property rights, which, even where meritless, can be costly to defend and could materially and adversely affect our business, results of operations and financial condition.” on page 109. A list of details of all applications in relation to intellectual property of the Company that are applied for and pending as of the date of the this Updated Draft Red Herring Prospectus-I is set out below:

9. Pursuant to certain external financing arrangements availed for a tenure of three years by one of our Promoter Group entities, being Preferred Hospitality Holdings (Cayman) (“PHH”), the shares of one of our Promoters, RA Co, constituting 100.00% of its total issued and paid-up share capital on a fully diluted basis, are pledged to a lender. Any perceived risk of invocation of such pledge may create uncertainty in relation to the ownership and governance of entities in our Promoter Group, and any enforcement of such pledge may cause a consequent change in ownership of RA Co, including a change in the Promoter of our Company, which may have a material adverse effect on our business operations and share price.

As on the date of this Updated Draft Red Herring Prospectus-I, Ritesh Agarwal indirectly holds 100.00% in PHH through RA Hospitality Holdings Co. Pte. Ltd. PHH further holds 100.00% in one of our Promoters, RA Co and RA Co holds 3,185,744,464 Equity Shares constituting 20.12% of the pre-Issue share capital of our Company, on a fully diluted basis.

Pursuant to the terms of an external financing facility availed for a tenure of three years with effect from October 30, 2025 by Preferred Hospitality Holdings (Cayman), one of our Promoter Group entities, which is 100.00% owned and controlled by our Individual Promoter (“PHH”), 100% of the share capital of one of our Promoters, namely RA Co, held by PHH, has been pledged to DB International Trust (Singapore) Limited, the security agent acting on behalf of the lender of such financing facility, as security for such financing arrangement availed. It may be noted that the Equity Shares of our Company held by our Individual Promoter and RA Co have not been pledged or securitized in connection with any financing arrangement. Further, neither the Equity Shares held by SVF India Holdings (Cayman) Limited in our Company are pledged nor the shares of SVF India Holdings (Cayman) Limited are pledged with a lender/third party pursuant to any financing arrangement. For details of the shareholding of RA Co in our Company, see “Capital Structure – Pre-Issue and Post-Issue shareholding of our Promoters, members of our Promoter Group, public Shareholders (top 10 Shareholders)” on page 275.

Any default by PHH under the underlying facility documents may entitle the security agent (acting on behalf of the lenders) to invoke the pledge and any such invocation of the pledge may result in a consequent change in ownership of RA Co, including a change in the Promoters of our Company. In the event invocation of such pledge results in a change in the Promoter(s) of our Company prior to listing, then our Company will be required to file a fresh draft offer document with the SEBI in compliance with the requirements under Schedule XVI of the SEBI ICDR Regulations. Further, should the invocation of the pledge occur after listing of our Equity Shares on the Stock Exchanges, resulting in an acquisition of 25.00% or more voting rights in, or control over, our Company (including by way of acquisition of control through a Promoter entity directly), open-offer obligation under the SEBI SAST Regulations may be triggered. Any perceived risk of such enforcement may create uncertainty in relation to the ownership and governance of entities in our Promoter/Promoter Group, which may have a material adverse effect on our business operations and share price.

10. There are pending litigations against our Company, Subsidiaries, Directors, Promoters, Key Managerial Personnel and Senior Management. Any adverse decision in such proceedings may render us/them liable to liabilities/penalties and may adversely affect our business, cash flows and reputation.

As of the date of this Updated Draft Red Herring Prospectus-I, certain legal proceedings involving our Company, Subsidiaries, Directors, Promoters, Key Managerial Personnel and Senior Management are pending at different levels of adjudication before various courts, tribunals and authorities. We have been and may be a party to various legal and regulatory claims, litigation or pre-litigation disputes, and proceedings arising in the normal course of business, be it with our Patrons for alleged wrongful termination of contracts or for non-payment of dues, or with our Customers, service providers and certain other third parties. For further details, see “Outstanding Litigation and Material Developments” on page 993.

For instance, an enquiry is being conducted by Economic Offences Wing, Government of Madhya Pradesh against OHHPL with respect to non-payment of requisite stamp duty on certain agreements. For further details in relation to the matter, see “Outstanding Litigation and Material Developments- Litigation involving our Subsidiaries-Actions and proceedings initiated by statutory/regulatory authorities against our Subsidiaries- OYO Hotels and Homes Private Limited” on page 1005.

The number and significance of these claims, disputes, and proceedings have increased as our Company has grown larger, the number of bookings on our platform has increased, our brand awareness has increased and the scope and complexity of our business have expanded, and we expect that the number and significance of such claims, disputes and proceedings may continue to increase. Also see “– 6. Any adverse outcome in legal proceedings involving Zostel may materially and adversely affect our business, reputation, prospects, results of operation and financial condition including potential issuance or transfer of up to 7% of our shareholding.” and “– 14. Our business and activities may be regulated by evolving competition laws of various jurisdictions. We are currently involved in a matter before the Competition Commission of India and could be subject to penalties, if any such penalties are awarded.” on pages 37 and 64, respectively.

In addition, any litigation or pre-litigation claims against us, whether or not meritorious, are time consuming, require substantial expense and result in the diversion of significant operational resources.

A summary of outstanding litigation proceedings involving our Company, our Subsidiaries, our Directors, Promoters, Key Managerial Personnel and Senior Management as disclosed in “Outstanding Litigation and Material Developments” beginning on page 993, in terms of the SEBI ICDR Regulations as of the date of this Updated Draft Red Herring Prospectus-I is set out below:

^ Company, Subsidiaries, Directors, Promoters, KMPs and SMPs have been named as joint parties in certain outstanding litigation. For such instances, the amount included has not been included separately for each party.

Our Company, Subsidiaries, Directors, Promoters, Key Managerial Personnel and Senior Management as the case may be, are in the process of litigating these matters. We cannot assure you that any of the outstanding litigation matters will be settled in our favor, or that no liability, additional or otherwise, will arise out of these proceedings in the future.

For further details, see “Outstanding Litigation and Material Developments” beginning on page 993.

11. *Capacity constraints, performance or other operational failures of our technology platform or changes or outages at third-party technology providers, could materially adversely affect our business, results of operations and financial condition.

Since our founding, we have experienced growth in consumer traffic to our platform. In the nine months ended December 31, 2025 and Fiscals 2025, 2024 and 2023, we had 0.60 million, 0.57 million, 0.57 million and 0.72 million daily active users (average daily count of unique users who engage with our Company’s platforms during the relevant reporting period. For these purposes, a user is considered to have engaged if they: (i) open our mobile application or access our web platforms; or (ii) initiate a transaction (including making a booking on our mobile application or our web platforms) on any given day). We rely on computer systems, hardware, software, technology infrastructure, online sites and networks for both internal and external operations that are critical to our business. We own and manage some of these technology systems, but we also rely on third-party providers for critical services, including cloud hosting and data centers, content delivery networks, domain name services, telecommunications and internet connectivity, payment processing, messaging and notifications, analytics and back-office systems such as finance and accounting. Any failure of, capacity constraint in, or material change to our technology systems or those of our third-party providers could disrupt our operations and have a material adverse effect on us.

Rapid increases in user activity, seasonal peaks, promotional campaigns, unexpected traffic spikes or malicious traffic can stress our infrastructure. If our systems and network architecture cannot be expanded or are not scaled to cope with increased demand, or if they fail to perform as designed, we could experience significant operational interruptions, including site or app downtime, page load latency, degraded search or recommendation quality, incorrect or failed transactions and payments, data synchronization issues, session time-outs, delays in the introduction of new features, and disruption to customer care. Capacity planning, load balancing, caching and database sharing may prove insufficient, and adding redundancy, compute capacity, bandwidth or peering arrangements can be costly and may not be available when needed.

Our reliance on third-party technology providers introduces concentration and dependency risk. Service level agreements typically provide limited remedies (often service credits) and exclude consequential losses, and we may be unable to promptly replace or replicate these services on acceptable terms or at all. In addition, changes by mobile operating systems, browsers or app stores (including privacy settings, user-tracking restrictions, or content policies), or removal of our apps from app stores, could impair functionality, discovery and distribution of our services.

Changes to or defects in our software or configuration can cause service incidents. We regularly deploy new code, modify configurations, migrate workloads, refactor architectures and update third-party and open-source software components. Errors in design, coding, testing, deployment, feature-flagging or rollback procedures, including with respect to database schema changes and data pipelines, can result in system instability, data loss or corruption, inconsistencies in financial or operational data, or impaired user experience. Technical debt can compound these risks, and quality assurance and disaster-recovery testing may not capture all failure modes encountered in production.

Our technology systems, and those of our third-party providers, are also vulnerable to damage or interruption from natural disasters, power loss, fires, floods and other extreme weather events, telecommunications failures, undersea cable cuts, routing or peering issues, domain or DNS hijacking, certificate expiry, geopolitical events, civil unrest and strikes. Increasing regulatory requirements, such as data localization, cross-border data transfer restrictions or sanctions and export controls affecting technology components, may require architectural changes, additional vendors or duplicative infrastructure, each of which may be time-consuming and costly and could increase operational risk.

While we invest in resilience, including redundancies, monitoring, incident response, back-ups and disaster recovery, these measures may not prevent or fully mitigate downtime or data loss. Our recovery point and recovery time objectives may not be met in all scenarios, failover between regions or providers may not function as intended, and disaster-recovery environments may not mirror production at the time of an incident. Our existing business interruption insurance may not cover all losses or be available to us on economically reasonable terms in the future or at all.

While we have experienced certain technology systems failures and interruptions in the past, such as temporary performance degradation or short-duration outages arising from traffic spikes, code deployment issues and third-party infrastructure maintenance, these incidents were resolved without any material data loss, and none of these events have had a material adverse impact on our business in the nine months ended December 31, 2025, and Fiscals 2025, 2024 and 2023. However, any of the foregoing events, individually or in the aggregate, could damage our brand and reputation, reduce traffic, engagement and retention, increase costs, divert management attention, lead to disputes or regulatory inquiries, impair our ability to recognize revenue or settle payments correctly, and otherwise materially adversely affect our business, results of operations and financial condition. For related risks, see also “– 45. Maintaining and enhancing our brand and reputation is critical to our growth. Our dependence on third parties for properties, property management, hospitality services and ancillary guest services exposes us to risks if such third parties fail to maintain service standards or are unable to continue their operations. Any adverse impact on the reputation and quality of our storefronts, or the brands under which they operate, could adversely affect our business, results of operations and financial condition.”

- 12. *As of December 31, 2025 and March 31, 2025, we had total borrowings of ₹74,848.83 million and ₹71,440.51 million, respectively. Our levels of indebtedness could adversely affect our financial flexibility and our competitive position. Additionally, our debt obligations contain restrictions that impact our business and expose us to risks that could materially and adversely affect our liquidity and financial condition. If we require additional funding to support our business, this additional funding may not be available on reasonable terms, or at all. If we default on our obligations, we may suffer adverse consequences, including enforcement of the security over our assets and the shares of certain of our subsidiaries.

We have a substantial amount of indebtedness, which requires significant interest and principal payments. As of December 31, 2025 and March 31, 2025, we had total borrowings (sum of non-current and current borrowings) of ₹74,848.83 million and ₹71,440.51 million, respectively. See “Financial Indebtedness” beginning on page 947 for details of instances where we obtained debt to refinancing existing loans. Our Gearing Ratio, which is net debt (including all financial liabilities, less cash and cash equivalents, other bank balances and investment in mutual funds, bonds and commercial paper) divided by total capital plus net debt, was 65.28%, 68.92%, 68.71%, and 71.94% as of December 31, 2025, and March 31, 2025, 2024 and 2023, respectively.

Our substantial indebtedness could make it more difficult for us to satisfy our obligations with respect to current and future indebtedness, increase our vulnerability to adverse changes in prevailing economic, industry and competitive conditions (including fluctuations in exchange rates), require us to dedicate a substantial portion of our cash flow from operations to service indebtedness, thereby reducing funds available for working capital, capital expenditures, acquisitions, product development, execution of our business strategy and other general corporate purposes, increase our cost of borrowing, expose us to the risk of increased interest rates as our borrowings are, and may in the future be, at variable interest rates, limit our ability to borrow additional funds for working capital, capital expenditures, acquisitions, refinancing existing and future debt obligations, execution of our business strategy and other general corporate purposes, limit our flexibility in planning for, or reacting to, changes in our business and industry, restrict us from exploiting business opportunities and place us at a competitive disadvantage relative to peers with lower indebtedness. For further details in relation to risks associated with foreign exchange rates, please see “– 60. A significant portion of our bookings, revenue and indebtedness are denominated in foreign currencies, and our financial results are exposed to changes in foreign exchange rates.” on page 99.

In addition, the agreements governing our indebtedness (the “Credit Agreements”) contain various covenants that are operative so long as our Credit Agreements remain outstanding. These covenants, among other things, limit our and our Subsidiaries’ abilities to incur additional indebtedness, create security over assets, engage in certain fundamental changes (including mergers or consolidations), sell or transfer assets, pay dividends and distributions on our and our Subsidiaries’ capital stock, make payments and prepayments of junior or unsecured indebtedness, make acquisitions or investments, provide loans or advances, engage in certain transactions with affiliates, or enter into agreements or transactions which are prohibited under the relevant financial arrangements. See “Financial Indebtedness” beginning on page 947 for more details. As a result of these restrictions, we may be limited in how we conduct our business, unable to raise additional debt or equity financing during general economic or business downturns, unable to compete effectively or to take advantage of new business opportunities, and our ability to grow in accordance with our strategy may be impaired, which could adversely affect our financial condition and results of operations.

If we experience a decline in cash flow due to any of the factors described in this section or otherwise, we could have difficulty paying interest and the principal amount of our outstanding indebtedness. If we are unable to generate sufficient cash flow or otherwise obtain the funds necessary to make required payments under our Credit Agreements, or if we fail to comply with the various requirements of our indebtedness, we could be in default under our Credit Agreements. Any such default that is not cured or waived could result in an acceleration of indebtedness then outstanding under our Credit Agreements, an acceleration of any other indebtedness to which a cross-acceleration or cross-default provision applies, a requirement that we and our Subsidiaries that have guaranteed our indebtedness pay the obligations in full, or permit the lenders to exercise remedies with respect to all of the collateral securing our indebtedness, including substantially all of our and our subsidiary guarantors' assets. See "Financial Indebtedness" beginning on page 947 for details of the security we have granted in relation to our Credit Agreements. In addition, lenders may be able to terminate any commitments they have made to supply us with funding under various credit facilities. The terms of future debt agreements could include more restrictive covenants, which could further restrict our business operations.

13. *Our pricing methodologies and the revenue share we charge our Patrons are subject to numerous internal and external factors, may fluctuate over time and across markets, and may fail to attract, retain and appropriately monetize Patrons and Customers.

The supply of and demand for storefronts on our platform, as well as our ability to monetize those storefronts, are highly sensitive to a wide range of factors, including the prices we set and the revenue share we charge our Patrons. Our pricing strategies and take-rate may be adversely affected by, among other things, changes in operating costs (including personnel, hosting, content moderation and customer support), shifts in legal and regulatory requirements, the introduction or tightening of fee caps or pricing-related regulations, tax and fiscal changes (including VAT, sales taxes and potential digital services taxes), competitive dynamics, macroeconomic conditions affecting Patrons' and Customers' disposable income and price elasticity, and our own marketing and promotional activities. See "Our Business- Value proposition to our Patrons" on page 440 for further details on our pricing strategies.

We earn revenue as a percentage of GBV (net of discounts and loyalty points) in relation to our hotel storefronts and home storefronts. Certain existing and potential competitors offer, or may in future offer, lower-priced or more comprehensive solutions and may bundle features, subsidize fees, or adopt aggressive promotional or loyalty programs to gain market share. Competitors may also benefit from greater scale, lower customer acquisition costs, broader distribution, or stronger brands, enabling them to attract and retain Patrons and Customers at a lower cost than us.

In response to competitive pressure, regulatory developments, or changes in Patron and Customer behavior, we may be required to reduce our pricing or revenue share, increase incentives, absorb higher promotional costs, or expand spending on marketing, product and support. Any such actions may not produce the desired results and could reduce our margins and adversely affect our GBV, revenue and profitability. We have launched, and may continue to launch, new pricing strategies and initiatives (including dynamic pricing, tiered pricing, discounts, loyalty schemes and geographic or segment-specific pricing), or modify existing pricing methodologies. These initiatives may not be well-received by Patrons or Customers, may be replicated by competitors at lower cost, may be constrained by regulation or platform policies, and may not ultimately be successful in attracting and retaining Patrons and Customers.

Our dynamic and real-time pricing relies on a combination of historical operating data, market inputs and algorithmic decisioning. Our assessments may be inaccurate, our models may be flawed, our datasets may be incomplete or biased, or our systems may suffer from configuration errors, outages or other technological failures. As a result, we could underprice or overprice our storefronts and/or services, mis-target promotions, or fail to respond quickly to market changes, leading to lower conversion, reduced GBV and revenue, reputational harm and increased churn. In addition, regulatory scrutiny of algorithmic pricing, "dark patterns", unfair commercial practices and consumer protection laws could restrict the design and deployment of our pricing tools and require additional compliance costs or changes in product design.

Price sensitivity of Customers and willingness of Patrons to accept our revenue share model may vary meaningfully by geography, vertical, demographic and channel. As we expand into new markets and segments, our pricing methodologies may not enable us to compete effectively or to account for local purchasing power, regulatory constraints (including any local fee caps or disclosure obligations), tax treatment, payment method costs or cultural expectations regarding pricing transparency. Changes imposed by third-party platforms, app stores, payment providers or distribution partners (including fee policy changes, surcharges or mandated disclosure and refund rules) could also limit our flexibility in setting or collecting fees and increase our costs.

Further, as our product mix evolves (for example, through the introduction of new features, subscription options, advertising solutions, or merchandising tools), the relative attractiveness of our pricing to Patrons and Customers may change in ways we do not anticipate. Patrons may utilize competing platforms or stop utilizing our platform if they perceive our revenue share or fees to be too high relative to perceived value, which could reduce engagement and GBV. Promotional activity, discounts and loyalty points may also train Customers to expect lower net prices, compressing margins when promotions are reduced or withdrawn.

Any of the foregoing could materially and adversely affect the demand for storefronts on our platform, our ability to acquire and retain Patrons and Customers, our GBV, revenue, margins, operating results, cash flows and prospects.

14. Our business and activities may be regulated by evolving competition laws of various jurisdictions. We are currently involved in a matter before the Competition Commission of India and could be subject to penalties, if any such penalties are awarded.

There has been increased scrutiny over the power and influence of big technology companies globally, and antitrust regulators have taken greater interest in potential abuses of market power or position by big technology companies. If one jurisdiction imposes or proposes to impose new requirements or restrictions on our business, other jurisdictions may follow. Further, any new requirements or restrictions, or proposed requirements or restrictions, could result in adverse publicity or fines, whether or not valid or subject to appeal.

In certain countries where we operate, competition laws may be new or relatively new, regulatory bodies may be new or have new mandates, and relevant laws and regulations, as well as their interpretations and application, may otherwise be unclear and evolving. This can make it difficult for us to assess which notifications or approvals are required, or the timing and processes for obtaining such approvals. We could be subject to fines or penalties, lose credibility with regulators, be subject to other administrative sanctions or otherwise incur expenses and diversion of management attention or other resources, if any regulators choose to investigate us. In addition, governmental agencies and regulators may, among other things, impose significant fines or penalties, require divestiture of certain of its assets, or impose other restrictions that limit or require us to modify our operations.

The Competition Act, 2002, as amended (the “Competition Act”) seeks to prevent business practices that have an appreciable adverse effect on competition in the relevant market in India and abuse of dominant position by an enterprise. Under the Competition Act, any arrangement, understanding or action in concert between enterprises, whether formal or informal, which causes or is likely to cause an appreciable adverse effect on competition in India is void and attracts substantial monetary penalties. Further, any agreement among competitors which directly or indirectly involves the determination of purchase or sale prices, limits or controls production, supply, markets, technical development, investment or provision of services, shares the market or source of production or provision of services in any manner by way of allocation of geographical area, type of goods or services or number of consumers in the relevant market or in any other similar way or directly or indirectly results in bid-rigging or collusive bidding is presumed to have an appreciable adverse effect on competition. Further, the Competition Commission of India (“CCI”) has extra-territorial powers and can investigate any agreements, abusive conduct or combination occurring outside of India if such agreement, conduct or combination has an appreciable adverse effect on competition in India. For further details, see “Key Regulations and Policies-Competition Act, 2002 (the “Competition Act”)” on page 471.

However, the effect of the provisions of the Competition Act on the agreements entered into by us cannot be predicted with certainty at this stage. We may also be subject to queries from the CCI pursuant to complaints by consumers or any third persons. Any enforcement proceedings initiated by the CCI in future, or any adverse publicity that may be generated due to scrutiny or prosecution by the CCI may affect our business, financial condition, cash flows and results of operations.

For instance, based on information filed by the Federation of Hotel and Restaurants Association of India, against MakeMyTrip India Private Limited, Ibibo Group Private Limited and our Company, the CCI directed an investigation to determine, inter alia, whether the agreement between MakeMyTrip India Private Limited, Ibibo Group Private Limited and our Company was anti-competitive in nature, and contravened the Competition Act. Pursuant to the investigation, the CCI inter alia held that the arrangement was anti-competitive within the meaning of the Competition Act and imposed a penalty on MakeMyTrip India Private Limited, Ibibo Group Private Limited of ₹2,234.80 million and our Company of ₹1,688.00 million. Our Company has subsequently filed an appeal against the CCI order before the National Company Law Appellate Tribunal, which has been admitted. The potential consequences if the appeal is dismissed include that we may be required to deposit the remainder (i.e., less the 10% of the penalty amount already deposited as fixed deposit receipt in relation to admission of the aforesaid appeal) of the penalty amount of ₹1,688.00 million with the CCI, subject to any modifications by the NCLAT, if any. However, since there are no directions to the Company apart from the imposition of the monetary penalty, there will be no restructuring of our core commission model required or impact on Patron relationships. If the NCLAT dismisses the appeal, we will have recourse to challenge the NCLAT's dismissal order before the Hon'ble Supreme Court of India ("Supreme Court"). Accordingly, the abovementioned consequences will be subject to the outcomes of an appeal before the Supreme Court. Although the matter is still pending, there can be no assurance that any adverse order will not be passed against our Company. In addition, we cannot assure that the CCI or the National Company Law Appellate Tribunal will not order additional investigations as we expand our operations in India. If any adverse publicity is generated due to scrutiny or prosecution by the CCI, it could materially and adversely affect our business, financial condition, results of operations and prospects.

For further details in relation to these proceedings, please see "Outstanding Litigation and Material Developments – Litigation involving our Company – Actions and proceedings initiated by statutory/regulatory authorities against our Company" on page 996.

15. Our current Statutory Auditors have reported an emphasis of matter in the audit report for the nine months ended December 31, 2025. Our previous statutory auditors' audit reports for the past three Fiscals have included certain modifications in its reports and annexures to its report on certain matters specified in the Companies (Auditor's Report) Order, 2020. If similar modifications and comments are included in our Statutory Auditors' reports for our financial statements in the future, the trading price of our Equity Shares could be adversely affected.

The audit report issued for the nine month period ended December 31, 2025 contained the following emphasis of matter.

"We draw attention to Note 1B to the accompanying Special Purpose Interim Consolidated Financial Statements, which describes the basis of its preparation. The Special Purpose Interim Consolidated Financial Statements have been prepared by the Holding Company's management, solely for the purpose of preparation of the Restated Consolidated Financial Information of the Group and its joint ventures for the nine-months period ended 31 December 2025, to be included in the Updated Draft Red Herring Prospectus-I ("UDRHP-I") which is to be filed by the Holding Company with Securities and Exchange Board of India, National Stock Exchange of India Limited and BSE Limited as per the requirements of Section 26 of Part I of Chapter III of the Act, read with the Securities and Exchange Board of India (Issue of Capital and Disclosure Requirement) Regulations, 2018, as amended from time to time in connection with the proposed Initial Public Offer of equity shares of the Holding Company and accordingly, these Special Purpose Interim Consolidated Financial Statements may not be suitable for any other purpose. Our report is issued solely for the aforementioned purpose, and accordingly, should not be used, referred to or distributed for any other purpose or to any other party without our prior written consent. Further, we do not accept or assume any liability or any duty of care for any other purpose for which or to any other person to whom this report is shown or into whose hands it may come without our prior consent in writing.

Our opinion is not modified in respect of this matter."

Our previous statutory auditors have included certain modifications in the “Other Legal and Regulatory Requirements” section of its audit report on our financial statements as at and for the Fiscals 2025, 2024 and 2023 on the below matters:

- 1) Audit trail feature at database level was not enabled for one accounting software for part of Fiscal 2025. Furthermore, audit trail feature was not enabled at database level concerning other peripheral software to log any direct changes to the database for Fiscal 2025.
- 2) Audit trail feature at database level was not enabled for accounting and certain related software to log direct changes to the database. Further, with respect to third-party operated software application, in absence of a conclusive service organisation control report, auditors were unable to comment on audit trail feature for the Fiscal 2024.
- 3) Backup of books of account was not kept in servers physically located in India for the Fiscals 2024 and 2023.

Our previous statutory auditors’ report on consolidated financial statement included as an annexure, a statement on certain matters specified in the Companies (Auditor Report) Order, 2020 (“CARO”) for our Company, our Subsidiaries and Joint Ventures, which was modified as at and for the Fiscals indicated below. The remediation status and date of remediation for each observation is as follows:

16. We rely on our Patrons, including those operating our storefronts and franchisees of our G6 Hospitality storefronts, and our results are significantly dependent on their performance and stability.

A substantial portion of our total income is derived from our revenue from the sale of accommodation services and revenue from commissions from bookings. We rely on franchisees of our G6 Hospitality storefronts to operate storefronts to drive GBV. As a result, our business, financial condition, results of operations and reputation are significantly influenced by the performance, stability and compliance of our Patrons and their ability to provide consistent, high-quality service to our Customers and the Customers they attract to these storefronts.

In particular, our G6 Hospitality storefronts (which are operated by Patrons under a franchise model) are exposed to a wide range of risks inherent in the hotel and hotel franchising industries, including:

- The ability to grow and retain our franchise network on favorable terms;
- Variability in hotel occupancy rates, room pricing, and delays in hotel openings;
- Supply chain disruptions and inflationary pressures affecting construction and operations;
- Franchisee financial health, including potential bankruptcies or insolvencies;
- Quality and consistency of services provided by franchisees;
- Legal and regulatory changes impacting operations domestically and internationally;
- Negative publicity or adverse events at franchised locations;
- Disputes or litigation involving franchisees, consumers, or regulators;
- Challenges in maintaining brand reputation and intellectual property rights;
- Seasonal and cyclical volatility in travel demand; and
- Inadequate insurance coverage for property or liability risks.

Because our Patrons interact directly with Customers, any failure to maintain consistent service quality, cleanliness, safety and security standards, or to comply with health, safety, consumer protection, data privacy, payments and other legal requirements, could lead to negative Customer experiences, regulatory action or claims, chargebacks or fraud losses, and adverse publicity that harms our brands. For example, an incident at any of our storefronts (including Motel 6 or Studio 6 storefronts operated by Patrons that are franchisees of our G6 Hospitality storefronts) may receive significant media attention and can have network-wide reputational effects, reducing Customer demand and undermining our ability to attract and retain both Patrons and Customers. Disputes with Patrons regarding fees, brand standards, territories, renewals, marketing contributions, data usage or terminations can result in litigation, arbitration or other proceedings, which may be costly, time-consuming and uncertain in outcome, and can divert management attention. Any material deterioration in the performance, financial stability of our Patrons, any sustained reduction in Customer traffic or conversion could reduce total income and GBV, increase costs, impair brand equity and Customer satisfaction, and otherwise materially and adversely affect our business, results of operations and financial condition.

18. We rely on customer traffic to our platform to grow revenue, and if we are unable to increase traffic in a cost-effective manner, it could materially and adversely affect our business, results of operations and financial condition.

We believe that maintaining and strengthening our brand and promoting awareness of our platform is important to our ability to grow our business and to attract and retain Patrons and Customers, and that it can be costly. We rely on marketing as an important lever to drive Customer traffic to our platform. The following table sets out a reconciliation of our marketing and promotion expenses (comprising advertising and sale promotion, commission and brokerage and business development expenses) as a percentage of our total expenses for the relevant period/years indicated:

Our marketing and promotion expenses (comprising advertising and sale promotion, commission and brokerage and business development expenses) as a percentage of total expenses remained broadly stable in Fiscals 2023 to 2025. While the overall percentage has been relatively steady in Fiscals 2023 to 2025, the composition of these costs has shifted, with a marked increase in advertising and sales promotion in Fiscal 2025 as we scaled customer acquisition across key markets and increased paid online advertising across search engines and social platforms to drive traffic to our platform. Our marketing and promotion expenses increased in the nine months ended December 31, 2025 as we scaled customer acquisition across key markets and increased paid online advertising across search engines and social platforms to drive traffic to our platform. Commission and brokerage also increased in the nine months ended December 31, 2025 and Fiscal 2025, reflecting our continued domestic and international expansion and mix of indirect channel bookings. Business development expenses remained de minimis across all periods. Please refer to “Management’s Discussion and Analysis of Financial Condition and Results of Operations – Principal Factors Affecting Our Financial Condition and Results of Operations – Cost Drivers – Marketing and promotion expenses” on page 965 for further details on our marketing and promotion expenses. Despite increases in our marketing and promotion expenses, our brand marketing efforts may not be successful or cost-effective and we may not be able to increase traffic to our platform. Moreover, if Customers increase their booking activity across multiple travel sites or compare offerings across sites, our marketing efficiency may be adversely impacted.

The technology that powers much of our performance marketing is increasingly subject to strict regulation, and regulatory or legislative changes could adversely impact the effectiveness of our performance marketing efforts and, as a result, our business. Widespread adoption of regulations that significantly restrict our ability to use performance marketing technology, any restrictions on the use of third-party applications or changes to search engine algorithms by mobile and Internet platforms could limit the effectiveness of our marketing activities, reduce the prominence of our platform in organic search results, require us to make significant systems changes, divert the attention of our technology personnel, adversely affect our margins, increase our marketing and compliance costs and subject us to additional liabilities, which could materially and adversely affect our business, results of operations and financial condition.

19. There have been certain instances of delays in payment of statutory dues by our Company in the past. Any delay in payment of statutory dues by our Company in future, may result in the imposition of penalties and in turn may have an adverse effect on our Company's business, financial condition, results of operation and cash flows.

Our Company is required to pay certain statutory dues including provident fund contributions and employee state insurance contributions under the Employees' Provident Funds and Miscellaneous Provisions Act, 1952 and the Employees' State Insurance Act, 1948, respectively, and professional taxes.

While the fines and/ or penalties we have paid in connection with the delays in payment of statutory dues for the periods indicated above were not material in nature, we cannot assure you that we will not be subject to any penalties, fines or other regulatory actions in the future that could have a material adverse effect on our business, financial condition, results of operations and cash flows.

20. We have entered into, and will continue to enter into, related party transactions which may potentially involve conflicts of interest.

In the ordinary course of our business, we enter into and are likely to continue to enter into transactions with related parties, on an arm's length basis. For details regarding our related party transactions in the nine months ended December 31, 2025, and Fiscals 2025, 2024 and 2023 (post inter-company eliminations). See "Financial Information-Related Party Transactions" on page 708. The table below provides the total inflows and outflows of the related party transactions for the nine months ended December 31, 2025 and for the Fiscals ended March 31, 2025, March 31, 2024 and March 31, 2023, along with their contribution towards total income:

While we believe that all such related party transactions that we have entered into have been conducted on arm's length basis, and in accordance with applicable laws, and going forward, all related party transactions that we may enter into will be subject to authorizations and approvals, in accordance with applicable laws, we cannot assure you these arrangements in the future, or any future related party transactions that we may enter into, individually or in the aggregate, will not have an adverse effect on our business, financial condition, results of operations, cash flows and prospects. Further, any future transactions with our related parties could potentially involve conflicts of interest which may be detrimental to our Company and we cannot assure you that such transactions, individually or in the aggregate, will always be in the best interest of our minority Shareholders. While all such related party transactions in the nine months ended December 31, 2025, and Fiscals 2025, 2024 and 2023 have been conducted on an arm's length basis and are in compliance with applicable law, including the Companies Act, and are not prejudicial to the interest of our Company, we cannot assure you that we could not have obtained more favorable terms had such transactions been entered into with unrelated parties. We also cannot assure you that any dispute or conflicts that may arise between us and related parties will be resolved in our favor. There can be no assurance that our Directors and executive officers will be able to address such conflicts of interests or others in the future.

21. *We or our Patrons may not be able to obtain or renew requisite approvals, licenses or permits applicable to our business in a timely manner or at all, which may have a material and adverse impact on our business, financial condition and results of operations.

Our business is subject to laws and regulations in each of the countries in which we operate, which regulate the scope of permitted business activities and the licenses and permits required for our business operations in those jurisdictions. In addition, our Patrons are required to obtain and maintain licenses in relation to their storefronts. Some of these approvals, licenses or permits may expire in the ordinary course and for which we, or our Patrons would be required to apply afresh to obtain the approval or apply for its renewal. Failure to obtain or validly maintain such material approvals could materially and adversely affect our business, results of operations and financial condition. We may also be subject to new central, federal, state, municipal laws or regulations (including relating to e-commerce), in relation to additional licenses and permits required for our business operations and may not be able to comply with and obtain these additional licenses and permits in a timely manner or at all, on account of which we could risk losing our rights to operate in such jurisdictions. For further details of material consents, licenses, permissions, registrations and approvals from the various governmental agencies and other statutory and/ or regulatory authorities, of our Company and our Material Subsidiaries, see "Government and Other Approvals" on page 1022. As on date of this Updated Draft Red Herring Prospectus-I, except for renewal applications made by OHHPL, our Material Subsidiary for registration under the shops & establishments legislations of Uttar Pradesh issued by the labour department of respective local governments in which office premises of OHHPL are located, there are no (i) material approvals required which have not been obtained or applied for; (ii) material approvals which have expired and the renewal for which is yet to be applied for; and (iii) material approvals that our Company has applied for, but which have not been received. For further details, see "Government and Other Approvals - Pending Approvals" on page 1025.

While we have entered into arrangements with third parties with respect to employee-related statutory compliances to be made on behalf of our Company, any failure to retain or renew our licenses and permits or to pay related statutory dues in a timely manner by us or such third parties on our behalf could subject us to fines or sanctions which would require us to incur additional cost and would adversely affect our business and results of operations. Further, our government approvals and licenses are subject to certain conditions and ongoing compliance; if we fail to comply or a regulator alleges that we have not complied with such conditions, our business, prospects, cash flows, financial condition, results of operations and cash flows may be adversely affected. Additionally, unfavorable changes in or interpretations of existing, or the promulgation of new laws governing our business and operations, could require us to obtain additional licenses and approvals. In addition, regulatory authorities could also impose notices and other orders on us in case of non-possession of licenses.

If any of the foregoing risks were to materialize, it could disrupt our operations, resulting in additional expenses, and materially and adversely affect our business, financial condition and results of operations.

22. *Our properties, including the land on which our Registered Office and our Corporate Office are located, are leased. We may be unable to renew our existing office leases or secure new office leases.

Our Registered Office, our Corporate Office and our other offices are located on leased properties. The lease agreement for our Registered Office in Ahmedabad was entered into on February 18, 2019 by our Material Subsidiary, OHHPL, under the terms of which OHHPL can assign the lease or sub-let the premises to its affiliates (the “Registered Office Lease”). The lessors of the Registered Office Lease have issued a no-objection certificate dated April 8, 2019, pursuant to which our Company is using such premises as its Registered Office. The Registered Office Lease was renewed for a period of three years and is valid till February 28, 2028. The Registered Office Lease was valid for a period of three years from the date of its execution and can be renewed at OHHPL’s option for up to six years of two terms of three years each, subject to the execution of a new lease deed. The lease agreement for our Corporate Office in Gurugram was entered into on September 15, 2022 by our Subsidiary, OHHPL (the “Corporate Office Lease”) and such lease became effective from August 1, 2022. Pursuant to the no objection certificate issued by OHHPL, our Company is using the premises of our Corporate Office. The Corporate Office Lease is valid for a period of 11 months and can be renewed for additional terms of 11 months at our option. As on the date of this Updated Draft Red Herring Prospectus-I, we are in the process of renewing the Corporate Office Lease. For details, see “Our Business – Our Properties” on page 462.

Typically, the term of leases for our other offices ranges from 11 months to five years and while we renew these lease agreements and deeds periodically in the ordinary course of business, in the event that these existing leases are terminated or they are not renewed on commercially acceptable terms, we may suffer a disruption in our operations. Our Material Subsidiary, OHHPL, has also entered into agreements to use co-working spaces as its offices. If alternative premises are not available at the same or similar costs, sizes or locations, our business, financial condition, cash flows and results of operations may be adversely affected. Further, any regulatory non-compliance by the landlords or adverse development relating to the landlords’ title or ownership rights to such properties, including as a result of any non-compliance by the landlords, may entail disruptions to our operations, especially if we are forced to vacate leased spaces following any such developments, and expose us to reputational risks. In addition, lease agreements are required to be duly registered and adequately stamped under Indian law and if any of our lease agreements or other agreements entered into by us, are not duly registered and adequately stamped, we may face challenges in enforcing them and they may be inadmissible as evidence in a court in India along with the requisite stamp duty prescribed under applicable Indian law being paid, we may suffer a disruption in our operations or be unable to continue to operate from those locations in the future which may adversely affect our business, operations and financial condition.

23. *Certain of our investments may be subject to market risk and we have not made any provisions for a potential decline in the value of such investments.

We have made certain investments in mutual funds and other financial instruments. As of December 31, 2025, our current investment at fair value through profit or loss in mutual funds was ₹1,417.40 million, which constituted 2.31% of our total net worth of ₹61,466.16 million. For details of the reconciliation, see “Management’s Discussion and Analysis of Financial Condition and Results of Operations – Non-GAAP Financial Measures” on page 975. The value of these investments depends on several factors beyond our control, including the prevailing Indian and international economic conditions, inflationary expectations and the RBI’s monetary policies and is sensitive to a change in the net asset value of the mutual funds or the performance of the corporate deposits. Any decline in the value of these investments could adversely affect our financial condition and results of operations.

24. *We had contingent liabilities as of December 31, 2025 and March 31, 2025 (comprising 8.28% and 6.12% of our net worth, respectively). If our contingent liabilities materialize, it could adversely affect our financial condition if they materialize.

Our contingent liabilities as per Ind AS 37 – Provisions, Contingent Liabilities and Contingent Assets that have not been provided for are as set out in the table below.

The following table provides our net worth and contingent liabilities as a percentage of our total net worth as at the dates indicated:

| Particulars                        | As of December 31, 2025 | As of March 31, 2025 |
|------------------------------------|-------------------------|----------------------|
| Contingent liabilities (₹ million) | 5,086.63                | 2,917.40             |

There can be no assurance that we will not incur similar or increased levels of contingent liabilities in the future and that our existing contingent liabilities will not have a material adverse effect on our business, financial condition, cash flows and results of operations. For details of our contingent liabilities as of December 31, 2025, as per Ind AS 37 – Provisions, Contingent Liabilities and Contingent Assets, see “Summary of Contingent Liabilities” on page 135.

25. Patron, Customer or third-party actions that are criminal, violent, inappropriate or dangerous, or fraudulent activity, may undermine the safety or the perception of safety of our platform and our ability to attract and retain Patrons and Customers and materially and adversely affect our reputation, business, results of operations and financial condition.

We have no control over or ability to predict the actions of our Patrons, Customers and other third parties, such as neighbors or invitees, during a Customer’s stay. The actions of Patrons, Customers and other third parties have resulted and can further result in fatalities, injuries, other bodily harm, fraud, invasion of privacy, property damage, discrimination, brand and reputation damage, which have created and could continue to create potential legal or other substantial liabilities for us. For instance, a first information report (“FIR”) was registered on October 30, 2025 at the Police Station Cantt, Varanasi, Uttar Pradesh, India against certain employees of our Subsidiary, OHHPL alleging violation under the Immoral Traffic (Prevention) Act, 1956. Following the FIR, the local police sealed the premises. Although neither our Company nor our Subsidiaries have been named as an accused in the FIR, the association of the incident has resulted in reputational, regulatory and operational risks. This incident underscores the potential vulnerability of our brand where operators or their staff engage in unlawful or inappropriate conduct at properties operating under our brand, despite the contractual obligations, compliance standards and oversight expectations we impose. In addition, certain regions where we operate have higher reported rates of violent crime or varying safety requirements, which can lead to more safety and security incidents, and may adversely impact the adoption of our platform in those regions and elsewhere.

In the past, we have faced civil litigation, regulatory investigations and inquiries and negative publicity involving allegations of, among other things, unsafe or unsuitable listings, discriminatory policies, data processing, practices or behavior on and off our platform or by Patrons, Customers and third parties, general misrepresentations regarding the safety or accuracy of offerings on our platform, and other Patron, Customer or third-party actions that are criminal, violent, inappropriate, dangerous or fraudulent. Although the operation of the storefront is the responsibility of our Patrons, we have been made party to complaints against certain Patrons in the past, which has affected our brand value.

Our Company has implemented measures to mitigate risks arising from unsafe, inappropriate or unlawful actions by Patrons, Customers or third parties, which include advisories and compliance communications to Patrons to reinforce adherence to applicable laws and platform standards. While these measures are intended to reduce such risks, our Company cannot assure that such incidents will not occur in the future or adversely affect its business or reputation.

26. Changes in the Goods and Services Tax (“GST”) regime, including revisions to applicable GST rates, withdrawal or restriction of input tax credit entitlements, and changes in the interpretation or enforcement of indirect tax laws, could adversely affect our pricing strategy, operating margins, cash flows, demand for our offerings, and results of operations.

Our India operations are subject to the GST regime, and a significant portion of our Indian hotel storefronts offer accommodation services that fall within tariff categories subject to GST. The GST rate applicable to hotel accommodation services in certain tariff categories was revised with effect from September 2025, including a reduction from 18.00% to lower applicable slabs for storefronts within specified declared room tariff thresholds. As of December 31, 2025, a number of our company-serviced hotel storefronts and Patron-operated hotel storefronts in India, which constitute the majority of our Indian storefront base, were also subject to the revised GST rates based on their declared room tariffs.

Under the GST regime, suppliers of hotel accommodation services at certain lower GST rate slabs are not entitled to claim input tax credit (“ITC”). As a result, any reduction in the applicable GST rate to a lower slab may lead to an increase in the effective input costs for the affected storefronts, as the cost of GST paid on procurement of goods and services (including property consumables, food and beverage expenses, electricity and power, technology services, and other operating expenses) cannot be set off against the output tax liability. In the case of our company-serviced hotel storefronts, this cost is absorbed within our operating expenses. In the case of Patron-operated storefronts, the cost impact of blocked ITC is borne primarily by the Patron; however, increased cost pressure on Patrons may adversely affect their willingness to continue their association with our platform, their ability to maintain service quality standards, or their acceptance of the revenue-sharing terms agreed with our Company, any of which could in turn adversely affect our business and results of operations.

Furthermore, a reduction in the GST rate reduces the total amount payable by customers for the same declared room tariff, which may positively affect demand; however, to maintain the same net revenue realisation per room night, upward adjustments to the base room tariff may be necessary, which could offset the demand benefit. There can be no assurance that our dynamic pricing algorithms will be able to optimally balance these competing considerations, especially higher customer booking and demand.

While the GST rate revision effective September 22, 2025 did not have a material adverse impact on our business, results of operations, or financial condition during the nine months ended December 31, 2025, there can be no assurance that future changes in GST rates, further withdrawal or restriction of ITC entitlements, reclassification of our services under different GST categories, imposition of new or additional indirect taxes or levies, or changes in the interpretation, administration, or enforcement of indirect tax laws by central or state authorities will not adversely affect demand for our offerings, our pricing strategy, operating margins, cash flows, and results of operations. Any such changes could also result in increased compliance costs, disputes with tax authorities, or the need to restructure our pricing or revenue-sharing arrangements with Patrons and could adversely impact on the pricing in comparison to our competitors.

27. *An increase in or failure to deal effectively with fraud, forgery, fictitious transactions or illegal transactions would materially and adversely affect our business, results of operations and financial condition.

We process a significant volume and value of transactions on a daily basis. We could also be adversely affected if transactions were redirected, misappropriated, or otherwise improperly executed, personal and business information was disclosed to unintended recipients, or an operational breakdown or failure in the processing of other transactions occurred. Our ability to detect and combat fraudulent schemes, which have become increasingly common and sophisticated, could be adversely impacted by the adoption of new payment methods, the emergence and innovation of new technology platforms, including mobile and other devices, and our growth in certain regions, including regions with a history of elevated fraudulent activity. In addition, the payment card networks have rules around acceptable chargeback ratios. If we are unable to effectively combat fictitious listings and fraudulent bookings on our platform, combat the use of fraudulent credit cards, or otherwise maintain or lower our current levels of chargebacks, we may be subject to fines and higher transaction fees or be unable to continue to accept card payments because payment card networks have revoked our access to their networks, any of which would materially adversely impact our business, results of operations, and financial condition. While we are unaware of such events occurring in the nine months ended December 31, 2025, and Fiscals 2025, 2024 and 2023, we cannot assure that such events would not occur in the future.

Our payments platform is susceptible to potentially illegal or improper uses, including money laundering, transactions in violation of economic and trade sanctions, terrorist financing, fraudulent listings, Patron account security breaches or the facilitation of other illegal activity. Use of our payments platform for illegal or improper uses may subject us in the future, to claims, lawsuits, and government and regulatory investigations, inquiries, or requests, which could result in liability and reputational harm for us. We have taken measures to detect and reduce fraud and illegal activities, but these measures need to be continually improved and may add friction to our booking process. These measures may also not be effective against fraud and illegal activities, particularly new and continually evolving forms of circumvention. We have discovered cases in which certain of our employees have colluded with third parties to unjustly enrich themselves at the expense of our Company. For instance, a first information report was registered with the Electronics Complex Police Station for offences under sections 316(2), 318(4) and 3(5) the Bharatiya Nyaya Sanhita, 2023, alleging that Sandipan Das, who was employed by OHHPL, had collected money from several Customers without informing OHHPL or depositing the funds into OHHPL's designated bank account, contrary to the terms of his employment. For further details, see “Outstanding Litigation and Material Developments – Litigation involving our Subsidiaries – Criminal proceedings by our Subsidiaries – OYO Hotels and Homes Private Limited” on page 1001. None of these instances had a material impact on our business, results of operations and financial condition. Although we have implemented internal controls and policies and initiated legal proceedings with regard to certain of these matters, we cannot assure you that our controls and policies will prevent fraud or illegal activity by our employees or that similar incidents will not occur in the future. Any such activity could severely damage our brand and reputation, which could deter Patrons and Customers from using our platform.

28. If we are unable to successfully expand our platform or manage the risks presented by our business model internationally, our business, results of operations and financial condition could be materially and adversely affected.

We are a global platform with 293,554 storefronts listed across more than 35 countries as at December 31, 2025. Our operations are conducted through various subsidiaries and affiliates across these markets and we expect to continue to make investments to expand our international operations. Managing an international organization of this scale is complex, time-consuming, and resource-intensive, requiring substantial coordination, oversight, and strategic prioritization. Operating globally subjects us to a broad range of legal, regulatory, financial, and operational risks that may vary significantly by jurisdiction and over time.

We face operational and compliance challenges arising from geographic dispersion, language barriers, and cultural differences, which complicate standardization of processes, product offerings, and internal controls. Localizing our platform and services requires continuous adaptation to domestic market practices and regulatory environments, often involving translation, structural modifications, and adherence to local consumer protection laws. We are subject to varied, and sometimes conflicting, laws and regulations concerning short-term and long-term rentals, internet operations, tourism, taxation, data protection and privacy, payments, advertising, tenancy, customer verification, government access to personal data, content regulation, and business licensing. Many of these laws are complex, inconsistent across jurisdictions, and subject to frequent and unexpected changes, making compliance difficult and costly. See “– 62. If we fail to comply with laws relating to privacy and data protection, we may be subject to significant liability, negative publicity, an erosion of trust and increased regulation, which could materially and adversely affect our business, results of operations and financial condition.” on page 100.

Any adverse developments arising from the above-mentioned risks, whether individually or in combination could increase our operating expenses, reduce revenues, disrupt our operations, or damage our brand and reputation. If we fail to adequately manage and mitigate these risks, our international operations may adversely impact our business, financial condition, results of operations, and long-term strategic objectives.

29. Our TLB loan is secured by pledge over assets and shares of certain Subsidiaries. Enforcement of such security upon any default could materially and adversely affect our business, results of operations, financial position and cash flows.

As of the date of this Updated Draft Red Herring Prospectus-I, the TLB loan is secured by a security agreement by Oravel Stays Singapore Pte. Ltd over intercompany receivables of Oravel Stays Singapore Pte. Ltd against OYO Hospitality Netherlands B.V., a US law pledge and security agreement by OYO Hotels Inc, G6 Hospitality LLC, G6 Hospitality Franchising LLC , G6 Franchising Holdco LLC, G6 Hospitality IP LLC, IBL Limited NewCo, LLC, Oyo Rooms and Hospitality UK Ltd. and Belvilla AG, a confirmatory grant of security interest in US copyrights by G6 Hospitality IP LLC, a confirmatory grant of security interest in US trademarks by Belvilla AG and G6 Hospitality IP LLC, a 100% share mortgage of OYO Hospitality UK Limited by Oravel Stays Singapore Pte. Ltd, a 100% share mortgage of OYO Technology and Hospitality (UK) Limited by Oravel Stays Singapore Pte. Ltd, 100% share pledge of OYO Vacation Homes Holding B.V. by OYO Hospitality Netherlands B.V., fixed and floating security over substantially all the assets (including intellectual property) of Oravel Stays Singapore Pte.

Ltd, including an assignment of its rights under an intercompany loan agreement between Oravel Stays Singapore Pte. Ltd and OYO Hospitality Netherlands B.V. and a 100% share mortgage of Oyo Hotels (Singapore) Pte. Ltd., fixed and floating security over substantially all the assets (including intellectual property) of Oyo Hotels (Singapore) Pte. Ltd., a pledge over all intellectual property rights held by Belvilla AG and Traum Ferienwohnungen GmbH and a 100% share pledge of Dancenter A/S by OYO Vacation Homes Denmark ApS.

If we default on our obligations under the TLB loan, the TLB lenders may exercise their right to sell, or otherwise transfer, the assets and shares in our Subsidiaries that are subject to their security interests. In order to avoid such enforcement actions by the TLB lenders, we may be forced to raise funds to repay our outstanding indebtedness. As a result, we could be forced to restrict or cease new investment activities, or be unable to implement our growth strategies. Alternatively, if the TLB lenders exercise their right to sell the assets and shares in our Subsidiaries that are subject to their security interests, such sales may be completed at distressed sale prices, thereby diminishing or potentially eliminating the amount of cash available to us after repayment of the amounts outstanding under such facilities. As such, the occurrence of any such events would materially and adversely affect our business, results of operations, financial condition and cash flows.

We expect to use our net cash flows from operations to meet our current and future financial obligations, including funding our operations, indebtedness service requirements and capital expenditures. Our ability to make these payments, to borrow, and the terms of any borrowings depend on our financial and operating performance, financial position, the stability of our cash flows and our capacity to service debt, which are subject to prevailing economic, industry and competitive conditions and to financial, business, economic and other factors beyond our control. We may not be successful in obtaining additional funds in a timely manner, on favorable terms, or at all. If we cannot raise additional funds when needed, our ability to support our business and respond to business challenges would be significantly limited, and our business, financial position, results of operations and prospects could be materially and adversely affected.

30. *Certain of our corporate records are not traceable and there was a delay in certain filings made with the MCA. We cannot assure you that regulatory proceedings or actions will not be initiated against us in the future and we will not be subject to any penalty imposed by the competent regulatory authority in this regard.

Certain of our Company's corporate records/ regulatory filings are not traceable. These comprise untraceable documents, including certain letters of offer, letters of renunciation and acceptance in relation to certain rights issue, private placement offers in Forms PAS-4 and Forms PAS-5. Further, there was a delay in filing the Form MGT-7 for Fiscal 2020. Certain disclosures in this Updated Draft Red Herring Prospectus-I in relation to such untraceable records have been made in reliance on other supporting documents (including board and shareholders resolutions as well as the form filings made with the RoC) available in our records.

Set out below are the instances of missing records/delays/non-compliances of the statutory filings, extracted from the secretarial audit reports received by our Company from Fiscal 2022 till Fiscal 2025:

Further, in relation to the fire incident at our Registered Office we reported this incident to RoC by way of letter dated May 16, 2025. While no penalties have arisen or been imposed in connection with these corporate records, delayed filing and damaged records, we cannot assure you that the relevant corporate records will become available in the future, that regulatory proceedings or actions will not be initiated against us in the future, or while we believe amount of such payment is not significant, we cannot assure that we will not be subject to any penalty imposed by the competent regulatory authority in this respect.

31. *We currently rely on a number of third-party service providers to host and deliver a significant portion of our platform and services, and any interruptions or delays in services from these third parties, such as those resulting from cybersecurity incidents, could impair the delivery of our platform and services, and our business, results of operations, and financial condition could be materially adversely affected.

We rely primarily on third-party service providers to host and deliver our platform. Third parties also provide services to key aspects of our operations, including Internet connections and networking, messaging, data storage and processing, trust and safety, security infrastructure, source code management, and testing and deployment. In addition, we rely on third parties for many aspects of our payments platform, and the vast majority of our community support operations are performed by a limited number of third-party service providers. We also integrate applications, content, and data from third parties to deliver our platform and services.

We do not control the operation, physical security, or data security of any of these third-party providers. Despite our efforts to use commercially reasonable diligence in the selection and retention of such third-party providers, such efforts may be insufficient or inadequate to prevent or remediate such risks. Some of our third-party providers, including our cloud computing providers and our payment processing partners, have been and may be subject to further intrusions, computer viruses, malicious software (such as ransomware), denial-of-service attacks, phishing attacks, sabotage, acts of vandalism, terrorism, or other misconduct, and incidents due to inadvertent error or malfeasance by employees, contractors or other parties. There can be no assurance that our service providers will anticipate or prevent all types of attacks or that any security measures will be effective against all types of cybersecurity threats and risks. Our service providers are vulnerable to damage or interruption from power loss, telecommunications failures, fires, floods, earthquakes, hurricanes, tornadoes, and similar events, and they may be subject to financial, legal, regulatory, and labor issues, each of which may impose additional costs or requirements on us or prevent these third parties from providing services to us or our Customers on our behalf. In addition, these third parties may breach their agreements with us, disagree with our interpretation of contract terms or applicable laws and regulations, refuse to continue or renew these agreements on commercially reasonable terms or at all, fail to or refuse to process transactions or provide other services adequately, take actions that degrade the functionality of our platform and services, increase prices, impose additional costs or requirements on us or our Customers, or give preferential treatment to our competitors. If we are unable to provide alternatives in a timely and efficient manner and on acceptable terms, or at all, we may be subject to business disruptions, losses, or costs to remediate any of these deficiencies and reputational harm. Our systems currently do not provide complete redundancy of data storage or processing or payment processing, and business continuity and disaster recovery plans may not be effective. Although we have not encountered material disruptions involving our third-party service providers in the nine months ended December 31, 2025, and Fiscals 2025, 2024 and 2023, the occurrence of any of the above events could result in Patrons and Customers ceasing to use our platform, reputational damage, legal or regulatory proceedings, or other adverse consequences, which could materially adversely affect our business, results of operations, and financial condition.

32. *We are subject to risks frequently encountered in the travel industry. A decline in the travel and accommodation industries or economic downturn could materially and adversely affect our business, results of operations and financial condition.

Our financial performance is dependent on the strength of the travel and accommodation industries, including changes in supply and pricing, and is also sensitive to actual or perceived safety concerns. Other events beyond our control may adversely affect national and international travel, including:

- unusual or extreme weather or natural disasters, including earthquakes, hurricanes, fires, tsunamis, floods, severe weather, droughts, and volcanic eruptions;
- outbreaks of new pandemics, epidemics or war;
- adverse effects of trade or immigration policies, including changes in U.S. visa processing times, immigration restrictions, or border policies that may affect inbound travel to the United States, global economic conditions, or geopolitical developments that diminish the need for business travel or the demand for leisure travel, as well as adverse national, regional and local political, economic and market conditions where our Patrons operate and where our Customers travel;
- restrictions related to travel, wars, terrorist attacks or the threat of terrorist attacks and other acts of violence or war, or increased tensions within or outside; and
- slowdowns resulting from political uncertainty, protests, foreign policy changes, regional hostilities, imposition of taxes or surcharges by regulatory authorities, changes in regulations, policies, or conditions related to sustainability, including climate change, work stoppages, labor unrest or travel-related accidents.

Our business has in the past been affected by some of the risks stated above. For example, the conflict between Ukraine and Russia, as well as in the Middle East, including as a consequence of the ongoing U.S.-Iran situation, has contributed to significant volatility in global economic conditions and has had a negative impact on the global economy and on travel activity levels, particularly in Europe and the Middle East. Perceived or actual adverse economic conditions, including slow, slowing or negative economic growth, increase in unemployment rates, inflation and weakening currencies, the imposition of tariffs by the U.S. on various countries and the countermeasures taken by such countries and any resulting negative impact on economy in the United States of America and rest of the world, concerns over government responses such as higher taxes and reduced government spending, could impair consumer spending and adversely affect travel demand. In addition, changes in trade or immigration policies, including changes in U.S. visa processing times, immigration restrictions, or border policies, may affect inbound travel to the United States. While we have not experienced any material adverse impact on the hospitality business and occupancy of our G6 Hospitality storefronts (Motel 6 and Studio 6) as a result of changes in U.S. visa or immigration policies during the nine months ended December 31, 2025 and Fiscals 2025, 2024 and 2023, there is no assurance that future changes will not adversely affect inbound travel to the United States or the occupancy of our G6 Hospitality storefronts.

Our Company periodically evaluates enterprise-level risks and based on their likelihood and potential impact and adjusts our business and operational strategies to mitigate adverse effects. Our Company undertakes advance planning for implementation of changes in laws and regulations. Further, our Company actively engages cross-functional teams to leverage learnings and best practices from one geography and apply them, where relevant, across other geographies to enhance operational effectiveness and risk preparedness. Our Company also continues to invest in technology to enhance regulatory readiness and compliance with new or amended regulations.

Downturns in worldwide or regional economic conditions, such as the downturn resulting from the COVID-19 pandemic, led to a general decrease in travel and travel spending, and similar downturns in the future may materially and adversely impact demand for our platform and services. Because these events or concerns, and the full impact of their effects, are largely unpredictable, they can significantly affect travel behavior by our Customers, and therefore demand for our platform and services, which could limit or reduce our GBV or increase our costs, thereby reducing our profitability, which could in turn materially and adversely affect our business, results of operations, financial condition and prospects. Additionally, geopolitical tensions or economic instability in Thailand and Cambodia could further exacerbate these risks, impacting regional travel demand and overall platform performance.

33. *Measures that we are taking to improve the trust and safety of our platform, as well as the safety and reliability of our storefronts, may cause us to incur significant expenditure and may not be successful.

We have taken and continue to take measures to improve the trust and safety on our platform, combat fraudulent activities and other misconduct and improve community trust, such as requiring identity and other information from our Patrons and Customers, attempting to confirm the location of storefronts, removing listings of storefronts that are suspected to be fraudulent or repeatedly reported by Customers to be significantly not as described, and removing Patrons and Customers who fail to comply with our policies.

While these measures are crucial for trust and safety on our platform, they can increase platform friction, potentially reduce Patron and Customer activity and materially adversely affecting our business. These trust and safety efforts, including limited verification of Patrons and storefront listings, restrictions on certain types of bookings or other initiatives, incur significant costs and may lead to fewer listings and bookings or reduce Patron and Customer retention, which could materially and adversely affect our business, results of operations and financial condition. As we operate a global platform, the timing and implementation of these measures will vary across geographies. While we have not incurred significant expenditure to implement such measures in the nine months ended December 31, 2025, and Fiscals 2025, 2024 and 2023, there is no assurance that this may not occur in future. In addition, any measures that we implement might not be successful, reduce criminal or fraudulent activity on or off our platform, or protect our reputation in the event of such activity.

34. One of the objects of the Issue is repayment/prepayment, in part or full, of certain borrowings availed by certain of our Subsidiaries which is subject to certain inherent risks.

We propose to utilize from the Net Proceeds an aggregate amount towards prepayment, in part, of the TLB availed by the TLB Co-borrower Subsidiaries, pursuant to the TLB Credit Agreement. Based on the exchange rate as of May 31, 2026 (i.e.  $US$1 = ₹94.76$ , which is available at www1.oanda.com), such amount is equal to ₹49,875.00 million as on May 31, 2026 (i.e. up to 64.30% of the aggregate principal outstanding amount of ₹77,569.59 million under the TLB as on May 31, 2026). For further details, see “Objects of the Issue – Details of the Objects – 1. Investment in our Subsidiary, Oravel Stays Singapore Pte. Ltd. for repayment/prepayment, in part or full, of certain of its borrowings” and “Objects of the Issue – Key Terms of TLB” on pages 299 and 304, respectively.

<sup>(3)</sup> The Sellers had requested that the borrowings of the Acquired Business be repaid directly by our Company as part of the Acquisition Consideration.

<sup>(4)</sup> This refers to loan availed by one of the Sellers i.e. BRE/Everbright M6 Borrower, LLC in relation to the Acquired Business, and the Company and/or its Subsidiaries have no role in this loan facility. There is no amount outstanding against such loan on the Acquired Business. The loan was availed to fund one of the Sellers i.e. BRE/Everbright M6 Borrower, LLC's balance sheet, working capital and general corporate purposes.

The fees are charged as a consolidated amount on the basis of commercial agreed and therefore, no specific allocation or break-up is available against allocation of TLB proceeds.

The amounts outstanding under the TLB loan may be dependent on various factors and may include intermediate repayments or prepayments in accordance with the terms set out in the TLB Credit Agreement. Accordingly, it may be possible the amount outstanding under the loan facilities may vary from time to time. We may, from time to time, repay, prepay or refinance the TLB loan or enter into further financing arrangements. Subject to certain exceptions, under the terms of the TLB Credit Agreement, the TLB can be prepaid during the initial two years from the TLB Effective Date, subject to the payment of the make-whole premium. Any prepayment penalties or redemption premium, along with accrued interest and other charges, if any, under the terms of the TLB Credit Agreement shall be met from our existing cash on our balance sheet. The payment of redemption premium upon TLB will result into a substantial cash outflow for our Company. For details, see “Objects of the Issue – Details of the Objects – 1. Investment in our Subsidiary, Oravel Stays Singapore Pte. Ltd. for repayment/prepayment, in part or full, of certain of its borrowings” on page 299.

As of the date of this Updated Draft Red Herring Prospectus-I, the TLB loan is secured by a security agreement by Oravel Stays Singapore Pte. Ltd over intercompany receivables of Oravel Stays Singapore Pte. Ltd against OYO Hospitality Netherlands B.V., a US law pledge and security agreement by OYO Hotels Inc, G6 Hospitality LLC, G6 Hospitality Franchising LLC , G6 Franchising Holdco LLC, G6 Hospitality IP LLC, IBL Limited Newco, LLC, Oyo Rooms and Hospitality UK Ltd. and Belvilla AG, a confirmatory grant of security interest in US copyrights by G6 Hospitality IP LLC, a confirmatory grant of security interest in US trademarks by Belvilla AG and G6 Hospitality IP LLC, a 100% share mortgage of OYO Hospitality UK Limited by Oravel Stays Singapore Pte. Ltd, a 100% share mortgage of OYO Technology and Hospitality (UK) Limited by Oravel Stays Singapore Pte. Ltd, 100% share pledge of OYO Vacation Homes Holding B.V. by OYO Hospitality Netherlands B.V., fixed and floating security over substantially all the assets (including intellectual property) of Oravel Stays Singapore Pte. Ltd, including an assignment of its rights under an intercompany loan agreement between Oravel Stays Singapore Pte. Ltd and OYO Hospitality Netherlands B.V. and a 100% share mortgage of Oyo Hotels (Singapore) Pte. Ltd., fixed and floating security over substantially all the assets (including intellectual property) of Oyo Hotels (Singapore) Pte. Ltd., a pledge over all intellectual property rights held by Belvilla AG and Traum Ferienwohnungen GmbH and a 100% share pledge of Dancenter A/S by OYO Vacation Homes Denmark ApS.

The TLB loan facility under the TLB Credit Agreement is subject to certain onerous conditions including repayment and prepayment restrictions. While we endeavor to be compliant with the conditions stipulated in the TLB Credit Agreement, we cannot assure that we will be able to continue doing so in the future. The breach of certain covenants or conditions under the TLB Credit Agreement could be considered as events of default and adversely impact our business and financial condition. Also see “–
12. As of December 31, 2025 and March 31, 2025, we had total borrowings of ₹74,848.83 million and ₹71,440.51 million, respectively. Our levels of indebtedness could adversely affect our financial flexibility and our competitive position. Additionally, our debt obligations contain restrictions that impact our business and expose us to risks that could materially and adversely affect our liquidity and financial condition. If we require additional funding to support our business, this additional funding may not be available on reasonable terms, or at all. If we default on our obligations, we may suffer adverse consequences, including enforcement of the security over our assets and the shares of certain of our subsidiaries.” and the section “Financial Indebtedness” on pages 62 and 947, respectively.

35. *We rely on third-party distributors, including OTAs, travel management companies and global distribution systems to market and distribute our storefronts, which may adversely affect our margins and profitability.

We have strategic partnerships with a number of leading third-party distributors, including OTAs, travel management companies and global distribution systems. We enter into both short-term (agreements with a term of less than three years) and long-term agreements (agreements with a term of three years or more) with our third-party distributors.

Our margins and profitability may be affected by an increase in the proportion of our storefronts booked through third-party distributors. Globally, our share of indirect demand on our platform, measured as a percentage of used room nights other than through our D2C (direct-to-customer) channels), was 32.43%, 28.33%, 27.76% and 29.05% for the nine months ended December 31, 2025, and in Fiscals 2025, 2024 and 2023, respectively. In addition, if these third-party distributors are able to negotiate higher commissions, reduced rates for Patrons and Customers or other significant concessions from us, our ability to control our percentage of revenue share from our solutions and offerings may be adversely affected, which would in turn adversely affect our margins and profitability. Furthermore, our business relationship with these distributors may deteriorate or breakdown entirely due to commercial disagreements, competition concerns, changes in contractual terms and/or if such platforms view us as a competition to their core business. The loss of access to major OTAs or other distribution partners could significantly reduce our storefront visibility and Customer acquisition and retention which could impact overall transaction volumes, resulting in a material adverse effect on our business, financial condition, cashflows and result of operations.

36. *We are dependent on our Key Managerial Personnel, including our Founder and Chairman, Ritesh Agarwal, members of our Senior Management and qualified employees, and the loss of or our inability to attract or retain such persons could materially and adversely affect our business, results of operations and financial condition. The hospitality industry is facing significant labor shortages, which could affect service quality and operational efficiency.

Our success depends in large part on our ability to attract and retain high-quality management and employees. Our Founder and Chairman, Ritesh Agarwal leads the executive management team and along with the executive management team is responsible for setting our Company's strategic vision, driving key initiatives, ensuring operational excellence and long-term growth. Ritesh Agarwal and other members of our Senior Management, as well as other employees, may terminate their employment with us at any time. If some of our Key Managerial Personnel or members of our Senior Management join a competitor or form a competing business, we may lose know-how and key professionals and staff members. Our Individual Promoter, Key Managerial Personnel and Senior Management have entered into employment agreements with us. Although, certain of these employment agreements contain an exclusivity/non-compete provision, there can be no assurance that, if any dispute arises between our Key Managerial Personnel and/or Senior Management and us, the provisions contained in their employment agreements would be enforceable. For details of our Directors, Key Managerial Personnel and Senior Management, see "Our Management", "Our Management – Key Managerial Personnel", "Our Promoters and Promoter Group" on pages 591, 612 and 615.

As we continue to grow, we might not be able to attract and retain the personnel we need. Our business requires highly skilled technical, engineering, design, product, data analytics, marketing, business development and community support personnel, including executive-level employees, who are in high demand and are often subject to competing offers. Competition for qualified employees and executive-level employees is intense in our industry in which we operate. We may take a significant period of time to hire and train replacement personnel when skilled personnel terminate their employment with us. The loss of, or inability to attract or retain, such persons could materially and adversely affect our business, results of operations and financial condition.

The table below sets forth details on the attrition for our permanent employees for the period/years indicated:

| Particulars                              | Nine months endedDecember 31, |        | Fiscal |        |

Notes:

<sup>(3)</sup> Number of employees that resigned during the year/period divided by average number of employees during the period/Financial Year. The average number of employees is computed as average of number of employees at the beginning and end of year/ Financial Year.

Due to the lack of publicly available or consistently disclosed industry average attrition rate data, it cannot be ascertained whether our Company's attrition rate is higher or lower than the industry average. However, the Key Managerial Personnel have been employed by us for an average of more than eight years, demonstrating a healthy track record of retaining key management. Changes in Key Managerial Personnel and Senior Management during the last three years primarily reflect role redesignations and planned leadership transitions rather than involuntary departures. Furthermore, our voluntary attrition rate has shown a declining trend from 18.07% in Fiscal 2023 to 10.09% for the nine months ended December 31, 2025. Any reduction in senior management headcount is consistent with our broader organizational restructuring initiatives, including the centralization of technology services at the corporate level and the transition of shared services functions to regional hubs to increase efficiencies and reduce costs. For further details, see “Our Business – Our Competitive Strengths – Strong leadership team with deep experience” and “Our Management” on pages 450 and 591, respectively.

Details of our employee benefits expenses and share based payment expense for the period/years indicated are set out below:

See “Summary of Related Party Transactions” on page 136 for details of remuneration paid to key management personnel and “Capital Structure – Employee Stock Option Scheme” on page 284 for details of options granted to our Key Managerial Personnel and Senior Management under our ESOP Scheme from December 31, 2025 till the date of this Updated Draft Red Herring Prospectus-I, for the nine months ended December 31, 2025, and Fiscals 2025, 2024 and 2023. We may be required to increase our levels of employee compensation and benefit packages more rapidly than in the past to remain competitive in attracting skilled employees that our business requires. The loss of qualified employees, or an inability to attract, retain, and motivate employees required for the planned expansion of our business could materially and adversely affect our business, results of operations and financial condition and impair our ability to grow.

37. The rapid adoption of artificial intelligence (“AI”) agents, AI-enabled browsers, and advanced automated travel planning tools could disrupt our direct customer acquisition channels. Such technological shifts may disintermediate our customer relationships, increase customer acquisition costs, diminish our share of direct demand, and consequently exert downward pressure on our operating margins and financial performance.

Advances in artificial intelligence, including AI-powered travel agents, AI-integrated browsers, and generative AI-based search and booking tools, are reshaping how consumers discover and book travel accommodations. If AI agents or AI-integrated browsers become primary channels through which consumers search for and book accommodations, our direct demand channels (including our mobile applications and websites) may experience reduced traffic, resulting in a decline in our share of direct demand and increasing our reliance on third-party distribution channels (which typically involve higher commission rates and customer acquisition costs). In addition, an increasing shift in consumer behavior towards AI-mediated discovery and booking may affect our ability to leverage data-driven insights on customer preferences and provide personalized recommendations to our customers. Our direct demand, measured as a percentage of used room nights through our D2C channels, was 67.57%, 71.67%, 72.24% and 70.95% for the nine months ended December 31, 2025 and Fiscals 2025, 2024 and 2023, respectively. While we have not experienced any material decline in direct demand or increase in customer acquisition costs as a result of AI-driven travel planning tools during the nine months ended December 31, 2025 and Fiscals 2025, 2024 and 2023, any material decline in direct demand as a result of AI-driven disintermediation could increase customer acquisition costs, diminish our share of direct demand, and consequently exert downward pressure on our operating margins and financial performance. In addition, as a technology driven hospitality platform company, if we fail to adapt our technology platform and our offerings to integrate with or leverage AI-driven booking platforms, we may be unable to compete successfully with our competitors, including those that are better able to capture demand through these emerging channels. For further details regarding our technology and distribution strategy, see “Our Business” on page 426.

38. Our Company serviced storefronts are located on leased or licensed land. If we are unable to comply with the terms of the lease agreements, renew such agreements or enter into new lease agreements on favorable terms, or at all, our business, results of operations and financial condition and cash flows may be adversely affected.

As at the date of this Updated Draft Red Herring Prospectus-I, our storefronts are located on leased or licensed land from third parties.

The lease agreements entered into by us with our lessors require us to comply with several conditions, such as obtaining requisite approvals and consents for the development of the projects from respective authorities, payment of license fees/rent (as applicable) and ensuring assets to be adequately insured to the full re-instatement value. We cannot assure you that we will be able to fully comply with all the terms of the lease deeds or license agreements we have entered into in relation to these properties, renew such agreements or enter into new agreements in the future, on terms commercially favorable to us, or at all. In the event that any lease deed or license agreement for the land on which our properties are located is terminated due to our non-compliance with its terms, among others, for non-payment of lease rental, subcontracting of commercial operations without consent of the lessor, we will be unable to utilize such properties and we may be unable to benefit from the existing capital expenditure and investments made by us in such properties. Further, we may be required to expend time and increased financial resources to vacate our current premises and locate suitable land to set up alternate properties, which will disrupt our operations and cash flows. We may also be unable to relocate a property to an alternate location in a timely manner, or at all, and we cannot assure you that a relocated property will not require significant expenditure or be as commercially viable.

We may be unable to ascertain whether our lessors have acquired valid title to the underlying land. Further, any regulatory non-compliance by the landlords or adverse development relating to the landlords' title or ownership rights to such properties may entail significant disruptions to our operations, especially if we are forced to vacate leased spaces following any such developments, and expose us to reputation risks. Any adverse impact on the title, ownership rights, development rights of the owners from whose premises we operate or breach of the contractual terms of any lease and license agreements may adversely affect our business, results of operations, financial condition and cash flows.

While there have been no major instances in the nine months ended December 31, 2025, and Fiscals 2025, 2024 and 2023, wherein our lease deeds or license agreements for properties operated by us, have been terminated due to non-compliance with the terms of the lease deeds or license agreements or any other reasons, there can be no assurance that this will not occur in the future. In the event any of our lease deed or license agreement is terminated prior to its tenure, or if it is not renewed, or if we are required to cease business operations at a property and for any reason whatsoever or the land is leased or sold to our competitor after the termination of our lease, our business, financial condition, cash flows and results of operations may be adversely affected. For more information on our leased properties, see “Our Business-Our Properties” on page 462.

39. *InCred Capital is one of the Book Running Lead Managers to the Issue and certain of its associate entities and officers hold securities of our Company and one of our Subsidiaries and Joint Ventures, and we cannot assure that this will not be perceived as a current or potential conflict of interest.

The following sets forth certain details of InCred Capital, one of the Book Running Lead Managers, certain of its associate entities and its officials, and their relationship with our Company and one of our Subsidiaries and one of our Joint Ventures:

(a) Restriction on activities of InCred Capital as a Book Running Lead Manager and certain undertakings

In terms of Regulations 21A and Regulation 21C of the SEBI Merchant Bankers Regulations read with Regulation 23(3) of the SEBI ICDR Regulations, InCred Capital is not an associate of our Company and its role as a Book Running Lead Manager to the Issue is limited only to marketing of the Issue. InCred Capital has confirmed that its appointment by our Company as a Book Running Lead Manager in connection with the Issue does not violate any provisions of the SEBI Merchant Bankers Regulations, the SEBI ICDR Regulations and the Securities and Exchange Board of India (Prohibition of Insider Trading) Regulations, 2015, as amended. A copy of the confirmation issued by InCred Capital in this regard, will be available for inspection from the date of the Red Herring Prospectus up to the Bid/Issue Closing Date. - (e) Composite scheme of arrangement for demerger of the merchant banking business of InCred Capital

Pursuant to the order dated March 24, 2026 passed by NCLT, Mumbai approving the composite scheme of arrangement, the merchant banking business of InCred Capital is proposed to be demerged and consequently merged into InCred Capital Financial Services Limited, subject to receipt of necessary regulatory and other approvals.

We cannot assure you that the aforesaid relationships, the holdings of the associates and officers of InCred Capital in our Company, or our joint venture or our indirect subsidiary and other holdings, the restriction on InCred Capital’s participation in the Issue related activities (being limited to marketing only), and the scheme of arrangement will not be perceived as a current or potential conflict of interest. Any such perceived or actual conflict of interest could adversely affect investor confidence in the Issue process, which may in turn have an adverse impact on the pricing, subscription and overall success of the Issue.

40. Laws that affect the hospitality and short-term rental business have limited, and may continue to limit, the ability or willingness of Patrons to list their storefronts on our platform and expose our Patrons or us to significant penalties, which have had and could continue to have a material adverse effect on our business, results of operations, cash flows and financial condition.

There have been and continue to be legal and regulatory developments that affect the hospitality and short-term rental business. Laws as they evolve may impose a larger administrative burden of compliance on small and medium Patrons which may create a significant cost impact, reduce speed of expansion and may require us to monitor and ensure such compliances. For example, the Goa Registration of Tourist Trade Amendment Act requires us to display the registration numbers of our Patrons on our platform. In addition, the European Union has adopted Regulation (EU) 2024/1028 on data collection and sharing relating to short-term accommodation rental services, which establishes a framework for registration, data-sharing and reporting requirements for online platforms facilitating short-term accommodation bookings within the European Union. Under this regulation, our European homes and listings businesses may be required to verify and display registration numbers for storefronts, collect and share booking data with public authorities, and comply with reporting obligations. Non-compliance with these requirements could expose us to fines and other penalties imposed by European Union member state competent authorities. We may also incur increased compliance costs associated with implementing the necessary systems and processes to meet these requirements. While we have not experienced any material adverse impact on our European homes or listings businesses as a result of Regulation (EU) 2024/1028 during the nine months ended December 31, 2025 and Fiscals 2025, 2024 and 2023, there is no assurance that future compliance obligations under this regulation will not adversely affect our business, results of operations, cash flows and financial condition. Further laws that seek to make us, as the platform owner, responsible for the quality and delivery of the services provided by our Patrons may create the need for additional resources and processes. Restrictions on our ability to provide visibility, dynamic pricing, sales and discounts to our Customers would affect the Patron's occupancy rates and revenue. Unequal enforcement of regulations against online and offline Patrons would disadvantage Patrons listed on our platform. Interest groups have engaged and will likely continue to engage in various lobbying and political efforts for stricter regulations governing our business in and the hospitality industry in general, both local and national jurisdictions. Others, such as homeowners, landlords, and condominium and neighbourhood associations, have adopted by-laws or regulations that purport to ban or otherwise restrict short-term rentals and hospitality services in residential areas which may prevent or restrict the ability of Patrons to list their storefronts on our platform. Some state and local governments have implemented or considered implementing rules, ordinances, or regulations governing the short-term rental of properties. Such regulations include ordinances that restrict or ban Patrons from short-term rentals of their homes, set annual caps on the number of days that Patrons can share their homes, require Patrons to register with the municipality or city, or require Patrons to obtain permission before offering their homes for short-term rentals. In addition, some state and local governments regard short-term rental as "hotel use" and state that such use constitutes a conversion of a residential property to a commercial property, which requires the relevant Patron to obtain additional permits, and in some cases imposition of fees and taxes applicable to commercial properties. If laws and regulations significantly restrict or discourage homeowners in certain jurisdictions from listing their storefronts, it could materially and adversely affect our business, results of operations and financial condition.

While we seek to work with government agencies, we may in future become involved in disputes with government agencies regarding such laws and regulations. Government agencies may attempt to impose fines on us for what they contend is an illegal offering of short-term accommodations in violation of applicable laws. Certain jurisdictions have adopted laws and regulations that seek to impose lodging taxes, often known as transient or occupancy taxes, on our Customers, collection and remittance obligations on our Patrons and/or us, and withholding obligations on us, as more fully described in our risk factor titled "67. Uncertainty in the application of taxes to our Patrons, Customers or platform could increase our tax liabilities and may discourage Patrons and Customers from using our platform." on page 105. We could be held liable and incur significant financial and potential criminal penalties if we are found to have violated any of these regulations. When a government agency seeks to apply laws and regulations in a manner that limits or curtails the ability or willingness of our Patrons and Customers to list and search for storefronts in that particular geography, we have attempted and may continue to attempt through filing representations or other means to defend against such application of laws and regulations, but have sometimes been and may continue to be unsuccessful in certain of those efforts. Further, if we or our Patrons and Customers are required to comply with laws and regulations, government requests, or agreements with government agencies that adversely impact our relations with Patrons and Customers, our business, results of operations and financial condition could be materially and adversely affected. Moreover, if we enter an agreement with a government or governmental agency to resolve a dispute, the terms of such agreement will likely be publicly available and could create a precedent that may put us in a weaker bargaining position in future disputes with other governments.

41. Our funding requirements and the proposed deployment of Net Proceeds are based on management estimates and have not been appraised by any bank or financial institution or any other independent agency, and our management will have broad discretion over the use of Net Proceeds. Further, variations in the utilization of the Net Proceeds from the terms and conditions disclosed in this Updated Draft Red Herring Prospectus-I would be subject to certain compliance requirements, including prior shareholders' approval.

We intend to utilize Net Proceeds in the following manner:

| Particulars                                                                                                                            | Amount <sup>(1)</sup>(₹ million) |

Notes:

- <sup>(1)</sup> Our Company, in consultation with the BRLMs, may consider further issue of specified securities, as may be permitted under the applicable law, aggregating up to ₹13,300.00 million prior to filing of the Red Herring Prospectus with the RoC. The Pre-IPO Placement, if undertaken, will be at a price to be decided by our Company, in consultation with the BRLMs. If the Pre-IPO Placement is completed, the amount raised pursuant to the Pre-IPO Placement will be reduced from the Fresh Issue, subject to compliance with Rule 19(2)(b) of the Securities Contracts (Regulation) Rules, 1957, as amended. The Pre-IPO Placement, if undertaken, shall not exceed 20% of the size of the Fresh Issue. The utilisation of the proceeds raised pursuant to the Pre-IPO Placement will be done towards the proposed Objects of the Issue in compliance with applicable law. Prior to the completion of the Issue, our Company shall appropriately intimate the subscribers to the Pre-IPO Placement, prior to allotment pursuant to the Pre-IPO Placement, that there is no guarantee that our Company may proceed with the Issue or the Issue may be successful and will result into listing of the Equity Shares on the Stock Exchanges. Further, relevant disclosures in relation to such intimation to the subscribers to the Pre-IPO Placement (if undertaken) shall be appropriately made in the relevant sections of the RHP and Prospectus.
- <sup>(2)</sup> Indian Rupee equivalent of U.S.$ 526.33 million, based on exchange rate of U.S.$1 = ₹94.76, as of May 31, 2026, available at www1.oanda.com.
- <sup>(3)</sup> The amount to be spent towards general corporate purposes will be finalized upon determination of the Issue Price and updated in the Prospectus prior to filing with the RoC. The amount to be utilized for general corporate purposes shall not exceed 25% of the Gross Proceeds.
- <sup>(4)</sup> To be determined after finalization of the Issue Price and updated in the Prospectus prior to filing with the RoC.

For further details, see “Objects of the Issue” on pages 293.

The funding requirements and deployment of Net Proceeds mentioned as a part of the objects of the Issue are based on internal management estimates in view of past expenditures and current market conditions and have not been appraised by any bank or financial institution or other independent agency. However, the deployment of Gross Proceeds will be monitored by a monitoring agency appointed pursuant to the SEBI ICDR Regulations. We operate in a highly competitive and dynamic industry and may need to revise our estimates from time to time based on changes in a number of factors, including timely completion of the Issue, general economic and business conditions and other factors beyond our control such as consumer confidence, inflation, employment and disposable income levels, demographic trends, technological changes, changing customer preferences, increasing regulations or changes in government policies, our Board's analysis of economic trends and business requirements, competitive landscape as well as general factors affecting our business, results of operations, financial condition and access to capital such as credit availability and interest rate levels. Furthermore, the deployment of Net Proceeds is at the discretion of our management, in accordance with applicable laws.

Any variation in the objects of the Issue shall be made in compliance with the Sections 13(8) and 27 of the Companies Act which requires us to obtain a shareholders' approval, and Regulation 59 of the SEBI ICDR Regulations which requires us to provide an exit opportunity to shareholders who do not agree with our proposal to change the objects of the Issue or vary the terms of such contracts, at a price and manner as prescribed by SEBI and in accordance with any other applicable law. In the event of any such circumstances that require us to undertake variation in the disclosed utilization of the Net Proceeds, we may not be able to obtain the shareholders' approval in a timely manner, or at all. Any delay or inability to obtain such shareholders' approval may adversely affect our business or operations. Further, our Promoters would be required to provide an exit opportunity to shareholders who do not agree with our proposal to change the objects of the Issue or vary the terms of such contracts, at the price and manner as prescribed by SEBI. Additionally, the requirement on Promoters to provide an exit opportunity to such dissenting shareholders may deter the Promoters from agreeing to the variation of the proposed utilization of the Net Proceeds, even if such variation is in the interest of our Company. Further, we cannot assure you that the Promoters or the controlling shareholders of our Company will have adequate resources at their disposal at all times to enable them to provide an exit opportunity at the price prescribed by SEBI.

Also see “– 34. One of the Objects of the Issue is repayment/prepayment, in part or full, of certain borrowings availed by certain of our Subsidiaries which is subject to certain inherent risks” on page 79.

42. *The Issue size exceeds our net worth, which presents a significant risk to investors.

The Gross Proceeds we expect to receive from the Issue may exceed our net worth. The net worth of our Company as at December 31, 2025 was ₹61,466.16 million, whereas the Gross Proceeds proposed to be received by our Company pursuant to the Issue is up to ₹66,500.00 million, which is substantially higher than our net worth as at such date.

A significant increase in our capital base following the Issue may result in dilution of certain financial ratios and performance metrics, including return on equity and earnings per share, particularly in the period immediately following the Issue and until such time as the Gross Proceeds are fully and effectively deployed. Investors should therefore not rely on our historical financial performance as indicative of our future performance. In addition, while our management will have broad discretion in the utilisation of the Gross Proceeds, we may not be able to deploy such proceeds in a timely, efficient or value-accretive manner given the significant quantum of such proceeds relative to our existing net worth. Any delay in the deployment or utilisation of the proceeds of the Issue, or any deviation from the stated objects of the Issue as set out in “Objects of the Issue” on page 293, could adversely affect our business, financial condition, results of operations. If we fail to execute our business strategy effectively or if market conditions deteriorate, the value of your investment could decline substantially.

Accordingly, investors should carefully consider the risks associated with the size of the Issue relative to our historical net worth and our ability to effectively utilise the Gross Proceeds before making an investment decision.

43. *Our securities premium account constitutes a substantial portion of our net worth, and such balance may not represent accumulated operational profits or freely distributable reserves.

Our securities premium account constitutes a substantial portion of our net worth. As at the date of filing of this Updated Draft Red Herring Prospectus-I, the balance in our securities premium account was ₹187,314.19 million. As at December 31, 2025, March 31, 2025, 2024 and 2023, the balance in our securities premium account was ₹184,453.70 million, ₹184,942.19 million, ₹167,133.01 million and ₹167,120.03 million, respectively.

The securities premium account primarily comprises premium received on issue of Equity Shares and Preference Shares, premium arising on exercise of employee stock options, amounts transferred from employee stock option reserves on exercise of options, and conversion of Preference Shares. The following table sets forth the movement in our securities premium account and its contribution as a percentage of our net worth for the periods indicated:

<sup>(1)</sup>Net worth is the aggregate value of paid up share capital including instruments in the nature of equity and all reserves created out of profit, securities premium account and debit or credit balance of profit and loss account, share based payment reserve, money received against share warrants and other reserves after deducting the aggregate value of the accumulated losses, deferred expenditure and miscellaneous expenditure not written off but does not include reserve created out of revaluation of assets, write-back of depreciation and amalgamation, in accordance with Regulation 2(1)(hh) of the SEBI ICDR Regulations.

The balance in our securities premium account exceeded our net worth for the periods indicated above as other components of equity, including accumulated losses and other reserves, reduced our aggregate net worth. Accordingly, a significant portion of our net worth is represented by securities premium, which may not reflect accumulated operational profits or freely distributable reserves.

Our securities premium account may only be utilised in accordance with the Companies Act, 2013 and other applicable laws, including for specified purposes such as issuance of fully paid bonus shares, writing off expenses or commission paid on issue of securities, premium payable on redemption of Preference Shares or debentures, or other legally permitted purposes. Accordingly, while securities premium forms part of our net worth, it is not freely distributable as dividend to Shareholders.

Any utilisation, adjustment or reduction of our securities premium account in the future, whether pursuant to corporate actions, statutory requirements, accounting adjustments, capital restructuring, issue-related expenses or otherwise, may affect our reported net worth and financial position. This may limit our ability to declare dividends, undertake certain capital management actions or absorb future losses, which could adversely affect our financial condition and the interests of our Shareholders.

44. We may not continue to grow on pace with historical rates and may face difficulties in executing our expansion plans and growth strategies.

We have experienced significant growth in India and internationally. The following table reconciles revenue from operations to Gross Profit and Gross Profit (% of revenue from operations) for the period/years indicated.

Please see “Management’s Discussion and Analysis of Financial Condition and Results of Operations – Our Operational Metrics” on page 959, for a detailed discussion of our revenue from operations, Gross Profit and Gross Profit (% of Revenue from operations).

Our revenue from operations decreased by 1.38% from ₹54,639.45 million in Fiscal 2023 to ₹53,887.89 million in Fiscal 2024, and increased by 16.03% to ₹62,528.31 million in Fiscal 2025, primarily due to an increase in sale of accommodation services, commission from bookings and royalty income, cancellation income, value added services, sale of tours, packages and events including wedding related services, rental income, food and beverages, Subscription income and other operational revenue. Our total expenses decreased by 15.79% from ₹67,996.95 million in Fiscal 2023 to ₹57,257.82 million in Fiscal 2024, and increased by 16.31% to ₹66,595.42 million in Fiscal 2025. Our restated loss for the year improved from ₹12,865.18 million in Fiscal 2023 to a restated profit of ₹2,295.79 million in Fiscal 2024 and further to ₹2,448.22 million in Fiscal 2025. This improvement reflects operational efficiencies and improved margin contribution from our key markets.

Although these improvements mark a positive trend, this should not be considered indicative of our future performance. There can be no assurance that we will be able to sustain these levels of growth or profitability. Our business remains susceptible to fluctuations in demand, changes in competitive dynamics, shifts in consumer behavior, regulatory developments, and execution risks associated with our expansion strategies. If we are unable to effectively manage costs, maintain our operating leverage, or scale our revenues across newer storefronts and geographies, our results of operations and financial condition could be materially and adversely affected.

Our success will depend to a substantial extent on our ability to develop appropriate strategies and plans, including our growth and expansion strategy and plans to expand our technology platform, and the effective implementation of such plans. Going forward, we may not be able to identify relevant opportunities or complete transactions on commercially reasonable terms, or at all, and our failure to do so may limit our ability to grow our business. We may not achieve our target growth rates and may face difficulties in executing our expansion plans and implementing our growth strategies amid uncertainty in the global economic environment. Our growth depends on a number of factors, including those described in “Management’s Discussion and Analysis of Financial Condition and Results of Operations – Principal Factors Affecting Our Financial Condition and Results of Operations”. These in turn are affected by a number of factors, including the impact of global economic conditions on the travel and accommodation industries, competition, the strength of our brand to prospective Patrons and Customers, the level of spending on marketing and technological upgrades to our system and our ability to deepen our presence in certain geographies. A softening of demand, whether caused by events outside of our control or changes in our Patrons’ and Customers’ preferences, or any of the aforementioned factors, would result in further decreased revenue. If we are not able to increase our revenue while controlling operating costs, we may not achieve profitability and our business, results of operations and financial condition could be materially and adversely affected.

We have an asset-light business model which relies on our Patrons who list their storefronts on our platform and our large base of Customers who book accommodations at our Patrons’ storefronts. However, we need to continue to invest in growing and improving our platform for the growth of our business. For further details, see “Our Business – Our Business Model” page 957. We have historically incurred significant amounts towards organic growth initiatives which include, among others, expanding our Patrons and storefront base, expanding our technology offerings and platform and enhancing our global brand strength to acquire new Patrons and Customers. Our historical investments may not be fully reflective of our future growth plans and new developments and business trends may arise within our categories of offerings. Our organic growth strategy and associated investments are, and will continue to be, subject to multiple internal and external factors, including applicable business requirements, investments in newer technology infrastructure and platforms and continued brand investments to cater to the preferences of our Patrons and Customers.

The expansion of our business has increased its complexity and has placed, and will continue to place, significant strain on our management, personnel, operations, systems, technical performance, financial resources, and internal financial control and reporting functions. We may not be able to manage our growth effectively, which could damage our reputation and negatively affect our results of operations. Properly managing our growth will require us to establish consistent policies across regions and functions, as well as additional localized policies where necessary. In addition, as we expand, if we are unsuccessful in hiring, training, managing, and integrating new employees and staff to help manage and operate our business, or if we are not successful in retaining its existing employees and staff, our business may be harmed.

- 45. *Maintaining and enhancing our brand and reputation is critical to our growth. Our dependence on third parties for properties, property management, hospitality services and ancillary guest services exposes us to risks if such third parties fail to maintain service standards or are unable to continue their operations. Any adverse impact on the reputation and quality of our storefronts, or the brands under which they operate, could adversely affect our business, results of operations and financial condition.

Maintaining and enhancing our brand and reputation are critical to our ability to attract Patrons, Customers and employees, to compete effectively, to preserve and deepen the engagement of our existing Patrons, Customers and employees. We are heavily dependent on the perceptions of our Patrons and Customers to help make word-of-mouth recommendations that contribute to our organic growth. See

“Our Business-Marketing and Distribution – Our Customer Loyalty and Referral Programs” on page 456 for further information on awards and studies conducted on the strength of our brand.

The performance and quality of services at our hotel storefronts and home storefronts are critical to the success of our business. Any incident where our hotel storefronts or home storefronts lack, or are perceived to lack, high standards of service quality may adversely affect our reputation. All our hotel storefronts or home storefronts are operated by third parties under our own brands, such as Sunday, Collection O, Capital O, SilverKey, Palette and OYO Townhouse etc. We are dependent on third-party service providers for providing certain ancillary guest services such as laundry, maintenance, security and chauffeur services or for managing our hotel storefronts. We also rely on other third-party service providers for certain aspects of our business, including for information technology and services to our Patrons and Customers. Although we have not experienced any material instances of negative publicity of the brands under which our hospitality assets are operated during the nine months ended December 31, 2025, and Fiscals 2025, 2024 and 2023, any such negative branding or decrease in the quality of services rendered at our hospitality assets in the future, whether on account of the hotel operators or any third-party service provider, could adversely affect our reputation, business, results of operations, cash flows and financial condition.

Moreover, we rely on our Customers to provide trustworthy reviews and ratings that other prospective Customers may rely upon to help decide whether or not to book a particular storefront and that we use to enforce quality standards. Our Customers may be less likely to rely on reviews and ratings if they believe that our review system does not generate trustworthy reviews and ratings. Additionally, we may be required to comply with requirements specified under any existing or proposed laws in relation to the protection of consumer interest from fake and deceptive reviews. For instance, the Department of Consumer Affairs, Government of India, has in November 2022 launched the framework titled Indian Standard (IS) 19000:2022 ‘Online Consumer Reviews- Principles and Requirements for their Collection, Moderation and Publication’. These standards will be applicable to every online platform which publishes consumer reviews. These standards are presently voluntary for compliance and prescribe specific responsibilities for the review author and the review administrator. For review author, these include confirming acceptance of terms and conditions, providing contact information and for review administrator, these include safeguarding personal information and training staff. Once made mandatory, if required, the violation of the standards by any entity may be considered as an unfair trade practice or violation of consumer rights and a consumer may submit such grievances to the National Consumer Helpline, Consumer Commissions or the Central Consumer Protection Authority. To this extent, the Department of Consumer Affairs, Government of India organized a stakeholder consultation on protection of consumers from online fake reviews in May 2024 wherein it was agreed that a quality control order (“QCO”) would be prepared and released which would cover the management of online fake reviews. While the draft of the QCO is yet to be released, if we fail to comply with these standards as and when they become mandatory, or our Customers do not leave reliable reviews and ratings, other potential Customers may disregard those reviews and ratings, which could reduce trust in our platform and damage our brand and reputation and could materially and adversely affect our business, results of operations and financial condition.

46. Prepayment of our TLB borrowings (which constitutes 94.44% of our total borrowings, as of December 31, 2025) may require us to pay a make-whole premium or other prepayment penalties, which may increase our finance costs and adversely affect our cash flows and financial condition.

Under the terms of our TLB borrowing arrangements, prepayment of the loan on or prior to the second anniversary from the closing date of the TLB Credit Agreement would require us to pay a make-whole premium of ₹5,325.93 million. The make-whole premium represents the interest that would have accrued and become payable up to the second anniversary of the loan (subject to certain assumptions). Prepayment of the loan after the second anniversary but on or prior to the third anniversary of the closing date of the TLB Credit Agreement would require us to pay a prepayment penalty of 4% of the amount prepaid. Such prepayment premiums may increase our expenses and adversely affect our cash flows and financial condition.

After the third anniversary of the closing date of the TLB Credit Agreement, no prepayment penalty or make-whole premium would be applicable, and the loan may be prepaid at par.

The table below sets forth the estimated prepayment penalty amounts applicable at or before each anniversary of the closing date of the TLB Credit Agreement:

| Penalty amount                           | Amount (in ₹ million) |
|------------------------------------------|-----------------------|
| 2 nd anniversary              | 8,428.68              |
| 3 rd anniversary ^ | 3,079.16              |

Notwithstanding the foregoing, the make-whole premium and the prepayment penalty would not be applicable in the event a mandatory prepayment event, including if prepayment is made from the proceeds of an initial public offering, or an equity raise pursuant to a mandatory equity sweep, subject to the terms of such TLB credit agreement.

If we elect or are required to prepay such borrowings prior to the expiry of the applicable prepayment restriction period, and such prepayment is not a mandatory prepayment made from IPO proceeds or a qualifying equity raise, or subject to other exceptions under the TLB credit agreement, we would be required to pay the applicable make-whole premium or prepayment penalty, which would increase our finance costs and could adversely affect our cash flows and financial condition.

47. Any changes to our business model in the future could adversely impact our customer base, revenue, market share and profitability.

We have changed our business model over the years to align better with market conditions, partner expectations and our long-term strategic vision. For example, we transitioned a large number of Patron contracts from fixed payout and minimum guarantee structures to a revenue share model. While our Company may from time to time enter into a limited number of minimum guarantee or fixed-lease arrangements on a selective basis, such arrangements have not formed part of our standard portfolio strategy since Fiscal 2021 and represent a very small proportion of our overall storefront portfolio. For further details in relation to the changes in our business models, see “Our Business – Our Transformation” on page 432. The changes in our business model have also contributed to changes in our revenue and profitability, as illustrated by the table set out below.

| Particulars                                | Nine months endedDecember 31, |                        | Fiscal    |             |
|--------------------------------------------|-----------------------------------|------------------------|-----------|-------------|
|                                            | 2025                              | 2025(in ₹ million) | 2024      | 2023        |
| Revenue from operations                    | 69,409.73                         | 62,528.31              | 53,887.89 | 54,639.45   |
| Total income                               | 71,663.28                         | 63,258.89              | 55,415.85 | 56,017.04   |
| Restated profit/(loss) for the period/year | 7,483.38                          | 2,448.22               | 2,295.79  | (12,865.18) |

However, given the dynamic nature of our industry, our business model may continue to evolve. There is no assurance that any changes we make to our business model in the future will be successful or deliver the intended results. Such changes may result in increased operational complexity or may require us to incur additional costs. If not managed effectively, such changes could impact our ability to acquire and retain Customers, and could adversely affect our revenue, market share or profitability.

48. An inability to establish and maintain effective internal controls could lead to an adverse effect on our business, results of operations, cash flows and financial condition.

Our success depends on our ability to effectively utilize our resources and maintain internal controls. We take reasonable steps to maintain appropriate procedures for compliance and disclosure. We also maintain effective internal controls over our financial reporting, to enable us to produce reliable financial reports and prevent financial fraud. We periodically test and update our internal processes and systems and are exposed to operational risks arising from the potential inadequacy or failure of internal processes or systems, and our actions may not be sufficient in the future to ensure effective internal checks and balances in all circumstances. Maintaining such internal controls requires human diligence and compliance and is therefore subject to lapses in judgment and failures that results from human error. Our efforts in improving our internal control systems may not result in eliminating all risks.

Further, as a result of the nature of our business and operations, we execute a high volume of business transactions. If we are not successful in discovering and eliminating weaknesses in our internal controls in the future, our ability to manage our business effectively may be adversely affected. While we have not faced any material lapses in our internal controls based on annual assessments undertaken for Fiscals 2025, 2024 and 2023, any such lapses in the future may lead to an adverse effect on our business, financial condition, cash flows and results of operations.

49. *We may not be able to successfully implement our growth strategies and may be unable to obtain future financing on favorable terms, or at all, to fund the implementation of such strategies.

As we scale our business, we may face difficulties in executing our expansion plans and implementing our growth strategies. We cannot assure you that we will be able to grow and manage our business. We have encountered in the past, and will encounter in the future, risks and uncertainties frequently experienced by growing companies in rapidly changing industries. If our assumptions regarding these risks and uncertainties, which we use to plan and operate our business, are incorrect or change, or if we do not address these risks successfully, our results of operations could differ materially from our expectations and our business, financial condition and results of operations could be adversely affected.

Our success will depend to a substantial extent on our ability to develop appropriate strategies and plans, including our growth and expansion strategy, and the effective implementation of such plans. For example, we plan to continue to grow our Patron and Customer base, and our storefront footprint and hotel and vacation homes counts, in a cost-effective and scalable manner. We also plan to focus on product-led growth to drive new customer acquisition and better retention in order to further strengthen our GBV per storefront. In addition, we have been expanding our company-serviced storefronts under our premium brands, including the Sunday brand, in the United Kingdom, India, Europe and the Middle East. We have entered into direct lease arrangements with individual and institutional property owners and operators to lease company-serviced storefronts. This expansion strategy involves certain capital commitments, including for committed lease charges, property fit-outs, brand transformation, and operational enhancements, that represent a higher level of capital deployment compared to our historical revenue-share and asset-light model. Our premium brand expansion is subject to certain risks, including: (i) occupancy risk, as newly launched or transformed company-serviced storefronts may experience lower initial occupancy rates and may require a longer ramp-up period to achieve targeted occupancy levels; (ii) brand-positioning risk, as the positioning of our premium brands may not resonate with consumers or may face competition from established premium hospitality brands; (iii) capital deployment risk, as the expansion may require higher capital investment and may not generate the expected returns within the anticipated timeframe; and (iv) execution risk, as we may face delays or cost overruns in the transformation or launch of company-serviced storefronts. While we have not experienced any material adverse impact on our financial condition or results of operations as a result of our expansion of company-serviced storefronts during the nine months ended December 31, 2025 and Fiscals 2025, 2024 and 2023, there can be no assurance that we will be able to successfully execute this strategy or achieve the expected returns from this strategy. For further details regarding our UK operations and brand portfolio, see “Our Business – Our Transformation – Expansion of Offerings (Fiscal 2024 and Beyond)” on page 433.

We may require funding for the implementation of our organic and inorganic growth strategies. Such initiatives could require significant capital from us and may not be profitable. Our sources of additional funding may include the incurrence of debt or the issue of equity or debt securities, or a combination of any of these. If we decide to raise additional funds through the incurrence of debt, our interest and debt repayment obligations will increase, and this could have a significant effect on our profitability and cash flows, and we may be subject to additional covenants that could affect our business. There is no assurance that we will be successful in securing such equity funding or obtaining additional debt financing in the future on commercially reasonable terms, or at all. Any issue of equity securities could dilute your shareholdings. Any failure to obtain additional debt and/or equity financing in the future could limit our ability to implement our growth strategy and could limit our ability to increase our cash flows from operating activities. Any of the foregoing could have an adverse effect on our business, financial condition, cash flows and results of operations.

50. *We had filed compounding applications with the RBI for delay in reporting of foreign inward remittance and in submission of form filings to the RBI under the foreign exchange regulations in the past. There can be no assurance that such lapses will not occur in the future, or that we will be able to rectify or mitigate such lapses in a timely manner, or at all.

In relation to the allotment of CCPS and CCCPS to certain Shareholders in 2014 and 2017, there were certain delays in submission of Form FC-GPR with the RBI and in reporting of inward remittance for issue of certain CCPS in connection with which our Company was directed by the RBI in its conditional acknowledgement to apply for compounding. Accordingly, our Company had filed two compounding applications in August 2021 to regularize these procedural filing delays under FEMA. Further, our Company was directed by the RBI to pay late submission fees involving an amount of ₹5.45 million for delays in filing of Form FC-GPR in connection with certain allotments of CCCPS and such late submission fees were paid by the Company. Subsequently, pursuant to an order dated June 22, 2022, in furtherance of payment of compounding fees of ₹0.14 million by our Company, the RBI admitted the compounding applications. For details in relation to such allotments, see “Capital Structure – Notes to Capital Structure – Share Capital History of our Company – History of Preference Share Capital of our Company” on page 209. Further, the filing of Form FC-GPR in respect of (i) allotment of 1,736,711,919 Equity Shares made on October 9, 2025 and 184,513,724 Equity Shares made on December 22, 2025, respectively, pursuant to bonus issuances; and (ii) allotment of 131,496,556 Series G CCCPS on May 20, 2026 in lieu of the acquisition of K&J Consulting, each to non-resident shareholders, is currently pending, owing to practical and operational challenges in completing KYC requirements and determining the repatriable/non-repatriable classification applicable to several foreign/NRI shareholders of our Company. While we have been proactively engaging with the AD Bank since September 2025 and continue to do so to resolve these matters, we have not been able to make the Form FC-GPR filing within the stipulated time period and there can be no assurance that we will not be subjected to payment of late submission fees or compounding such lapses will not occur in the future or that we will be able to rectify or mitigate such lapses in the future. Also see “Capital Structure – Notes to Capital Structure – Share Capital History of our Company – History of Equity Share Capital of our Company” and “Capital Structure – Notes to Capital Structure – Share Capital History of our Company – Preference Share Capital of our Company” on pages 153 and 209.

51. If we do not continue to innovate and develop our platform, our platform developments do not perform or we do not keep pace with technological developments, we may not remain competitive, and our business and results of operations could suffer.

Our success depends in part on our ability to continue to innovate and further develop our platform. The travel and accommodation industries are characterized by technological evolution, changes in customer requirements and preferences, frequent introduction of new services and products embodying new technologies, and the emergence of new industry standards and practices, any of which could render our existing technologies and systems obsolete. To remain competitive, we must continuously enhance and improve the functionality and features of our platform, including our website and mobile applications and the suite of services and functions offered on our platform, and respond to technological advances and emerging industry standards and practices in a cost-effective and timely way. Outside of our operating expenditure, we have not incurred capital expenditure relating to additions to internally generated software in the nine months ended December 31, 2025, and Fiscals 2025 and 2024 and we have incurred capital expenditure relating to additions to internally generated software in Fiscal 2023 amounting to ₹235.56 million. We have scaled our business and significant new platform features and services have resulted in, and may continue to result in, operational challenges affecting our business. Globally, our share of indirect demand on our platform, measured as a percentage of used room nights other than through our D2C channels, was 32.43%, 28.33%, 27.76% and 29.05% in the nine months ended December 31, 2025, and Fiscals 2025, 2024 and 2023, respectively. See “Our Business – Our Growth Strategies” on page 450 for further details on our recent platform features and services. If we fail to expand the suite of services on our platform or if we fail to continuously enhance and improve our existing services, our ability to attract Customers and retain and acquire Patrons could be adversely affected. For risks relating to our failure to retain or acquire Customers or Patrons, see “– 5. If we fail to retain existing Patrons and Customers or acquire new Patrons and Customers in a cost-effective manner, our revenue may decrease and our business, results of operations and financial condition could be adversely affected.” on page 35. If our competitors introduce new offerings embodying new technologies, or if new industry standards and practices emerge, our existing technology, services, website and mobile applications may become obsolete. We may also face increased competition from new entrants and existing players that are continuously developing new products and services.

Developing and launching enhancements to our platform and new services on our platform may involve significant technical risks and upfront capital investments, and there may not be any returns on such investments. We may use new technologies ineffectively or we may fail to adapt to emerging industry standards. If we face material delays in introducing new or enhanced platform features and services tailored to accommodate our Customers’ evolving requirements at a competitive pace, or our recently introduced offerings do not perform in accordance with the expectations of our Patrons and our Customers, including the way we use their personal information, they may choose our competitors over us. In addition, technological innovation often results in unintended consequences such as bugs, vulnerabilities and other system failures. Any such bug, vulnerability or failure, especially in connection with a significant technical implementation or change, could result in lost business, harm to our brand or reputation, complaints by Patrons and Customers, and other adverse consequences, any of which could materially and adversely affect our business, results of operations and financial condition.

Another critical component to our success will be our ability to integrate new or emerging payment methods into our platform to offer alternative payment solutions to Patrons and Customers. Alternate payment providers and unified payment interface-based payment services operate closed-loop payments systems with direct connections to both Patrons and Customers. In many regions, particularly in Asia where credit cards are not readily available and/or e-commerce is largely carried out through mobile devices, these and other emerging alternate payment methods are the exclusive or preferred means of payment for many Patrons and Customers. Our inability to timely and effectively innovate, scale and integrate new technologies and payment solutions could materially and adversely affect our competitive position, growth prospects, business, results of operations, cash flows and financial condition.

52. *Following the acquisition of G6 Hospitality, LLC, our exposure to U.S. legal, regulatory, and litigation risks has increased significantly. Any non-compliance with U.S. laws or potential litigation which results into adverse developments in such matters could materially and adversely affect our business, reputation, financial condition and results of operations.

Our franchising business exposes us to a range of litigation, regulatory proceedings, and claims, particularly in the United States, which could result in significant legal costs, reputational harm, management distraction, and adverse financial outcomes. Although our franchisees own and operate the underlying hotel properties, we and our subsidiaries, including G6 Hospitality Franchising, LLC and G6 Hospitality LLC, are frequently named as defendants in lawsuits arising from incidents at franchisee-operated properties.

Such matters include general liability and premises-liability claims (such as slip-and-fall incidents, assault, battery, bed-bug claims, wrongful death, and other tort allegations), as well as human-trafficking-related claims, in which plaintiffs often allege negligence or failure to prevent misconduct. In addition, we and our franchisees historically have been, parties to privacy-related proceedings (including alleged improper sharing of guest information with law-enforcement authorities), franchise disputes with current or former franchisees (including claims relating to breach, misrepresentation, termination, or franchise-law compliance), and other consumer protection and unfair or deceptive practices claims.

While these proceedings generally arise in the ordinary course of business, the outcome of litigation and regulatory matters is inherently uncertain. Certain claims, particularly those involving personal injury, human trafficking, privacy, or consumer protection allegations, may involve substantial damages, statutory penalties, injunctive relief, or punitive exposure, litigation cost and expenses, and could attract heightened regulatory scrutiny or adverse media attention. For further details, see “Outstanding Litigation and Material Developments – Litigation involving our Subsidiaries- Material civil litigation against our Subsidiary” on page 1007. Even where claims are ultimately resolved in our favor or are subject to contractual indemnities or insurance coverage, we may incur significant defense costs, experience coverage disputes or denials, or face delays in recovery.

Although our franchise agreements include indemnification provisions and insurance requirements, and we maintain our own insurance coverage, such contractual and insurance protections may be insufficient, unavailable, contested, or subject to exclusions, limits, or deductibles. As a result, an adverse judgment, settlement, regulatory action, or series of claims, individually or in the aggregate, could materially and adversely affect our business, reputation, financial condition, cash flows, or results of operations.

53. *Our failure to properly manage funds received from Customers, in particular, those who prepay for their bookings, could materially and adversely affect our business, results of operations and financial condition.

As at December 31, 2025, we offer integrated payments in multiple currencies to allow access to Customer demand from more than 35 countries and the ability for many Patrons to be paid in their local currency or payment method of choice. When a Customer books and pays for a stay on our platform, we hold the total amount the Customer has paid at the time of booking or check-in, and initiate the process to remit the payment to the relevant Patron in accordance with our payment reconciliation cycles

(typically on a weekly, bi-weekly or monthly basis, depending on the relevant market), barring any alterations or cancellations, which may result in funds being returned to the Customers. Our ability to manage and account accurately for the cash underlying our Customer funds requires a high level of internal controls. Although we have not encountered any material complaints relating to a failure to provide timely refunds in connection with cancellations to Customers during the nine months ended December 31, 2025, and Fiscals 2025, 2024 and 2023, any failure to maintain the necessary controls or to manage the assets underlying our Customer funds accurately could result in reputational harm, lead Customers to discontinue or reduce their use of our platform and services, and result in significant penalties and fines from regulators, each of which could materially and adversely affect our business, results of operations and financial condition. See “– 54. Any failure to maintain our turnaround periods for payments to Patrons, refunds to Customers, or resolution of Customer complaints could harm our brand and reputation, expose us to regulatory action and adversely affect our business, results of operations and financial condition.”

54. *Any failure to maintain our turnaround periods for payments to Patrons, refunds to Customers, or resolution of Customer complaints could harm our brand and reputation, expose us to regulatory action and adversely affect our business, results of operations and financial condition.

Our operations involve high volumes of time-sensitive financial and service transactions, including the remittance of booking proceeds to our Patrons (typically on monthly basis for hotel storefronts and prior to stay basis in our home storefronts), the issuance of refunds to Customers in connection with cancellations, alterations, no-shows or service-related issues, and the resolution of Customer complaints received through inbound calls, emails and social media. The timeliness with which we discharge these obligations, and the integrity of our platform and our compliance with applicable consumer protection, payment and intermediary regulations is critical to maintaining the trust of our Patrons and Customers.

The following table sets forth our average turnaround time for Customer refunds for the period/years indicated:

| Particulars                                          | Nine months endedDecember 31, 2025 | 2025  | Fiscal2024 | 2023  |
|------------------------------------------------------|----------------------------------------|-------|----------------|-------|
| Average turnaround time for Customer refunds (hours) | 23.58                                  | 17.88 | 30.90          | 26.21 |

The following table sets forth details of total refunds issued by us during the period/years indicated:

| Particulars                                       | Nine months endedDecember 31, 2025 | 2025     | Fiscal2024 | 2023     |
|---------------------------------------------------|----------------------------------------|----------|----------------|----------|
| Total refunds (₹ million)                         | 890.48                                 | 2,037.70 | 2,299.40       | 3,277.62 |
| Total refunds as % of revenue from operations (%) | 1.28                                   | 3.26     | 4.27           | 6.00     |

While we have invested in automation initiatives, including our central refunds engine optimization system (OREO) and our in-house Yo! Help chatbot, to reduce average turnaround times, there can be no assurance that we will be able to sustain or further improve these turnaround periods, or that the absolute number of complaints, refunds or unresolved cases will not increase as our business scales.

The following table sets forth our average turnaround time for Customer complaint resolution and Customer complaints received and resolved for the period/years indicated:

| Particulars                                                       | Nine months endedDecember 31, 2025 | 2025    | Fiscal2024 | 2023      |
|-------------------------------------------------------------------|----------------------------------------|---------|----------------|-----------|
| Average turnaround time for Customer complaint resolution (hours) | 21.74                                  | 23.91   | 20.72          | 25.46     |
| Number of Customer complaints received                            | 453,190                                | 691,727 | 1,003,493      | 1,740,994 |
| Complaints resolved (as % of complaints received)                 | 99.25                                  | 99.95   | 99.92          | 99.25     |

Our ability to meet these turnaround periods depends on a number of factors, many of which are outside our control, including the performance and availability of our technology platform and that of our third-party payment processors, payment gateways, banks and customer support providers, the accuracy and completeness of information provided by Patrons and Customers, the volume and complexity of complaints (including those involving service quality at Patron-operated storefronts or alleged fraud), foreign exchange and cross-border payment settlement timelines, and changes in applicable laws and regulations (including consumer protection rules, payment aggregator norms, intermediary guidelines and data protection requirements). Any prolonged delay or failure in remitting payments to Patrons, processing Customer refunds or resolving Customer complaints in a timely manner could result in Patron or Customer dissatisfaction, loss of bookings and storefronts, chargebacks, negative publicity (including on social media), litigation, regulatory inquiries or penalties, and reputational harm, any of which could materially and adversely affect our business, results of operations, cash flows and financial condition.

55. *We obtained corporate credit ratings which may be subject to downgrade, and any adverse change in such ratings could increase our borrowing costs and adversely affect our business, financial condition, results of operations and prospects.

We obtained corporate credit ratings from Standard & Poor's ("S&P"), Moody's Investors Service ("Moody's") and Fitch Ratings ("Fitch"). As of the date of this Updated Draft Red Herring Prospectus-I, our ratings are as follows:

- (a) S&P: B / Positive
- (b) Moody's: B2 / Stable
- (c) Fitch: B / Stable

During the nine months ended December 31, 2025 and Fiscals 2025, 2024 and 2023, our Company experienced one rating downgrade, when Fitch downgraded our Company's credit rating from B to B- on June 3, 2022. However, our Company has also received rating upgrades during this period, with Moody's upgrading our Company's rating from B3 to B2 on December 4, 2024, and Fitch upgrading our Company's rating from B- to B on May 27, 2024. The ratings from S&P did not experience any downgrades during this period. On June 10, 2026, S&P revised the outlook on our Company to Positive from Stable and affirmed the long-term issuer credit rating at 'B'.

Any adverse revision of our credit ratings could adversely affect our credit profile, and impact our ability to refinance our borrowings in the future. Additionally, our creditors may accelerate the repayment of indebtedness or exercise other remedies available to them. Any of the foregoing could materially and adversely affect our business, financial condition, results of operations and cash flows.

56. *If we or our third-party providers fail to protect confidential information and/or experience security incidents, there may be damage to our brand and reputation, material financial penalties, and legal liability, along with a decline in use of our platform, which would materially adversely affect our business, results of operations, and financial condition.

We own and manage some technology systems but also rely on third parties for a range of technology systems and related products and services, including, among others, cloud computing services and other third parties for the provision of our support operations to Patrons and Customers. We face evolving cybersecurity risks that threaten the confidentiality, integrity, and availability of our and our third-party providers' technology systems and confidential information, including personal data and proprietary information. In November 2025, there had been an instance of a phishing activity identified by our Subsidiary, Belvilla AG, and appropriate action was taken to mitigate the associated risks including to secure its database, customer's personal data and information, relevant bookings and technology systems, and an intimation has also been made to the relevant Federal Data Protection and Information Commissioner. As we expand our technology use and collaborate with third parties, managing these threats becomes more challenging. These risks come from diverse threat actors, such as state-sponsored organizations, opportunistic hackers and hacktivists, as well as through diverse attack vectors, such as social engineering/phishing, malware (including ransomware), malfeasance by company insiders, suppliers or providers, and human or technological error, and as a result of malicious code embedded in open-source software, or misconfigurations, bugs, or other vulnerabilities in software and hardware that is integrated into our or our providers' technology systems, products or services.

We have, from time to time, found defects or errors in our technology systems that have resulted in, and may discover additional issues in the future, that could result in, platform unavailability or system disruption, or the inability of our systems to implement timely updates that are required for regulatory compliance. Additionally, any integration of AI or machine learning in our or any providers' operations, products or services poses new or unknown cybersecurity risks and challenges. Acquisitions of companies with vulnerable technology systems further expose us to cybersecurity risks.

Our Patrons' storage and use of data concerning their storefronts and our Customers is essential to their use of our platform, which stores, transmits and processes our Patrons' proprietary information and personal information relating to them and our Customers. Similarly, all of our apps collect, store, and process personal information about Customers. In addition to our own platform and apps, some of the third parties we work with, including service providers we use, and third-party apps or other services used by our Patrons and Customers, may receive information provided by us, our Patrons and our Customers through web or mobile applications integrated with OYO's. We encrypt certain data in transit and at rest, but advances in hacking and AI and machine learning may challenge our defenses. We and certain of our third-party service providers have experienced cyberattacks and other security incidents in the past, including distributed denial-of-service type attacks on our technology systems that have made portions of our platform slow or unavailable for a period of time. Cyberattacks are expected to accelerate on a global basis in both frequency and magnitude as threat actors are becoming increasingly sophisticated in using techniques-including AI-that circumvent controls, evade detection, and remove forensic evidence, which means that we and our third-party providers may be unable to detect, investigate, contain or recover from future attacks or incidents in a timely or effective manner. Despite significant investments in security, we cannot fully mitigate these risks, and such security incidents could disrupt operations and lead to negative publicity, reputational damage, loss of users, increased support costs, regulatory fines, legal claims (including class actions), and significant financial losses, especially under laws which impose statutory damages per breached record, all of which could materially impact our business, results of operations, and financial condition.

57. *The business and industry in which we participate are highly competitive, locally and globally, and we may be unable to compete successfully.

We operate in a highly competitive environment and face competition in attracting and retaining Patrons and Customers locally, as well as significant competition in attracting Customers globally.

We compete to attract, engage and retain Patrons on our platform in each of the markets in which we operate. Patrons have a range of options for listing their storefronts, both online and offline. We compete against local players for Patrons based on many factors, including the volume of bookings generated by our Customers, the ease of use of our platform (including onboarding, Patron support, and payments), the service fees we charge and our brand. Certain local players may be more familiar with local Customer requirements or preferences and have a competitive edge. If any of our local competitors expand and enter the international market to compete with us at a global level, our business, results of operations and financial conditions may be materially and adversely affected.

Our competitors include OTAs, search engines, listing and meta-search websites, hotel chains, property management companies, and online experience platforms. Many competitors have advantages such as greater brand recognition, larger marketing budgets, and more resources. They may offer a more comprehensive product experience and respond more effectively to market changes. They may develop technological advancements that allow them to offer better products and services at a lower price. Failure to offer or deploy new technologies as effectively as our competitors could adversely affect our business. Industry consolidation and emerging start-ups further intensify competition, potentially impacting our growth and financial condition. Further, we believe a considerable number of Customers in India, especially from Tier 2 and Tier 3 cities, still utilize and will continue to utilize the services of traditional travel agents or on-the-spot hotel bookings, which in turn leads to higher competition for Customer acquisition or retention. We compete for Customers based on many factors, including the volume of bookings generated by our Customers, the ease of use of our platform, the service fees we charge, insurance policies and our brand. If our competitors provide a more compelling value proposition to our Patrons, we may lose our competitive advantage.

Numerous companies offer homes for booking, often cross-listed on multiple platforms, which can make our pricing appear less competitive for a number of reasons, including differences in fee structure and policies. Some Patrons encourage direct bookings, bypassing our platform, which reduces our usage. Competitors with established consumer relationships may leverage these to enter the travel market, creating "super-apps" that integrate multiple services, potentially increasing our customer acquisition costs and affecting our competitive position.

We also face competition from popular search engines, which can influence search traffic and promote their own travel services, potentially disintermediating our platform. If major technology companies favor their own travel offerings or restrict our app distribution, it could impact our ability to engage with our Patrons and Customers, which could materially affect our business, results of operations, and financial condition.

As we continue to expand and face increased competition, both on a local and global scale, our Gross Profit and Gross Profit (% of Revenue from operations) may be subject to downward pressure as we may be required to lower our revenue share percentage within certain markets to remain competitive or as we add storefronts with lower margins to expand the breadth of our offerings.

If our market share in the Europe vacation homes business were to remain at current levels, growth in this segment may depend more on improvements in monetisation, occupancy levels and operational efficiencies across the existing storefront base rather than incremental share gains.

Prolonged stagnation in market share could limit our ability to increase our relative competitive position within the Europe vacation homes business and may moderate the pace of expansion in that geography. However, the overall impact on consolidated performance would depend on the performance of other geographies and business verticals in which we operate.

- 58. *We rely on mobile operating systems and application marketplaces to make our applications available to participants that utilize our platform, and if we do not effectively operate with or receive favorable placements within such application marketplaces and maintain favorable reviews, our usage or brand recognition could decline and our business, financial results, cash flows and results of operations could be adversely affected.

We depend on mobile operating systems, and their respective application marketplaces to make our applications available to all participants that utilize our platform. Any changes in such systems and policies of the app stores could adversely affect distribution, accessibility and availability of our mobile applications. If such mobile operating systems or application marketplaces limit or prohibit us from making our platform available to participants that utilize our platform, make changes that degrade the functionality of our applications, increase the cost of using our platform, mobile applications or website, impose terms of use unsatisfactory to us, or modify their search or ratings algorithms in ways that are detrimental to us, or if our competitors' placement in such mobile operating systems' application marketplace is more prominent than the placement of our applications, it could materially and adversely affect our ability to engage with Patrons and Customers who access our platform via mobile applications and result in a decline in our growth. While we have not experienced any instance that has had a material impact on our operations in the nine months ended December 31, 2025, and Fiscals 2025, 2024 and 2023, there can be no assurance that similar incidents will not occur in the future.

As new mobile devices, mobile platforms and mobile browsers are released, there is no guarantee that certain mobile devices will continue to support our platform or effectively roll out updates to our applications. Additionally, in order to deliver high-quality applications, we need to ensure that our platform is designed to work effectively with a range of mobile technologies, systems, networks, and standards. We may not be successful in developing or maintaining relationships with key participants in the mobile industry that enhance the experience of our Patrons and Customers. If Patrons or Customers that utilize our platform encounter any difficulty accessing or using our applications on their mobile devices or if we are unable to adapt to changes in popular mobile operating systems, we expect that the growth and engagement of our Patrons and Customers would be adversely affected.

- 59. *Our use of artificial intelligence and machine learning gives rise to legal, business, and operational risks, which may result in diminished performance, regulatory scrutiny, social impacts, reputational harm, and liability arising from the use of this technology.

We have begun incorporating the use of artificial intelligence tools and technologies into our business operations, including in relation to features such as review categorization, finding unique selling propositions for holiday homes, ranking of hotels, and showing personalized hotels/home search to users. The use of artificial intelligence in our business presents risks and challenges, including that algorithms may be flawed, datasets may be insufficient, erroneous, stale, or contain biased information, or content chosen for display to Customers by artificial intelligence systems may be discriminatory, offensive, illegal, or otherwise harmful. In addition, we may face operational risks with integrating artificial intelligence tools and technologies into our platform. These deficiencies and other failures of artificial intelligence systems could subject us to competitive harm, regulatory action, legal liability, brand or reputational harm. In addition, artificial intelligence is complex and rapidly evolving, and there is no guarantee that our artificial intelligence focused initiatives will be competitive or attract more Customers to our platform.

60. *A significant portion of our bookings, revenue and indebtedness are denominated in foreign currencies, and our financial results are exposed to changes in foreign exchange rates.

A significant portion of our business is denominated and transacted in foreign currencies, which subjects us to foreign exchange risk. We offer integrated payments to our Patrons and Customers in multiple currencies. Fluctuations in foreign currency exchange rates against the Indian Rupee could adversely affect our reported revenues and results of operations if the value of Indian Rupee depreciates with respect to these currencies. The effect of exchange rate on cash and cash equivalents amounting to ₹234.10 million, ₹85.49 million, ₹17.91 million and ₹377.87 million, for the nine months period ended December 31, 2025, and Fiscals 2025, 2024 and 2023, respectively, due to fluctuations in exchange rates. We have not entered into any hedging arrangements to help mitigate the effects of fluctuations in exchange rates to the extent we are unable to match any foreign exchange expenses with earnings.

We are also exposed to foreign currency risk with respect to our indebtedness, which is substantially denominated in USD and differs from the currencies in which a substantial portion of our revenues are denominated. In December 2024, our Subsidiaries, Oravel Stays Singapore Pte. Ltd, OYO Hotels Inc. and OYO Hospitality Netherlands B.V., together borrowed U.S.$830.00 million pursuant to a TLB facility in order to repay their existing debt, among other purposes. For details of TLB facility, see “Objects of the Issue”, and “Financial Indebtedness” on pages 293 and 947, respectively. Certain of our assets, principally cash balances held on behalf of our Patrons and Customers (which are denominated in currencies other than the functional currency of our subsidiaries) and our net investments in foreign subsidiaries, and our financial results are affected by the re-measurement and translation of these non-Indian rupee currencies into Indian rupees, which is reflected in the effect of exchange rate changes on cash and cash equivalents on the consolidated statements of cash flows.

61. *We are subject to government inquiries, investigations and proceedings which have materially and adversely affected and could materially and adversely affect our business, results of operations and financial condition.

We have been and may continue to be subject to various government inquiries, investigations and proceedings related to legal and regulatory requirements such as compliance with laws related to short-term rentals and tax, consumer protection, pricing, advertising, discrimination, data protection, data sharing, payment processing, privacy and competition. In many cases, these inquiries, investigations, and proceedings can be complex, time consuming and costly to investigate and can require significant company and management attention. For example, our business model in the U.S. was challenged by certain state authorities in Fiscal 2021. Our U.S. operations are structured under a management, consulting and revenue management agreement (“MCRMA”), under which we provide partner properties with services such as revenue management, digital marketing, operational guidance and access to our proprietary technology platform. We do not own, operate, or exercise day-to-day control over these properties. Despite this contractual structure and the intention to maintain an arm’s-length service provider relationship, certain state regulators in the U.S. alleged that this model constituted an unregistered franchise, due to factors such as the use of our brand, receipt of fees and provision of marketing or operational support.

In light of our business and operations in India, we may also be subjected to inquiries, investigations and proceedings initiated by Indian statutory and regulatory authorities. For further details, see “Outstanding Litigation and Material Developments – Litigation involving our Subsidiaries – Actions and proceedings initiated by statutory/regulatory authorities against our Subsidiaries” on page 1005.

For certain matters, we are implementing recommended changes to our contracts, products, operations and compliance practices, including enabling tax collection, tax reporting and removal of noncompliant listings. We are unable to predict the outcomes and implications of such inquiries, investigations and proceedings on our business, and such inquiries, investigations and proceedings could result in large fines, penalties, delays and a diversion of management resources and require changes to our products and operations, and materially and adversely affect our brand, reputation, business, results of operations and financial condition. In some instances, applicable laws and regulations do not yet exist or are being adapted and implemented to address certain aspects of our business, and such adoption or change in their interpretation could further alter or impact our business and subject us to future government inquiries, investigations, and proceedings. See “– 14. Our business and activities may be regulated by evolving competition laws of various jurisdictions. We are currently involved in a matter before the Competition Commission of India and could be subject to penalties, if any such penalties are awarded.” on page 64.

Adverse results in any regulatory inquiry or claims may include awards of potentially significant monetary damages, including statutory damages for certain causes of action in certain jurisdictions, penalties, fines, injunctive relief, royalty or licensing agreements, or orders preventing us from offering certain services. Adverse results or settlements may result in changes in our business practices in significant ways, increase operating and compliance costs or result in a loss of revenue. Our insurance may not cover all potential claims to which we are exposed and may not be adequate to indemnify us for all liability that may be imposed. As we continue to grow, regulatory inquiries and other claims will continue to consume significant company resources and adverse results in future matters could materially and adversely affect our business, results of operations and financial condition.

62. *If we fail to comply with laws relating to privacy and data protection, we may be subject to significant liability, negative publicity, an erosion of trust and increased regulation, which could materially and adversely affect our business, results of operations and financial condition.

Data privacy, data security and AI, rules, and regulations are complex and rapidly evolving and we could be materially adversely affected by new legal requirements or changes to existing requirements including their interpretations and enforcement practices. Compliance with such laws may require changes to our data processing practices, potentially increasing compliance costs or adversely affecting our business. We process personal data, such as names, dates of birth, email addresses, nationality, location information, phone numbers, and identity verification information (for example, government issued identification or passport), as well as credit card, bank account or other financial information, from and about Patrons and Customers, as well as our employees, job applicants, contractors and representatives of our third-party vendors, and other companies we do business with. We and our vendors must comply with various data privacy and security laws, rules, regulations, industry standards and other requirements, including those that generally require that we implement reasonable measures to keep such information secure and otherwise restrict the ways in which such information can be collected and used. These requirements, and their application, interpretation, and amendment are constantly evolving.

As part of our operations, we are required to comply with the Information Technology Act, 2000 and the rules thereof, which provides for civil and criminal liability. Further, the Digital Personal Data Protection Act, 2023, read with Digital Personal Data Protection Rules, 2025, which have come into effect in November 2025, require organizations to protect the privacy of their customers, prohibit unauthorized disclosure of personal information, and stipulate a monetary penalty in case of breach of the provisions of the DPDP Act. The mandatory appointment of a Data Protection Officer under the DPDP Act is currently not applicable to our Company since we are not classified as a significant data fiduciary as per Section 10 (2) of the DPDP Act. However, as a global organizational initiative, we have appointed Shashank Jain and Anuj Lakhota as Data Protection Officer to oversee internal data security, monitoring, due diligence, and overall compliance efforts. In the European Union and the UK, we are subject to the European Union General Data Protection Regulation (the “EU GDPR”) and to the UK General Data Protection Regulation and Data Protection Act 2018 (the “UK GDPR”), respectively (the EU GDPR and UK GDPR together referred to as the “GDPR”), both of which have resulted, and will continue to result, in significantly greater compliance burdens and costs for companies like ours. The GDPR comprehensively regulates our use of personal data, including cross-border transfers of personal data out of Europe. Many geographies in which we operate, including United States, Europe, United Kingdom, India, Southeast Asia and Middle East have passed or are in the process of passing comparable or other robust data privacy and security legislation or regulation, which may lead to additional costs and increase our overall risk exposure. In the United States, there are numerous federal and state data privacy and security laws, rules, and regulations governing the collection, maintenance, disclosure and processing of personal data, including federal and state data privacy laws, data breach notification laws and electronic communications laws. For example, the Federal Trade Commission (“FTC”) and state regulators enforce a variety of data privacy issues. Additionally, the GLBA and its implementing regulations, restrict and impose certain requirements on the processing of personal data, including notice to individuals of privacy practices and requirements for the safeguarding and proper destruction of personal data. The U.S. government, including Congress, the FTC, the CFPB and the Department of Commerce, has announced that it is reviewing the need for greater regulation for the collection of information concerning personal data processing practices and consumer behavior on the Internet, including regulation aimed at restricting certain targeted advertising practices. In addition, numerous states have enacted or are in the process of enacting state level data privacy laws and regulations governing the processing of state residents' personal data that have and may continue to require us to modify our data processing practices and policies and incur related costs and expenses. For further details on our data privacy and compliance requirements in India, see “Key Regulations and Policies” and “Government and other Approvals” on pages 993 and 1022.

Various other governments and consumer agencies around the world have also called for new regulation and changes in industry practices for protecting personal information collected and maintained electronically. Together, these existing and proposed laws add additional complexity, variation in requirements, restrictions and potential legal risk, require additional investment in resources to compliance programs and cybersecurity, which could impact strategies, and could result in increased compliance costs and/or changes in business practices and policies. Compliance with numerous and often contradictory requirements of different jurisdictions is particularly difficult for an online business such as ours, which collects personal information from Patrons, Customers and other individuals in multiple jurisdictions. If any jurisdiction in which we operate adopts new laws or changes its interpretation of its laws, rules, or regulations relating to data residency or localization such that we are unable to comply in a timely manner or at all, we could risk losing our rights to operate in such jurisdictions. As in many cases these laws are relatively new and the interpretation and application of these laws is uncertain. There may be litigation, claims and enforcement relating to data privacy, and the processing of personal data may involve new interpretations of privacy laws. For example, there has been a noticeable increase in class actions in the United States where plaintiffs have utilized a variety of laws, including state wiretapping laws, in relation to the use of tracking technologies, such as cookies and pixels. In Fiscal 2025, our Subsidiaries in USA, namely G6 Hospitality, LLC and OYO Hotels Inc. were involved in two litigations against them, wherein one case the plaintiffs alleged the breach of California Invasion of Privacy Act, wherein the plaintiffs have alleged that Subsidiary has utilized embedded tracking technologies from a third-party service provider, which allegedly collected and transmitted user data without adequate notice or consent, and in other case, plaintiff alleged that our Subsidiary's website had embedded meta pixels, which transmitted plaintiff's data to a third-party company without plaintiff's information. Both cases were settled and resolved.

Furthermore, to improve the trust and safety on our platform, we conduct certain verification procedures aimed at our Patrons, Customers and storefront listings in certain jurisdictions. Such verification procedures may include utilizing public information on the Internet, accessing public databases such as court records or utilizing third-party vendors/providers to analyze Patron and Customer data. These types of activities may expose us to the risk of regulatory enforcement from privacy regulators and civil litigation. In addition, our use of artificial intelligence and machine learning in implementing automation and enhancing our Patron and Customer experience has come under increased regulatory scrutiny and new laws, guidance and/or decisions in this area may require us to make changes to our operations, which may result in any increase to operating costs and/or hinder our ability to improve our services.

When we are required to disclose personal data pursuant to demands from government agencies, including tax authorities, regulators, law enforcement agencies and intelligence agencies, our Patrons, Customers and privacy regulators could perceive such disclosure as a failure by us to comply with privacy and data protection policies, notices, and laws, which could result in proceedings or actions against us in the same or other jurisdictions. Conversely, if we do not provide the requested information to government agencies due to a disagreement on the interpretation of the law, we are likely to face enforcement action from such government, engage in litigation, face increased regulatory scrutiny, and experience an adverse impact on our relationship with governments or our ability to offer our services within certain jurisdictions. Any of the foregoing could materially and adversely affect our brand, reputation, business, results of operations and financial condition.

Any failure or perceived failure by us and/or our vendors or third-party providers to comply with data privacy and data security laws, rules, or regulations could expose us to material penalties, significant legal liability, changes in how we operate or offer our products, and interruptions or cessation of our ability to operate in key geographies, any of which could materially adversely affect our business, results of operations, and financial condition. In addition, any failure or perceived failure to comply with consumer protection, marketing, data privacy or data security laws, rules, and regulations; policies; industry standards; or enforcement notices and/or assessment notices (for a compulsory audit) could lead to legal actions by individuals, consumer rights groups, government agencies, or others. We may also face civil claims including representative actions and other class action type litigation (where individuals have suffered harm), potentially amounting to significant compensation, injunctive relief, or damages liabilities, as well as associated costs, and diversion of internal resources or other regulatory orders adversely impacting the ways our business can use personal data. These proceedings could be costly to litigate, whether or not they have merit, and result in negative publicity and erode trust, potentially requiring us to make costly changes to our business practices. If these events occur, they could materially and adversely impact our business operations, financial condition, and overall results.

Our Company is also prone to frivolous litigations alleging breach of data privacy and claiming compensation. While we have not experienced any material litigation of this nature to date, any such future claim could materially and adversely affect our business, results of operations, and financial condition.

63. *We rely on third-party payment service providers to process payments made by Customers and payments made to Patrons on our platform. If these third-party payment service providers become unavailable or we are subject to increased fees, our business, results of operations and financial condition could be materially and adversely affected.

We rely on a number of third-party payment service providers, including payment card networks, banks, payment processors and payment gateways to link us to payment card and bank clearing networks to process a significant volume of payments made by our Customers and to remit payments to Patrons on our platform. We have agreements with these providers, some of whom are the sole providers of their particular service. If these companies become unwilling or unable to provide these services to us on acceptable terms or at all, or enter into exclusive agreements with our competitors, our business may be disrupted, we would need to find an alternate payment service provider, and we may not be able to secure similar terms or replace such payment service provider in an acceptable time frame. If we are forced to migrate to other third-party payment service providers for any reason, the transition would require significant time and management resources, and may not be as effective, efficient, or well-received by our Patrons and Customers.

In March 2020, the RBI prohibited authorized Payment Aggregators (“PAs”) or the merchants onboarded by them from storing customer card credentials within their database or server (except for the limited purpose of transaction tracking in accordance with applicable standards). Non-bank PAs have been given time until September 30, 2022 to enable payment system providers and participants to put in place workable solutions, such as tokenization. Further, with effect from October 1, 2022, no entity in the card transaction or payment chain, other than the card issuers or card networks, is permitted to store the actual card data of customers. Any such data stored previously is required to be purged. For transaction tracking or reconciliation purposes, entities can store limited data such as the last four digits of a card number and a card issuer’s name, in compliance with applicable standards. Complete and ongoing compliance by all entities involved would be the responsibility of the card networks. The Reserve Bank of India’s restrictions on storage of card data applied to Indian customers. We have completed migration of stored cards to tokenization and purged legacy card credentials, and to date the impact on our operations has been minimal. However, we remain exposed to risks arising from (i) compliance by third-party payment partners and (ii) potential changes in regulation or supervisory guidance, either of which could disrupt payment flows, increase costs or require further system changes.

In addition, the software and services from these providers may fail to meet our expectations, contain errors or vulnerabilities, be compromised, or experience outages, all of which could impact our ability to process payments, make timely payments to Patrons or Customers, or comply with regulatory requirements, which could deter users and harm our reputation, possibly leading to regulatory scrutiny, investigations, or enforcement action. Agreements with providers may even allow them to hold our cash as a reserve under certain conditions, such as adverse business changes, which could materially affect our business, results of operations, and financial condition.

For certain payment methods, including credit and debit cards, we pay interchange and other fees, and such fees result in significant costs. Payment card networks may impose special fees or assessments on any transaction that accesses their network. Our payment card processors may pass any increases in interchange fees, assessments or special fees on to us. Such interchange and other fees may increase over time and raise our operating costs and lower profitability. Credit card transactions result in higher fees to us than transactions made through debit cards. Any material increase in interchange fees, including as a result of changes in interchange fee limitations imposed by law in some geographies, or other network fees or assessments, or a shift from payment with debit cards to credit cards among our Customers could increase our operating costs and materially adversely affect our business, results of operations, and financial condition.

Additionally, inadequate investment in our payment infrastructure could hinder functionality and competitiveness, affecting usage. While we did not experience any material payment system downtime during the nine months ended December 31, 2025, and Fiscals 2025, 2024 and 2023, there can be no assurance that we will not experience the same in the future. Further, expanding our payment services into additional geographies or offering new methods may introduce additional regulations and fraud risks, which would increase operating expenses.

64. *Inadequate property management could reduce the attractiveness of our storefronts and as a result, adversely affect our business, financial condition, results of operations and cash flows.

Our business depends on the proper and timely management of our storefronts, which includes the day-to-day operations of each storefront and on our ability to ensure a high quality of upkeep and maintenance across our storefronts, as well as providing up-to-date facilities and services that meet contemporary standards and Customer expectations. Such service providers have significant decision-making authority with respect to the management of these storefronts. Accordingly, our ability to direct and control how certain of our storefronts are managed on a day-to-day basis may be limited because other parties will be engaged to perform this function. In addition, for the maintenance of the common areas of our properties (including maintenance of common infrastructure) or facility management (including security, repairs and maintenance), we may rely on third-party service providers over whom we have limited or no control. These service providers may further sub-contract some of the tasks assigned to them. Ineffective or inefficient management, or failure to upgrade and provide modern facilities and services at our storefronts, could adversely affect the attractiveness of our storefronts and as a result, adversely affect our business, financial condition, results of operations and cash flows.

If we do not select, manage and supervise appropriate third parties to provide these services, our reputation and financial results may suffer. Despite our efforts to implement and enforce strong policies and practices regarding service providers, we may not successfully detect and prevent fraud, misconduct, incompetence or theft by our third-party operators. In addition, any removal or termination of third-party operators would require us to seek new operators, which would create delays and adversely affect our operations. Poor performance by such third-party operators will reflect poorly on us and could significantly damage our reputation. In the past, for instance, a third-party operator in Jaipur, engaged pursuant to a management services agreement and an operations agreement failed to comply with contractual obligations, resulting in significant operational disruption at the property. Following termination of the agreement, the operator continued to obstruct access and control of the premises, leading to our Subsidiary, OHHPL, filing a police complaint and seeking urgent relief before the court under Section 9 of the Arbitration and Conciliation Act, 1996. The court granted interim protection by restraining the operator from interfering with property operations or obstructing OHHPL's access, and subsequently made the protection absolute until modified by the arbitrator. In the event of fraud or misconduct by a third party, we could also be exposed to material liability and be held responsible for damages, fines or penalties, and our reputation may suffer.

65. *Our results of operations are subject to pronounced seasonality and booking-to-revenue timing differences, which may cause significant quarterly fluctuations and could adversely affect our business, results of operations, cash flows and financial condition.

In general, our business fluctuates with the seasons, reflecting the underlying seasonal trends of our Patrons over the course of a calendar year. The seasonality for our business varies by segment and geography, as described in “Management’s Discussion and Analysis of Financial Condition and Results of Operations – Seasonality” on page 985. Our business is subject to seasonal fluctuations in demand, with business at some storefronts subject to greater fluctuations depending on location. Because revenue from our sales of accommodation services is recognized at the time of check-in rather than at the time of booking, revenue typically lags bookings by a period of several weeks or months and is affected by cancellations. However, in our European homes business, we recognize revenue at the time of booking, and therefore, the booking window also has a significant impact on the degree of seasonal fluctuations in our reported revenue. Such seasonality can be expected to cause fluctuations in our revenue, profit margins and earnings. In addition, we may not accurately forecast our results of operations due to timing differences between when bookings are made and revenue recognition, which occurs at check-in. For example, the effect of significant downturns in bookings in a particular quarter may not be fully reflected in our financial results until future periods due to this timing difference. Our expense levels are based on revenue estimates that may be inaccurate, and fixed expenses may lead to greater-than-expected losses if revenue falls short. Incorrect assumptions or failure to address risks could materially affect our business, results of operations, and financial condition.

The revenue is recognized in accordance with Ind AS 115. If revenue across segments were to be recognised uniformly at check-in, the revenue currently recognised at booking in our European homes business would be deferred until check-in, resulting in higher contract liabilities (unearned revenue) and potential short-term volatility linked to booking lead times and seasonality. As a result, period-to-period revenue growth, margins and working capital metrics may vary due to the shift in recognition timing.

66. We have lease liabilities arising from Company-serviced storefronts taken on lease. Any inability to generate expected returns from such leased arrangements or manage lease-related obligations may adversely affect our business, financial condition, cash flows and results of operations.

We operate a hospitality platform and our business is primarily asset-light. However, we enter into certain arrangements, including Company-serviced storefront arrangements in the hotel segment and leases for certain office and co-working premises, which may meet the criteria for recognition as leases under Ind AS 116 (with intent to continue for the long term).

In addition, our Registered Office, Corporate Office and other properties are located on leased land. These lease arrangements result in lease liabilities recognised under Ind AS 116 (Leases). For further details on our Company-serviced storefronts, see “– 38. Our company serviced storefronts are located on leased or licensed land. If we are unable to comply with the terms of the lease agreements, renew such agreements or enter into new lease agreements on favorable terms, or at all, our business, results of operations and financial condition and cash flows may be adversely affected.” on page 82. For further details on our leased office premises, see “– 22. Our properties, including the land on which our Registered Office and our Corporate Office are located, are leased. We may be unable to renew our existing office leases or secure new office leases.” on page 71.

The table below sets forth the details of our lease liabilities and total borrowings, along with the lease liabilities as a percentage of total borrowings, as at the dates indicated:

The following table sets forth details of our lease liabilities as at the dates indicated:

| Particulars                         | As at December 31, 2025                        | As at March 31, 2025 |

| Lease liabilities (A+B)      | 27,835.78                               | 27,006.78     |

Our ability to pay our lease obligations is dependent upon our ability to manage our business operations and generate sufficient cash flows from operations. While there have been no instances in the nine months ended December 31, 2025, and Fiscals 2025, 2024 and 2023, wherein our lease deeds or license agreements for properties operated by us, have been terminated due to non-compliance with the terms of the lease deeds or license agreements or any other reasons, there can be no assurance that this will not occur in the future.

If we are unable to generate sufficient revenue from our operations to meet our lease obligations, we may face difficulty in meeting our contractual obligations to lessors and may need to seek additional financing or renegotiate lease terms. Any failure to meet our lease obligations could result in the termination of lease agreements, loss of access to leased properties, and may adversely affect our business, results of operations, cash flows and financial condition.

67. *Uncertainty in the application of taxes to our Patrons, Customers or platform could increase our tax liabilities and may discourage Patrons and Customers from using our platform.

We face complex and evolving tax obligations across various jurisdictions, which could significantly impact our business. We have received communications from many governments regarding the application of tax laws or regulations to our business or demanding data about our Patrons and Customers to aid in threatened or actual enforcement actions against our Patrons and Customers. In many jurisdictions where applicable, we have agreed (without an explicit agreement but due to change in tax laws) to collect and remit lodging taxes, often known as transient or occupancy taxes, to local governments directly on behalf of our Patrons. In other jurisdictions, Patrons are responsible for collecting and remitting lodging taxes to their local government. We have been subject to complaints by, referred to and are involved in proceedings or investigations brought by, certain government entities for alleged responsibility for indirect taxes, income withholding taxes of Patrons, and other duties relating to short-term occupancy rentals and other aspects of our business. In some jurisdictions, we are in the process of resolving alleged past-due taxes through legal recourse, and in other jurisdictions, the regulators have held us liable for such past and future taxes. Further, in India, the tax authorities have engaged with the Company with respect to goods and service tax related compliances and the Company has shared the relevant information with the tax authorities for their scrutiny. Such review may lead to scrutiny of Patrons with respect to their tax compliances and the Company may be required to provide additional information and/or clarifications to the tax authorities in relation to such matters. While the Company has not received any demand or show cause notices from the tax authorities in the nine months ended December 31, 2025, and the Fiscals 2025, 2024 and 2023 in relation to application of taxes to our Patrons, Customers or platform as of the date of this Updated Draft Red Herring Prospectus-I, any adverse decision arising from proceedings initiated by the tax authorities pursuant to their scrutiny may result in liabilities or penalties that are currently unknown and cannot be quantified.

The application of indirect taxes, such as lodging taxes, hotel, sales and use tax, privilege taxes, excise taxes, VAT, goods and services tax, harmonized sales taxes, business tax, and gross receipts taxes to e-commerce activities such as ours and to our Patrons or Customers is a complex and evolving issue. Laws and regulations relating to taxes as applied to our platform, and to our Patrons and Customers, vary greatly among jurisdictions, and it is difficult or impossible to predict how such laws and regulations will be applied. We could therefore be subject to additional taxes, interest, or penalties, and our business, results of operations and financial condition could be materially and adversely affected by additional taxes of this nature or by additional taxes or penalties resulting from any failure to comply with reporting, collection, and payment obligations. New or revised taxes would likely increase the price paid by Customers and the cost of doing business for our Patrons, and could discourage Patrons and Customers from using our platform. This uncertainty around the application of taxes and the impact of those taxes on the actual or perceived value of our platform may also cause Customers to use OTAs, hotels, or other traditional travel services. Any of these events could materially and adversely affect our brand, reputation, business, results of operations, and financial condition.

We devote significant resources, including management time, to the application and interpretation of laws and working with various jurisdictions to clarify whether taxes are applicable and the amount of taxes that apply. Rapid regulatory changes and lack of uniformity complicate compliance, risking errors and enforcement actions. As our business operations expand or change, the application of indirect taxes to our business and to our Patrons and Customers will further change and evolve, and could further increase our liability for taxes, discourage Patrons and Customers from using our platform, and may materially and adversely affect our business, results of operations and financial condition.

68. *We are subject to complex, evolving and sometimes inconsistent and ambiguous laws and regulations that may adversely impact our operations and discourage Patrons and Customers from using our platform.

As of the date of this Updated Draft Red Herring Prospectus-I, our storefronts are located in more than 35 countries worldwide, and our Patrons and Customers are able to access our website and mobile application globally. As a result, business is subject to a number of different national and local laws and regulations in the jurisdictions in which we operate, which is burdensome, imposes added costs, increases potential liability and makes it difficult to realize business efficiencies and economies of scale. We incur significant operational costs to comply with requirements of jurisdictions and cities that have disparate requirements around tax registration, tax collection, tax reporting, Patron and Customer registration, limits on lengths of stays, and other regulations, each of which require us to dedicate significant resources to provide the infrastructure and tools needed on our platform for our Patrons to meet these legal requirements and for us to fulfil any obligations we may have. The complexity of our platform and changes required to comply with the large number of disparate requirements can lead to compliance gaps if our internal resources cannot keep up with the pace of regulatory change and new requirements imposed on our platform, or if our platform does not work as intended.

The application of existing laws and regulations to our business and platform can be unclear and may be difficult for Patrons, Customers and us to understand and apply, and such laws and regulations are subject to change as governments or government agencies seek to apply legacy systems of laws or adopt new laws to new online business models in the travel and accommodations industries, including ours. This has caused some of our Patrons and Customers to leave or choose not to use our platform, reduced the supply and demand for our platform and services, increased our costs of compliance with such laws and regulations and increased the threat of litigation or enforcement actions related to our platform, all of which could materially and adversely affect our business, results of operations and financial condition. In addition to laws and regulations directly applicable to the short-term rental business as discussed in “40. Laws that affect the hospitality and short-term rental business have limited, and may continue to limit, the ability or willingness of Patrons to list their storefronts on our platform and expose our Patrons or us to significant penalties, which have had and could continue to have a material adverse effect on our business, results of operations, cash flows and financial condition” on page 84, we are subject to laws and regulations governing our business practices, including those relating to taxation, privacy, data protection, e-commerce, pricing, content, advertising, discrimination, consumer protection, protection of minors, copyrights, distribution, messaging, mobile communications, electronic device certification, electronic contracts, communications, Internet access, competition and unfair commercial practices. We are also subject to laws and regulations governing the provision of online payment services, the design and operation of our platform, and the operations, characteristics and quality of our platform and services.

While we require our Patrons to comply with their own independent legal obligations under our terms of service and our contracts with them, we have limited means of enforcing or ensuring the compliance of our Patrons with all applicable legal requirements. On some occasions, governments try to hold us responsible for laws that apply to our Patrons and/or our Customers. Whether applicable to us, our Patrons and/or our Customers, the related consequences arising out of enforcement actions and investigations related to such laws and regulations, including penalties for violations of and costs to maintain compliance with such laws and regulations, have had and could continue to have a material adverse effect on our reputation, business, results of operations and financial condition.

Additionally, with effect from November 21, 2025, the GoI has introduced: (a) the Code on Wages, 2019; (b) the Code on Social Security, 2020; (c) the Occupational Safety, Health and Working Conditions Code, 2020; and (d) the Industrial Relations Code, 2020 which consolidate, subsume and replace numerous existing central labor legislations. Any new or existing laws and regulations applicable to existing or future business areas, including amendments to or repeal of existing laws and regulations, or new interpretations, applications or enforcement of existing laws and regulations, could expose us to substantial liability, including significant expenses necessary to comply with such laws and regulations, and materially and adversely impact bookings on our platform, thereby materially and adversely affecting our business, results of operations and financial condition.

Also see “86. Changing laws, rules and regulations and legal uncertainties, adverse application or interpretation of corporate and tax laws, may adversely affect our business, prospects and results of operations.” on page 117.

69. We are susceptible to risks relating to compliance with various labor, workplace and related laws.

We are subject to stringent labor laws and regulations including those governing detailed procedures for the establishment of unions, dispute resolution and employee removal and legislation that imposes certain financial obligations on employers upon retrenchment. We are also subject to laws and regulations governing relationships with employees in such areas as minimum wage and maximum working hours, overtime, working conditions, hiring and termination of employees, contract labor and work permits, and consequently, may be party to statutory or regulatory proceedings in this respect. For instance, the Regional Provident Fund Commissioner – I, Gurugram (East), Employees' Provident Fund Organization had issued a notice dated January 14, 2020 alleging that our Company did not deposit provident fund dues on special allowances paid to the employees of our Company. Our Company responded to the notice clarifying that provident fund dues for the applicable period were duly deposited by our Company. For more details, see “Outstanding Litigation and Material Developments – Actions and proceedings initiated by statutory/regulatory authorities against our Company” on page 996. While the matter is currently pending, we cannot assure you that it will be decided in our favor, or that we will not be exposed to similar proceedings in the future.

Additionally, with effect from November 21, 2025, the GoI has introduced: (a) the Code on Wages, 2019; (b) the Code on Social Security, 2020; (c) the Occupational Safety, Health and Working Conditions Code, 2020; and (d) the Industrial Relations Code, 2020 which consolidate, subsume and replace numerous existing central labor legislations.

For certain operations and processes, our Material Subsidiary, OHHPL or our independent contractors engage contract labor. Engagement of such labor is regulated by applicable labor laws and we could be held responsible for payments to such contract labor in the event of any default by the independent contractor engaged by us in making payment of wages or providing benefits such as payment of, or contribution to, provident fund and any other social security related payments. Any adverse decision by a regulatory body or court requiring us to employ such contract labor may adversely affect our business and operating margins.

Our cross-border footprint exposes us to foreign labor, employment and workplace safety laws, including collective bargaining and works council processes, acquired-rights/automatic transfer rules on business transfers, stringent termination protections, and differing social security, payroll and immigration requirements. Non-compliance or adverse changes in these regimes, including legacy liabilities in acquired businesses, could limit operational flexibility, delay integrations, increase personnel costs and result in investigations, penalties or litigation.

Further, work stoppages due to strikes or other events could result in slowdowns or closures of our operations which may adversely affect our ability to perform our business operations. While we have not experienced any strikes or workforce unrest in the nine months ended December 31, 2025, and the past three Fiscal Years, we cannot assure you that we will not experience work disruptions in the future due to industrial unrest, disputes or other problems with our workforce. Furthermore, amendments to labor laws could adversely affect our business, operating costs and margins. In the event the welfare requirements under labor laws and regulations applicable to us change in a manner that requires us to increase payment of employee benefits or allow staff of our Patrons to unionize, we cannot assure you that we will be able to recover such increased labor and compliance costs from our Patrons, which may adversely affect our business, operations, cash flows and results of operations.

In connection with the centralisation of certain corporate functions relating to our G6 Hospitality business to India, we reduced our U.S. headcount from 137 employees as at March 31, 2025 to 84 employees as at December 31, 2025. Whilst we believe that the reduction in workforce was carried out in compliance with applicable laws and that we have recognised and discharged all applicable severance and related employee benefit obligations arising from the workforce reduction (with severance costs of ₹1,189.37 million recognised in our financial statements pursuant to the acquisition and subsequent centralisation, as disclosed in “G6 Financial Statements – Note 20. Employee benefits expense” on page 937), we cannot assure you that routine employment-related claims will not arise in the ordinary course of business. As of the date of this Updated Draft Red Herring Prospectus-I, no material U.S. labour-related litigation has arisen in connection with the said headcount reduction. Additionally, whilst we have implemented a structured transition plan to centralise the relevant functions to India, including detailed knowledge transfer processes, staggered role migration and enhanced oversight mechanisms to minimise disruption, the transition carries risks such as temporary operational inefficiencies, delays in service delivery or increased oversight requirements. Although we have instituted internal controls and monitoring systems to mitigate such risks and, as of the date of this Updated Draft Red Herring Prospectus-I, the centralisation has not resulted in any material operational disruptions, we cannot assure you that such risks will not materialise in the future or that any employment-related claims or operational disruptions arising from the workforce reduction and centralisation will not have a material adverse effect on our business, financial condition, results of operations and prospects.

70. *We are subject to economic and trade sanctions laws that limit the scope of our offerings. Additionally, failure to comply with applicable economic and trade sanctions laws could subject us to liability and negatively affect our business, results of operations and financial condition.

We are required to comply with economic and trade sanctions administered by governments where we operate. For example, the U.S., the UK, and other foreign regulatory authorities continue to enforce economic and trade regulations and anti-corruption laws, across industries. The U.S. imposes trade sanctions relating to transactions with designated foreign countries and territories, including Cuba, Iran, North Korea, the non-government controlled areas of Donetsk, Luhansk, Kherson and Zaporizhzhia regions of Ukraine, and the Crimea region of Ukraine, as well as specifically targeted individuals and entities that are identified on U.S. and other blacklists, and those owned by them or those acting on their behalf. These economic and trade sanctions prohibit or restrict transactions to or from or dealings with certain specified countries, regions, their governments and, in certain circumstances, their nationals, and with individuals and entities that are specially-designated, such as individuals and entities included on OFAC's List of Specially Designated Nationals ("SDN List"), subject to EU/UK asset freezes, or other sanctions measures. Any future economic and trade sanctions imposed in jurisdictions where we have significant business could materially and adversely impact our business, results of operations and financial condition. Our ability to track and verify transactions and otherwise to comply with these regulations require a high level of internal controls. There is a risk that, despite the internal controls that we have in place, we have engaged or may engage in the future in dealings with persons sanctioned under applicable sanctions laws. Any non-compliance with economic and trade sanctions laws and regulations or related investigations could result in claims or actions against us and materially and adversely affect our business, results of operations and financial condition. As our business continues to grow and regulations change, we may be required to make additional investments in our internal controls or modify our business.

71. *We have operations in countries that have strict anti-corruption laws, and any violation of such anti-corruption laws could subject us to penalties and other adverse consequences.

We are subject to anti-corruption, anti-bribery, anti-money laundering and other international laws and regulations that prohibit improper payments or offers of payments to governments and their officials and political parties for the purpose of obtaining or retaining business. The U.S. Foreign Corrupt Practices Act ("FCPA"), the UK Bribery Act ("Bribery Act") and other laws that prohibit improper payments or offers of improper payments to foreign governments and their officials, political parties, state-owned or controlled enterprises, and/or private entities and individuals for the purpose of obtaining or retaining business or securing an improper advantage and require the maintenance of internal controls to prevent such payments.

Our activities, including those in markets that have strict anti-corruption laws, create the risk of unauthorized payments or offers of payments by any of our directors, officers, employees, contractors, Patrons, agents, service providers or users that could be in violation of various laws, including the FCPA, the Bribery Act and other anti-bribery laws in such countries. While we have in place systems and processes to prevent possible breach of applicable laws and regulations, including those relating to anti-bribery and corruption and include trainings, risk assessments and monitoring activities, there can be no assurance that our internal policies and procedures to discourage, prevent or detect all inappropriate and corrupt practices by such parties will prove effective, and we cannot ensure that all such parties, including those that may be based in or from countries where practices that violate U.S. or other laws may be customary, will take actions in violation of our policies, for which we may be ultimately responsible. In certain circumstances, we may be held liable for actions taken by such persons even though they are not always subject to our control. Additional compliance requirements may require us to revise or expand our compliance programs, including the procedures we use to monitor international and domestic transactions. Failure to comply with any of these laws and regulations may result in extensive internal or external investigations as well as significant financial penalties and reputational harm, which could

72. *Listings of storefronts on our online platform may constitute internet advertisement, which subjects us to laws, rules and regulations applicable to advertising.

Advertising laws, rules and regulations require advertisers, advertising operators and advertising distributors to ensure that the content of the advertisements they prepare or distribute is fair and accurate and is in full compliance with applicable law. Violation of these laws, rules or regulations may result in penalties, including fines, confiscation of advertising costs, orders to cease dissemination of the advertisements and orders to publish corrective information. Complying with these requirements and any penalties or fines for any failure to comply may significantly reduce the attractiveness of our platform and increase our costs and could have a material adverse effect on our business, financial condition, cash flows and results of operations.

In addition, for advertising content related to specific types of products and services, advertisers, advertising operators and advertising distributors must confirm that the advertisers have obtained the requisite government approvals, including the advertiser's operating qualifications, proof of quality inspection of the advertised products and services, and, with respect to certain industries, government approval of the content of the advertisement and filing with the local authorities. Pursuant to certain laws and regulations in the jurisdictions in which we operate, we are required to take steps to moderate the content displayed on our platform, such as reviews and pictures posted by Customers. This requires considerable resources and time, and could significantly affect the operation of our business, while at the same time also exposing us to increased liability under the relevant laws, rules and regulations. While we believe we are in compliance with all applicable laws relating advertising, the costs associated with complying with these laws, rules and regulations, including any penalties or fines for our failure to comply if required, could have a material adverse effect on our business, financial condition, cash flows and results of operations. Any further change in the classification of our online marketing services by the Indian government may also significantly disrupt our operations and materially and adversely affect our business and prospects.

73. *We have been, and may in the future be, subject to claims that our Patrons or us have violated certain third-party intellectual property rights, which, even where meritless, can be costly to defend and could materially and adversely affect our business, results of operations and financial condition.

The internet and technology industries are characterized by significant creation and protection of intellectual property rights and by frequent litigation based on allegations of infringement, misappropriation, or other violations of such intellectual property rights. There may be intellectual property rights held by others, including issued or pending patents, trademarks, and copyrights, and applications of the foregoing, that they allege cover significant aspects of our platform, technologies, content, branding or business methods. Moreover, companies in the internet and technology industries are frequent targets of practicing and non-practicing entities seeking to profit from royalties in connection with grants of licenses. For example, we grant limited licensing rights to our Patrons in connection with the use of our brand name for their storefronts. Like many other companies in the internet and technology industries, we sometimes enter into agreements which include indemnification provisions related to intellectual property which can subject us to costs and damages in the event of a claim against an indemnified third-party.

We have been involved in claims and other proceedings alleging that we have infringed, misused or otherwise misappropriated the intellectual property rights of third parties, including by way of infringement of names of third parties by certain properties of our storefronts owned or managed by Patrons. The infringement claims raised against us have been, in the past, based on allegations that we infringed third-party's intellectual property rights. For instance, our trademark application for 'SpotOn' was opposed by Spoton Logistics Pvt Ltd, a transport and logistics company and our application for 'Capital O' was opposed by Capital Ventures Private Limited, an export house for branded FMCG products, and our application "Silverkey" was opposed by Advance Appliances (India), a machinery & equipment company, "Sunday Hotel" in India and "Sunday" trademark is opposed by a third-party, Sharleen Valerie Widagdo, for being identical and/or confusingly similar to her registered trademark "SUNDAY KIND". Such claims, regardless of merit, could be time-consuming and expensive to litigate or settle and could divert our management's attention and other resources. We are involved in a dispute with Zostel wherein we have alleged misuse of confidential information and other intellectual property rights belonging to our Company by certain former employees of our Company in collusion with Zostel. Zostel has, in turn, alleged that our Company gained illegal and unauthorized access to Zostel's confidential property in collusion with former employees of Zostel. We cannot assure you that such litigations will be decided in our favor.

Claims involving intellectual property could subject us to significant liability for damages and could result in us ceasing to use certain technologies, content, branding, or business methods found to be in violation of another party's rights. We might be required or may opt to seek a license for rights to intellectual property held by others, which may not be available on commercially reasonable terms, or at all. Even if a license is available, we could be required to pay significant royalties, which would increase our operating expenses. We may also be required to develop alternative non-infringing technology, content, branding, or business methods, which could require significant effort and expense and make us less competitive. Any of these results could materially and adversely affect our ability to compete and our business, results of operations and financial condition.

We may introduce new offerings or changes to existing offerings or make other business changes, including in areas where we currently do not compete, which could increase our exposure to patent, copyright, trademark, and other intellectual property rights claims from competitors, other practicing entities, and non-practicing entities. Similarly, our exposure to risks associated with various intellectual property claims may increase as a result of acquisitions of other companies. Third parties may make infringement and similar or related claims after we have acquired a company or technology that had not been asserted prior to the acquisition.

74. Our Promoters will continue to retain certain significant equity stake in our Company after completion of the Issue, which will allow them to influence the outcome of certain matters submitted for approval of our Shareholders and their interests may differ from those of other Shareholders. Further, any disagreements between the Founder Promoter and the Investor Promoter in relation to their inter se arrangements may affect our business and reputation.

The Shareholders' Agreement contemplates that the Company shall put forward a proposal for amendment of the Articles of Association in the first general meeting of its Shareholders convened after the date of listing and commencement of trading of the Equity Shares of the Company pursuant to the Issue by way of a special resolutions granting Board nomination rights to the Promoters. Consequently, our Promoters will, subject to receipt of Shareholders' approval after completion of the Issue and upon listing of the Equity Shares on the Stock Exchanges, continue to exercise certain significant influence over us, including being able to influence the composition of our Board by nominating Non-Executive Nominee Directors on the Board and determine decisions requiring simple or special majority voting, and our other Shareholders may be unable to affect the outcome of such voting. These nomination rights, in addition to being subject to ratification by the Shareholders of our Company by way of a special resolution after the Equity Shares are listed on the Stock Exchanges are also subject to the thresholds in relation to a prescribed number of Equity Shares on a fully diluted basis or a prescribed percentage of our Equity Share capital on a fully diluted basis required to be held by our Promoters, along with compliance with such other conditions as have been specified in the Shareholders' Agreement and our Articles of Association.

For instance, each of our Promoters shall, subject to the approval of our Shareholders post listing of Equity Shares, have the right to nominate Non-Executive Nominee Directors corresponding to their shareholding in our Company on a fully diluted basis. in accordance with the thresholds provided in Shareholders' Agreement. For details in relation to amendment of the AOA for the specific rights, see "History and Certain Corporate Matters – Shareholders' Agreements and Other Agreements" and "Description of Equity Shares and Terms of The Articles of Association" on pages 490 and 1087 respectively.

Our Board composition shall at all times remain compliant with the applicable provisions of the Companies Act and the SEBI Listing Regulations, and we believe that the nomination rights available to our Promoters subsequent to the Issue are not prejudicial to the interests of any Shareholder, including any public Shareholder. However, there can be no assurance that such right of our Promoters for representation on our Board post-listing will not be considered as a special right by any of our present or future Shareholders. Our Promoters may, in the future, take or block actions with respect to our business which may conflict with our best interests or the interests of other minority shareholders, such as actions with respect to future capital raising. They could delay, defer or cause a change of our control or a change in our capital structure, a merger, consolidation, takeover or other business combination involving us or discourage or encourage a potential acquirer from acquiring us. We cannot assure you that our Promoters will always act to resolve any future conflicts of interest in our favor, thereby adversely affecting our business, results of operations and prospects.

Further, our Founder Promoter and the Investor Promoter have agreed to inter-se arrangements pursuant to SVF Indemnity Agreement, which includes, among other things, indemnification obligations by Promoter 1 and the Corporate Promoter in favor of the Investor Promoter. For further details, see “History and Certain Corporate Matters – Shareholders’ Agreements and Other Agreements” on page 490. In the event that the Founder Promoters and the Investor Promoter have disagreements in relation to these arrangements or in complying with terms of the inter-se agreement, our business and reputation may be affected.

75. *Our Promoters, Directors, Key Managerial Personnel and Senior Management have interests in our Company in addition to their remuneration and reimbursement of expenses.

Our Promoters, certain of our Directors, Key Managerial Personnel and Senior Management are interested in our Company to the extent of their respective shareholding in our Company as well as to the extent of any employee stock options, dividends, bonus or other distributions on such Equity Shares, as applicable. Our Independent Directors, Troy Matthew Alstead and William Steve Albrecht hold certain vested stock options under the ESOP Scheme which were granted to them during their tenure as nominee directors of one of our Corporate Promoter i.e., RA Co. Our Founder and Chairman is one of our Promoters and is interested in the promotion or formation of our Company. He is also the chief executive officer of our Subsidiary, OYO Singapore, president of our Subsidiary, OYO Technology and Hospitality FZ LLC, Dubai and the managing director of our Subsidiary, OYO Technology and Hospitality (UK) Ltd and receives remuneration from them. For details on the interests of our Directors, Key Managerial Personnel and members of our Senior Management, see “Other Financial Information-Related Party Transactions”, “Capital Structure – Details of Build-up, Contribution and Lock-in of Promoters’ Shareholding and Lock-in of other Equity Shares”, “Our Management – Interests of Directors”, “Our Management-Interests of Key Managerial Personnel and Senior Management” on pages 945, 266, 597 and 612, respectively.

76. *Our Investor Promoter may enter into ventures that may lead to real or potential conflicts of interest with our business.

Our Investor Promoter, being a financial investor, may become involved in ventures that may potentially compete with our Company, subject to the provisions and disclosure requirements provided under the code of conduct for board of directors, the Companies Act and the SEBI Listing Regulations, to the extent applicable. The interests of our Investor Promoter may conflict with the interests of our other Shareholders and our Investor Promoter may, for business considerations or otherwise, cause our Company to take actions, or refrain from taking actions, in order to benefit itself instead of our Company’s interests or the interests of other Shareholders and which may be harmful to our Company’s interests or the interests of our other Shareholders, which may materially adversely impact our business, financial condition, results of operations and cash flows.

77. *Our Investor Promoter is a financial investor and is not involved in the day-to-day management, business or affairs of the Company.

Our Investor Promoter is a financial investor in our Company engaged primarily in investing in a portfolio of equity and equity-related securities with the objective of providing medium to long-term capital appreciation to institutional investors in sectors not limited to the travel and tourism industry and is not involved in the day-to-day management, business or affairs of our Company.

78. *We have issued equity shares (other than bonus issues) during the last one year from the date of this Updated Draft Red Herring Prospectus-I at a price which may not be indicative of the Issue Price.

We have issued specified securities in the last 12 months at a price which may be lower than the Issue Price. The price at which equity shares have been issued by our Company in the immediately preceding year is not indicative of the price at which the Equity Shares will be issued or traded after the Issue. For further information, see “Capital Structure – Notes to Capital Structure – Issue of specified securities at a price lower than the Issue Price in the last one year” on page 265.

79. Our use of “open source” software could adversely affect our ability to offer our platform and services and subject us to costly litigation and other disputes.

We may in the future incorporate, certain “open source” software into our code base as we continue to develop our platform and services. Open-source software is generally licensed under terms that may impose restrictive conditions, such as making available the source code of our proprietary modifications, offering parts of our platform at no cost, or relicensing proprietary code under open source terms. This can limit our ability to protect our intellectual property rights and expose us to risks of license non-compliance or unintended open-sourcing of proprietary components.

While we employ practices designed to monitor our compliance with the licenses of third-party open source software and protect our proprietary source code, inadvertent use of open source software is fairly common in software development in the internet and technology industries. Such inadvertent use of open source software could expose us to claims of non-compliance with the applicable terms of the underlying licenses, which could lead to unforeseen business disruptions, including being restricted from offering parts of our product which incorporate the software, being required to publicly release proprietary source code, being required to re-engineer parts of our code base to comply with license terms, or being required to extract the open source software at issue. In addition, vulnerabilities in open source components could pose critical operational and security risks. Our exposure to these risks may be increased as a result of evolving our technology platform, introducing new offerings, integrating acquired-company technologies, making other business changes or expanding into jurisdictions with different intellectual property laws. While we have not encountered any material incidents arising from our use of open source software in the nine months ended December 31, 2025, and Fiscals 2025, 2024 and 2023, we cannot assure that we will not encounter such incidents in the future. Any of the foregoing could adversely impact the value or enforceability of our intellectual property, and materially and adversely affect our business, results of operations and financial condition.

80. We rely primarily on third-party policies to insure our operations-related risks. The coverage under our insurance policies may be inadequate, which could materially and adversely affect our business, results of operations and financial condition.

We maintain insurance coverage for, among other things, director and officer liability insurance, comprehensive general liability insurance, professional indemnity insurance, cybersecurity insurance, crime insurance and burglary and all risk insurance. Majority of the properties to Motel 6 and Studio 6 in the United States, we are also named as an insured party under their insurance policies which is governed by our standard franchise agreement requiring franchisees to procure and maintain insurance policies specified in such agreements as required.. Also, our standard franchise agreements for Motel 6 and Studio 6 storefronts include indemnification provisions obligating franchisees to cover liabilities, claims and expenses occurring from inter alia, the ownership, construction, renovation, establishment or operation of the motel. The table below sets forth our insurance cover as a percentage of our tangible fixed assets as at the dates indicated:

| Particulars                                                              | As at / For the nine months ended December 31, | As at / For the period ended March 31 |         |         |
|--------------------------------------------------------------------------|------------------------------------------------|---------------------------------------|---------|---------|
|                                                                          | 2025                                           | 2025                                  | 2024    | 2023    |

Note:

# Insurance coverage includes coverage towards physical loss or damage to tangible fixed assets due to fire and other perils.

In certain markets where our operations are nascent or where we have low business volumes, we do not have any third-party insurance coverage. We believe that our insurance coverage is reasonably adequate to cover the normal risks associated with the operation of our business, and we have not experienced any material instances of delays or rejections on an individual claim basis in the honoring of our insurance claims in the nine months ended December 31, 2025, and Fiscals 2025, 2024 and 2023.

Further, our insurance claims have not exceeded our insurance coverage in the nine months ended December 31, 2025, and Fiscals 2025, 2024 and 2023.

Our insurance coverage may not be sufficient to cover all potential losses or liabilities that may arise from our operations. Insurance carriers have in some instances refused to defend or indemnify us, despite being listed as additional insureds under a franchisee's Certificate of Insurance (COI). Denials have occurred based on policy exclusions such as; (i) Assault and battery exclusions, including in cases involving allegations of physical or sexual misconduct, (ii) Human trafficking exclusions, where policies explicitly deny coverage for bodily injury or personal injury claims arising out of or associated with trafficking-related incidents, (iii) "No actual bodily harm" exceptions, invoked in cases involving emotional distress or non-physical injuries, (iv) Intentional acts exclusions, where criminal activity by third parties is alleged, including in cases of assault, trafficking, or premises liability. For instance, in an ongoing U.S. litigation against G6 Hospitality Franchising LLC and its subsidiaries concerning historical allegations of human trafficking at a franchisee-operated property. Under such franchise agreements, franchisees are required to indemnify, defend, and hold the franchisor harmless for claims relating to their operations, to maintain general liability insurance, and to name the franchisor as an additional insured. The franchisor tenders such claims to the relevant Franchisee and its insurer, and some insurers have accepted coverage and indemnification, while some matters remain pending and a certain number have been denied. Certain types of losses, including those that are difficult to quantify, may not be covered, and our policies are subject to exclusions, limitations, deductibles and conditions that may restrict coverage. Some risks may be uninsurable or not insurable on commercially acceptable terms. Additionally, our claims history may affect our ability to secure coverage at commercially viable premiums in the future. There is also no assurance that we will be able to maintain existing policies or obtain comparable insurance coverage in the future. If we experience a loss that is uninsured, exceeds policy limits or is subject to claim denial or delay, it could result in significant liabilities and have a material adverse effect on our business, financial condition, cash flows and results of operations.

81. We face possible risks associated with natural disasters and the physical effects of climate change, which may include more frequent or severe storms, hurricanes, flooding, rising sea levels, shortages of water, droughts and wildfires, any of which could have a material adverse effect on our business, results of operations, cash flows and financial condition.

We are subject to the risks associated with natural disasters and the physical effects of climate change, which may include more frequent or severe storms, hurricanes, flooding, rising sea levels, shortages of water, pandemics, droughts, and wildfires, any of which could have a material adverse effect on our business, results of operations, cash flows and financial condition. To the extent climate change causes changes in weather patterns, our coastal destinations could experience increases in storm intensity and rising sea-levels causing damage to our Patrons' storefronts and result in a reduced number of storefronts in these areas. Climate change may also affect our business by increasing the cost of, or making unavailable, property insurance on terms our Patrons find acceptable in areas most vulnerable to such events, increasing operating costs for our Patrons, including the cost of water or energy, and requiring our Patrons to expend funds as they seek to repair and protect their properties in connection with such events. As a result of the foregoing and other climate-related issues, our Patrons may decide to remove their listings from our platform. If we are unable to list our Patrons' storefronts in certain areas due to climate change, we may lose both Patrons and Customers, which could have a material adverse effect on our business, results of operations, cash flows and financial condition.

82. Certain non-GAAP financial measures and other metrics used in this Updated Draft Red Herring Prospectus-I relating to our financial and operating performance have been included in this Updated Draft Red Herring Prospectus-I. These Non-GAAP financial measures are not measures of operating performance or liquidity defined by Ind AS and may not be comparable with those presented by other companies.

We use certain supplemental non-GAAP measures and financial and operational metrics to review and analyze our financial and operating performance from period to period, and to evaluate our business, including non-GAAP measures and metrics such as gross profit, gross profit (as a % of revenue from operations), EBIT, EBIT (as a % of total income), EBITDA, EBITDA (as a % of total income), EBITDA excluding exceptional items, share based payment expense and other income and EBITDA excluding exceptional items, share based payment expense and other income (as a % of revenue from operations), and working capital, net assets value per equity share, net worth and return on net worth, which have been included in this Updated Draft Red Herring Prospectus-I. Although these non-GAAP measures and financial and operational metrics are not a measure of performance calculated in accordance with applicable accounting standards, our management believes that they are useful to an investor in evaluating us because they are widely used measures to evaluate a company's operating and financial performance. For more information on the non-GAAP financial measures used in this Updated Draft Red Herring Prospectus-I, see "Certain Conventions, Presentation of Financial, Industry and Market Data and Currency of Presentation-Non-GAAP Financial Measures", "Definitions and Abbreviations" and "Management's Discussion and Analysis of Financial Condition and Results of Operations- Non-GAAP Financial Measures" on pages 22, 1 and 975, respectively.

Our internal systems and tools are subject to a number of limitations, and our methodologies for tracking these financial and operational metrics may change over time, which could result in unexpected changes to our metrics in future, including the metrics we publicly disclose. If the internal systems and tools we use to track these metrics undercount or over-count performance or contain algorithmic or other technical errors in the future, the data we report may not be accurate. While these numbers are based on what we believe to be reasonable estimates of our metrics for the applicable period of measurement, there are inherent challenges in measuring how our platform is used across large numbers of Customers and Patrons globally. For example, the accuracy of our operating metrics could be impacted by fraudulent Customers, and further, we believe that there could be Customers who have multiple accounts. While we implement measures to detect and prevent this behavior, customer usage of multiple accounts may cause us to overstate the number of Customers on our platform.

Presentation of these non-GAAP financial measures and financial and operational metrics should not be considered in isolation from, or as a substitute for, analysis of our historical financial performance, as reported and presented in our Restated Consolidated Financial Information set out in this Updated Draft Red Herring Prospectus-I. These non-GAAP measures and financial and operational metrics are supplemental measures of our performance and liquidity that are not required by, or presented in accordance with, Ind AS, Indian GAAP, IFRS or U.S. GAAP. Further, these non-GAAP financial measures are not a measurement of our financial performance or liquidity, profitability or cash flows generated by operating, investing or financing activities under Ind AS, Indian GAAP, IFRS or U.S. GAAP and have limitations as analytical tools which indicate, among other things, that they do not reflect our cash expenditures or future requirements for capital expenditure or contractual commitments or the changes in, or cash requirements for, our working capital needs; or the finance cost, or the cash requirements necessary to service our debt.

These non-GAAP financial measures and financial and operational metrics may differ from similar titled information used by other companies, including peer companies, who may use different sources or calculate such information differently and hence their comparability with those used by us may be limited. Consequently, these non-GAAP financial measures and financial and operational metrics may have limited use for an investor to adequately compare information while making an investment decision and should not be viewed as substitutes for performance or profitability measures under Ind AS or as indicators of our operating performance, cash flows, liquidity or profitability. If our financial and operational metrics are not accurate representations of our business, or if investors do not perceive these metrics to be accurate, or if we discover material inaccuracies with respect to these figures, our reputation may be significantly harmed and our business, results of operations and financial condition could be materially and adversely affected.

83. *Grants of stock options under our employee stock option plans may result in a charge to our profit and loss statement and, to that extent, reduce our profitability.

Under the ESOP Schemes, the maximum number of Equity Shares that may be issued pursuant to the exercise of options granted to employees under the ESOP Scheme shall not exceed 1,452,480,000 (subject to adjustments for corporate actions such as bonus issue or sub-division of equity shares). Under Ind AS, the grant of employee stock options results in a charge to our profit and loss statement, based on the fair value of the stock options at the date when the grant is made using an appropriate valuation model. Our share based payment expense amounted to ₹661.91 million, ₹474.69 million, ₹1,806.43 million and ₹6,303.86 million for the nine months ended December 31, 2025, and Fiscals 2025, 2024 and 2023, respectively. Such expenses result in a reduction in our profitability for the relevant years. For details of ESOPs outstanding as of the date of this Updated Draft Red Herring Prospectus-I, see “Capital Structure – Employee Stock Option Scheme” on page 284.

External Risks

84. *We may be materially and adversely affected by any or developments in the social, political, regulatory and economic environments in India as well as globally.

We may be adversely affected by social, political, regulatory and economic developments in the countries and regions in which we operate or from which we source demand, including India, Europe, the United States and the United Kingdom. Accordingly, our business, financial condition and results of operations may be influenced to a significant degree by conditions in these markets, including, but not limited to, nationalism, protectionism, nullification of contract, changes in interest rates and monetary policy, inflation, unemployment, labor actions, supply chain disruptions, imposition of capital controls, sanctions and export controls, data privacy and consumer protection regimes, environmental and climate-related regulations, taxation, visa and border policies, as well as public health measures that affect travel by our Customers, consumer confidence and spending, consumer discretionary income, or changes in purchasing for any reason, including rising consumer inflation, or travel habits of our Customers.

While India and Europe have experienced significant growth over the past decades, growth has been uneven, both geographically and among various sectors of the economy. The same is true for the United States and the United Kingdom, where periods of expansion have been interspersed with monetary tightening cycles, financial market volatility and sector-specific stress. Such developments could adversely affect our business and operating results, lead to a reduction in demand for our offerings and solutions and adversely affect our competitive position. In particular, the economies in India differ from most developed markets in many respects, including the level of government involvement, level of development, growth rate, control of foreign exchange, government policy on public order and allocation of resources. Certain governments continue to play a significant role in regulating industry development by imposing industrial policies. Moreover, some local and regional governments also exercise significant control over economic growth and public order in their respective jurisdictions through allocating resources, controlling payment of foreign currency-denominated obligations, setting monetary policies and providing preferential treatment to particular industries or companies. Some of these measures may benefit the overall economy, but may have a negative effect on us.

In the past, governments in India have implemented measures, including interest rate adjustments, currency trading band adjustments and exchange rate controls, to control the pace of economic growth. Similar policy shifts have occurred or may occur in Europe, the United States and the United Kingdom, including interest rate increases or decreases, quantitative tightening or easing, fiscal consolidation or expansion, price controls, windfall or sector-specific taxes, and changes to competition and consumer regulation. These measures may cause decreased economic activity or shifts in consumer behavior in one or more of these markets, which may adversely affect our business, financial condition, results of operations and prospects. In addition, evolving data protection, cybersecurity and consumer protection regimes in the European Union (including the GDPR), the United Kingdom (including the UK GDPR and Online Safety and consumer legislation) and the United States (including federal, state and sectoral privacy and consumer rules) may increase our compliance costs, constrain certain business practices, impose significant penalties for non-compliance and expose us to litigation risk. Divergence between EU and UK frameworks following the United Kingdom’s exit from the European Union, as well as between US federal and state-level requirements, may increase operational complexity and cost.

Europe, the United States and the United Kingdom are also subject to geopolitical and macroeconomic risks, including continued conflict or tensions in Europe and the Middle East, energy supply disruptions, sanctions and countersanctions regimes, changes in cross-border data transfer rules, immigration and visa policy shifts impacting travel demand, labor shortages, industrial action, and volatility in fuel and utility prices. Any of these developments could increase our operating costs, reduce consumer discretionary spending on travel and hospitality, disrupt supply chains and vendor relationships, and adversely affect demand for our offerings. Financial market instability, banking sector stress, reduced availability of credit, or significant currency volatility, whether arising in India, Europe, the United States or the United Kingdom, could negatively impact Patrons and Customers, counterparties and suppliers, and could impair our liquidity, pricing, hedging activities and financial performance.

In addition, India has experienced, and may in the future experience, political instability, including strikes, demonstrations, protests, marches, coups d'état, guerilla activity or other types of civil disorder. Europe, the United States and the United Kingdom have also experienced civil unrest, protests, riots, strikes and other social disruptions. Other potential effects may include disruptions to our business, damage to infrastructure and loss of business continuity and business information. If our operations are interrupted, it may materially and adversely affect our business, financial condition, results of operations, cash flows and prospects. Any terrorist attacks, cyberattacks, war, civil unrest, public health emergencies, natural disasters, climate-related events, or other adverse social, economic and political events in India, Europe, the United States, the United Kingdom or elsewhere may also adversely affect the financial markets, which may impact our business. These instabilities and any adverse changes in the political or regulatory environment could increase our costs, increase our exposure to legal and business risks, disrupt our operations or affect our ability to expand our base of Patrons and Customers.

85. Our business, financial condition and results of operations may be materially and adversely affected by market fluctuations and economic slowdowns.

Our business is subject to global market fluctuations and general economic conditions in the global economy, including, but not limited to, the conditions in India. Any prolonged downturn, recession or other condition that adversely affects our business and economic environment, could materially and adversely impact our business, financial condition and results of operations. Although economic conditions vary across markets, loss of investor confidence in one emerging economy may cause increased volatility across other economies, including India. Financial instability in other parts of the world could have a global influence and thereby adversely impact the Indian economy. Financial disruptions in the future could adversely affect our business, future financial condition and results of operations.

The global credit and equity markets have experienced substantial dislocations, liquidity disruptions and market corrections in recent years. These and other related events have had a significant impact on the global credit and financial markets as a whole, including reduced liquidity, greater volatility, widening of credit spreads and a lack of price transparency in the United States, Europe and global credit and financial markets. In response to such developments, legislators and financial regulators in the United States, Europe and other jurisdictions, including India, have implemented several policy measures designed to add stability to the financial markets. However, the overall impact of these and other legislative and regulatory efforts on the global financial markets is uncertain, and they may not have the intended stabilizing effects. Any significant financial disruption could have an adverse effect on our business, financial condition, cash flows, results of operations and the trading price of the Equity Shares.

Negative economic developments, such as rising fiscal or trade deficits, or a default on national debt, in any of India may also affect investor confidence and cause increased volatility. Any worldwide financial instability could negatively impact the movement of exchange rates and interest rates and could then adversely affect our business, financial performance and the price of our Equity Shares.

86. *Changing laws, rules and regulations and legal uncertainties, adverse application or interpretation of corporate and tax laws, may adversely affect our business, prospects and results of operations.

We are subject to evolving global tax regimes, which could materially adversely affect our business, results of operations, and financial condition. Unfavorable changes in or interpretations of existing, or the promulgation of new, laws, rules and regulations including foreign investment and stamp duty laws governing our business and operations could result in us being deemed to be in contravention of such laws and may require us to apply for additional approvals. For instance, the Supreme Court of India has in a decision clarified the components of basic wages which need to be considered by companies while making provident fund payments, which resulted in an increase in the provident fund payments to be made by companies. Any such decisions in future or any further changes in interpretation of laws may have an impact on our results of operations. Further, the Government of India has announced the Union Budget for the Financial Year 2026, pursuant to which the Finance Act, 2026 has amended certain provisions of the Income Tax Act, 2025, including provisions in relation to the taxation of income, capital gains, withholding tax and other tax consequences. We have not fully determined the effects of these recent and proposed laws and regulations on our business. Investors are advised to consult their own tax advisors and to carefully consider the potential tax consequences of owning, investing or trading in the Equity Shares. Furthermore, changes in capital gains tax or tax on capital market transactions or the sale of shares could affect investor returns. As a result, any such changes or interpretations could have an adverse effect on our business and financial performance. For further discussion on capital gains tax, see “– 99. Investors may be subject to Indian taxes arising out of income arising on the sale of and dividend on the Equity Shares” on page 122.

There can be no assurance that governments in countries where we operate will not implement new regulations and policies requiring us to obtain approvals and licenses or other regulatory bodies, or impose onerous requirements and conditions on our operations. Any such changes and the related uncertainties with respect to the applicability, interpretation and implementation of any amendment or change to governing laws, regulation or policy, including by reason of an absence, or a limited body, of administrative or judicial precedent in the jurisdictions in which we operate may be time consuming as well as costly for us to resolve and may impact the viability of our current business or restrict our ability to grow our business in the future. It may also have a material adverse effect on our business, financial condition, cash flows and results of operations. In addition, we may have to incur expenditures to comply with the requirements of any new regulations, which could materially harm our results of operations or cash flows. Any unfavorable changes to the laws and regulations applicable to us could also subject us to additional liabilities.

87. *Fluctuations in the exchange rate between the Indian Rupee and foreign currencies may have an adverse effect on the value of the Equity Shares, independent of our operating results.

On listing, the Equity Shares will be quoted in Indian Rupees on the Stock Exchanges. Any dividends in respect of the Equity Shares will also be paid in Indian Rupees and subsequently converted into the relevant foreign currency for repatriation, if required. Any adverse movement in currency exchange rates during the time that it takes to undertake such conversion may reduce the net dividend to foreign investors. In addition, any adverse movement in currency exchange rates during a delay in repatriating outside India the proceeds from a sale of Equity Shares, for example, because of a delay in regulatory approvals that may be required for the sale of Equity Shares, may reduce the proceeds received by Equity Shareholders. For example, the exchange rate between the Indian Rupee and the U.S. dollar has fluctuated in recent years and may continue to fluctuate substantially in the future, which may have an adverse effect on the returns on the Equity Shares, independent of our operating results.

88. *A downgrade in the sovereign credit ratings of India, may affect the trading price of the Equity Shares.

India's sovereign debt rating could be downgraded due to several factors, including changes in tax or fiscal policy or a decline in India's foreign exchange reserves, all of which are outside our control. Our borrowing costs and our access to the debt capital markets depend significantly on the sovereign credit ratings of India. Any adverse revisions to India's credit ratings for domestic and international debt by international rating agencies could adversely affect our ability to raise additional external financing, and the interest rates and other commercial terms at which such additional financing is available. This could have an adverse effect on our business and future financial performance, our ability to obtain financing for capital expenditures and the trading price of the Equity Shares.

89. *If inflation were to rise, particularly in India, we might not be able to increase the prices of our services in order to pass costs on to our Patrons and Customers, and our profits might decline.

Inflation rates in certain parts of India have been volatile in recent years, and such volatility may continue. Inflation has also risen significantly in the recent past as a result of various factors, including global supply chain disruptions, government stimulus packages and rising costs of commodities and geopolitical conflicts. Rising inflation has in turn led to a continued increase in interest rates, which has resulted in increased costs of borrowings and increased costs to our business. Further, high inflation leading to higher interest rates may also lead to a slowdown in the economy and adversely impact credit growth. Consequently, our growth and profitability may also be affected. Significant fluctuations in inflation rates may make it more difficult for us to accurately estimate or control our costs. Increasing inflation in India could increase our operating expenses, which we may not be able to pass on to our Customers, whether through increasing the rates that our Patrons pay for our services or by other means, which may adversely affect our profitability and competitive advantage, and in turn our financial condition, cash flows and results of operations may therefore be adversely affected.

90. *Significant differences exist between Ind AS and other accounting principles, such as U.S. GAAP and IFRS, which may be material to the financial statements prepared and presented in accordance with Ind AS contained in this Updated Draft Red Herring Prospectus-I.

Our Restated Consolidated Financial Information included in this Updated Draft Red Herring Prospectus-I is based on our audited special purpose interim consolidated financial statements for the nine months ended December 31, 2025 prepared in accordance with Ind AS 34 and audited consolidated financial statements for the financial years ended March 31, 2025, March 31, 2024, and March 31, 2023, prepared in accordance with Ind AS, and restated in accordance with the requirements of Section 26 of Part I of the Companies Act, 2013, the SEBI ICDR Regulations, and the Guidance Note on "Reports in Company Prospectus (Revised 2019)" issued by the ICAI. For further details, see "Financial Statements" on page 623.

Ind AS differs in significant respects from other generally accepted accounting principles with which prospective investors may be familiar, such as International Financial Reporting Standards ("IFRS") or United States Generally Accepted Accounting Principles ("U.S. GAAP"). We have not attempted to quantify or reconcile the impact of U.S. GAAP or IFRS on our financial data included in this Updated Draft Red Herring Prospectus-I. Consequently, the degree to which the financial statements prepared in accordance with Ind AS will provide meaningful information depends entirely on the reader's familiarity with Indian accounting standards and regulatory requirements. Accordingly, prospective investors not familiar with Ind AS should consult their own professional advisors before relying on the financial disclosures presented herein.

91. *We are, and after the Issue may remain, a "foreign-owned and controlled" company in accordance with the Consolidated FDI Policy and FEMA Non-debt Instruments Rules. We are subject to certain foreign investment restrictions, which could limit our ability to attract foreign investors and our ability to raise foreign capital is subject to certain conditions prescribed under Indian laws.

In accordance with the provisions of the Consolidated FDI Policy and FEMA Non-debt Instruments Rules, our Company is a foreign owned and controlled company. As a foreign-owned and controlled company, our Company is subject to various requirements under the Consolidated FDI Policy and other Indian foreign investment laws. Such requirements include restrictions on undertaking certain business activities without prior GoI approval or at all, and pricing guidelines applicable to issue or transfer of our Equity Shares. Further, as long as we are a foreign-owned and controlled company, we may not be able to undertake certain commercially attractive business activities or investments without prior approval of the GoI or at all.

Foreign investment in Indian securities is subject to regulation by Indian regulatory authorities. Under the foreign exchange regulations currently in force in India, transfers of shares between non-residents and residents are freely permitted (subject to certain exceptions and compliance with sectoral norms and certain other restrictions) if they comply with the pricing guidelines and reporting requirements specified by the RBI. If the transfer of shares is not in compliance with such pricing guidelines or reporting requirements or falls under any of the exceptions referred to above, then a prior regulatory approval will be required. Additionally, shareholders who seek to convert the Rupee proceeds from a sale of shares in India into a foreign currency and repatriate that foreign currency from India will require a no-objection certificate or a tax clearance certificate from the Indian income tax authorities. Additionally, the GoI may impose foreign exchange restrictions in certain emergency situations, including situations where there are sudden fluctuations in interest rates or exchange rates, where the GoI experiences extreme difficulty in stabilizing the balance of payments, or where there are substantial disturbances in the financial and capital markets in India. We cannot assure investors that any required approval from the RBI or any other governmental agency can be obtained on any particular terms or at all.

Further, all investments under the foreign direct investment route by entities of a country which shares land border with India or where the beneficial owner of an investment into India is situated in or is a citizen of any such country will require prior approval of the GoI. Further, in the event of transfer of ownership of any existing or future foreign direct investment in an entity in India, directly or indirectly, resulting in the beneficial ownership falling within the aforesaid restriction/ purview, such subsequent change in the beneficial ownership will also require approval of the GoI. Any such approval(s) would be subject to the discretion of the regulatory authorities. This may cause uncertainty and delays in our future investment plans and initiatives. Further, there is uncertainty regarding the timeline within which the said approval from the GoI may be obtained, if at all. We cannot assure you that any required approval from the relevant governmental agencies can be obtained on any particular terms or at all. For further details, see “Restrictions on Foreign Ownership of Indian Securities” on page 1085.

As an Indian company, we are also subject to exchange controls that regulate borrowing in foreign currencies. Such regulatory restrictions could limit our financing sources and could constrain our ability to obtain financing on competitive terms and refinance existing indebtedness. In addition, we cannot assure you that any required regulatory approvals for borrowing in foreign currencies will be granted to us without onerous conditions, or at all. Limitations on foreign debt may adversely affect our business, financial condition and results of operations.

92. *Any deficiencies in the telecommunication and internet infrastructure in countries where we operate, particularly in emerging economies, could impair the functioning of our technology system and the operation of our business.

Our business depends on the performance, reliability and security of the telecommunications and internet infrastructure in countries where we operate, as all of our bookings are made through our website and mobile application using the internet. The internet penetration in India and certain other regions in which we operate is dependent on a number of factors including expansion of broadband networks, broadband wireless access on mass-market smartphones and other mobile devices in such regions, our ability to successfully deploy existing and future technology platforms on evolving operating systems such as Android and iOS and our ability to provide compelling platforms and tools in a multi-device environment while ensuring their compatibility with the web browser platforms provided therein. Despite a large base of internet subscribers, certain regions where we operate have a relatively lower internet penetration in comparison with other similar countries. There can be no assurance that internet penetration in such regions will increase in the future as slowdowns or disruptions in upgrading efforts for infrastructure in such regions could reduce the rate of increase in the use of the internet, while the competitive landscape might make investments in infrastructure unattractive. Further, if online commerce in such regions does not continue to develop as we expect it to, or if we fail to identify and anticipate changes in trends and preferences in the online commerce industry and address them in time or at all, our business, financial condition, cash flows and results of operations and prospects will be materially and adversely affected. Concerns about fraud, privacy, lack of trust and other problems may also discourage Customers from adopting the internet as a medium of utilizing travel services. If these concerns are not adequately addressed, they may inhibit the growth of online commerce and communications.

B. Risks Related to the Issue

93. *The Issue Price of our Equity Shares, our price-to-earnings ratio and our enterprise value to EBITDA ratio may not be indicative of the trading price of our Equity Shares upon listing on the Stock Exchanges subsequent to the Issue and, as a result, you may lose a significant part or all of your investment.

While our market capitalization is subject to the determination of the Issue Price, which will be determined by our Company, in consultation with the Book Running Lead Managers, through the book building process, enterprise value to EBITDA ratio and price-to-earnings ratio for Fiscal 2025 is set out below.

| (in multiples, unless otherwise specified) |                             |   |                           |
|---------------------------------------------------|-----------------------------|---|---------------------------|
| Particulars                                       | Ratio vis-à-vis Floor Price |   | Ratio vis-à-vis Cap Price |
| Enterprise value to EBITDA                        |                             | ● | ●                         |
| Price-to-earnings ratio                           |                             | ● | ●                         |

Note: Details will be updated in the Prospectus

Further, our Issue Price, the multiples and ratio specified above may not be comparable to the market price, market capitalization and price-to-earnings ratios of our peers and would be dependent on the various factors included under “Basis for Issue Price” beginning on page 311. Accordingly, any valuation exercise undertaken for the purposes of the Issue by our Company, in consultation with the Book Running Lead Managers, would not be based on a benchmark with our industry peers.

94. *Pursuant to the listing of the Equity Shares, we may be subject to pre-emptive surveillance measures, such as Additional Surveillance Measures and Graded Surveillance Measures by the Stock Exchanges in order to enhance the integrity of the market and safeguard the interest of investors.

SEBI and the Stock Exchanges, in the past, have introduced various pre-emptive surveillance measures with respect to the shares of listed companies in India (the “Listed Securities”) in order to enhance market integrity, safeguard the interests of investors and potential market abuses. In addition to various surveillance measures already implemented, and in order to further safeguard the interest of investors, the SEBI and the Stock Exchanges have introduced additional surveillance measures (“ASM”) and graded surveillance measures (“GSM”). ASM is conducted by the Stock Exchanges on Listed Securities with surveillance concerns based on certain objective parameters such as price-to-earnings ratio, percentage of delivery, variation in volume of shares and volatility of shares, among other things. GSM is conducted by the Stock Exchanges on Listed Securities where their price quoted on the Stock Exchanges is not commensurate with, among other things, the financial performance and financial condition measures such as earnings, book value, fixed assets, net worth, other measures such as price-to-earnings multiple and market capitalization.

Upon listing, the trading of our Equity Shares would be subject to differing market conditions as well as other factors which may result in high volatility in price, and low trading volumes as a percentage of combined trading volume of our Equity Shares. The occurrence of any of the above-mentioned factors or other circumstances may trigger any of the parameters prescribed by SEBI and the Stock Exchanges for placing our securities under the GSM and/or ASM framework or any other surveillance measures, which could result in significant restrictions on trading of our Equity Shares being imposed by SEBI and the Stock Exchanges. These restrictions may include requiring higher margin requirements, limiting trading frequency or freezing of price on the upper side of trading, as well as mentioning of our Equity Shares on the surveillance dashboards of the Stock Exchanges. The imposition of these restrictions and curbs on trading may have an adverse effect on the market price, trading and liquidity of our Equity Shares and on the reputation and conditions of our Company. Any such instance may result in a loss of our reputation and diversion of our management’s attention and may also decrease the market price of our Equity Shares which could cause you to lose some or all of your investment.

95. *We cannot assure payment of dividends on the Equity Shares in the future.

Our Company has a formal dividend policy as of the date of this Updated Draft Red Herring Prospectus-I. Our Company has not declared dividends on the Equity Shares during the period from July 1, 2025 to the date of filing of this Updated Draft Red Herring Prospectus-I, nine months ended December 31, 2025 and the last three Fiscals. Our ability to pay dividends in the future will depend upon our future results of operations, financial condition, cash flows, sufficient profitability, working capital requirements and capital expenditure requirements and other factors considered relevant by our Directors and Shareholders. Our ability to pay dividends may also be restricted under certain financing arrangements that we may enter into. We cannot assure you that we will be able to pay dividends on the Equity Shares at any point in the future. Also see “Dividend Policy” on page 622.

96. *The compliance requirements of being a publicly listed company will lead to increased costs of compliance for us and strain our resources.

We are not a listed company and have historically not been subjected to increased compliance requirements and increased scrutiny of our affairs associated with being a listed company by shareholders, regulators, and the public at large. We will be subject to the SEBI Listing Regulations which will require us to file audited annual and unaudited quarterly and half-yearly financial statements, along with audit or limited review reports, as applicable, with respect to our business, results of operations and financial condition, as well as disclosure of material events or information with respect to us on an ongoing basis with the Stock Exchanges. Further, as on date, we have 114 Subsidiaries and will also be required to comply with various corporate governance and other requirements with respect to our Subsidiaries, including those specified in the SEBI Listing Regulations. We may need to hire additional legal and accounting and other relevant staff with appropriate experience and technical accounting knowledge, but we cannot assure you that we will be able to do so in a timely and efficient manner. As a result, we will incur significant legal, accounting, corporate governance and other expenses that we did not incur as an unlisted company. In order to maintain and improve the effectiveness of our disclosure controls and procedures and internal control over financial reporting, significant additional resources and management attention will be required. As a result, our management’s attention may be diverted from our business concerns and our resources may be strained, which may adversely affect our business, prospects, financial condition and results of operations.

97. *Our Equity Shares have never been publicly traded, and may experience price and volume fluctuations following the completion of the Issue. Further, our Equity Shares may not result in an active or liquid market and the price of our Equity Shares may be volatile and you may be unable to resell your Equity Shares at or above the Issue Price or at all.

Prior to the Issue, there has been no public market for our Equity Shares, and an active trading market on the Stock Exchanges may not develop or be sustained after the Issue. The market price of the Equity Shares may decline below the Issue Price and investors may not be able to re-sell Equity Shares at or above the Issue Price resulting in a loss of all or part of the investment. The Issue Price will be determined by our Company in consultation with the Lead Managers through the Book Building Process. The market price of the Equity Shares may fluctuate as a result of, among other things, the following factors, some of which are beyond our control, including, seasonality in the industry in which we operate, quarterly variations in our results of operations, results of operations that vary from the expectations of securities analysts and investors and those of our competitors, changes in expectations as to our future financial performance, including financial estimates and recommendations by research analysts and investors, announcements by us or our competitors of significant acquisitions, strategic alliances, joint operations or capital commitments, announcements by third parties or governmental entities of significant claims or proceedings against us, additions or departures of Key Management Personnel or Senior Management, and the public’s reaction to our press releases and adverse media reports.

Changes in relation to any of the factors listed above could adversely affect the price of the Equity Shares. The market price of the Equity Shares may decline below the Issue Price and investors may not be able to re-sell Equity Shares at or above the Issue Price resulting in a loss of all or part of the investment.

98. *The determination of the Price Band is based on various factors and assumptions and the Issue Price of the Equity Shares may not be indicative of the market price of the Equity Shares after the Issue. Further, the current market price of some securities listed pursuant to certain previous issues managed by the Book Running Lead Managers is below their respective issue prices.

The determination of the Price Band is based on various factors and assumptions, and will be determined by our Company in consultation with the Book Running Lead Managers. Furthermore, the Issue Price of the Equity Shares will be determined by our Company in consultation with the Book Running Lead Managers through the Book Building Process. These will be based on numerous factors, including factors as described under “Basis for Issue Price” beginning on page 311 and may not be indicative of the market price for the Equity Shares after the Issue.

In addition to the above, the current market price of securities listed pursuant to certain previous initial public offerings managed by the Book Running Lead Managers is below their respective issue price. For further details, see “Other Regulatory and Statutory Disclosures-Price Information of Past Issues Handled by the BRLMs” beginning on page 1039.

99. *Investors may be subject to Indian taxes arising out of income arising on the sale of and dividend on the Equity Shares.

Under the current Indian tax laws and unless specifically exempted, capital gains arising from the sale of equity shares in an Indian company are generally taxable in India. Investors may be subject to payment of long term or short term capital gains tax in India, in addition to the payment of Securities Transaction Tax (“STT”), on the sale of any Equity Shares held for more or less than 12 months immediately preceding the date of transfer. While non-residents may claim tax treaty benefits in relation to such capital gains income, generally Indian tax treaties do not limit India’s right to impose a tax on capital gains arising from the sale of shares of an Indian company.

The Government of India announced the union budget for the Financial Years 2026-2027, following which the Finance Bill, 2026 was introduced in Lok Sabha on February 1, 2026. The Finance Bill received the assent from the President of India and became the Finance Act, 2026 with effect from April 1, 2026. Pursuant to the amendments introduced by the Finance Act, 2026, the references in the Income-tax Act, 1961 have been recast under the Income-tax Act, 2025, as amended by the Finance Act, 2026. Accordingly, pursuant to amendments notified by the Finance (No. 2) Act, 2024, long term capital gains exceeding the exempted limit of ₹ 125,000 arising from the sale of listed equity shares on the stock exchange are subject to tax at the rate of 12.5% (plus applicable surcharge and cess), without benefit of indexation. Further, any capital gains realized on the sale of listed equity shares held for a period of 12 months or less immediately preceding the date of transfer will be subject to short term capital gains tax at the rate of 20% (plus applicable surcharge and cess) for transfers taking place after July 23, 2024. STT will be levied on and collected by an Indian Stock Exchange.

Any gain realized on the sale of our Equity Shares other than a recognized stock exchange (where no STT has been paid), will also be subject to short term capital gains tax or long-term capital gains tax, at such rates as may be applicable under the Income Tax Act. Further, capital gains arising from the sale of our Equity Shares will be exempt from taxation in India in cases where an exemption is provided under a treaty between India and the country of which the seller is a resident, subject to certain conditions being met. Subject to any relief available under an applicable tax treaty or under the laws of their own jurisdictions, residents of other countries may be liable for tax in India as well as in their own jurisdictions on gains arising from sale of Equity Shares. Investors are advised to consult their own tax advisors to understand their tax liability as per the laws prevailing on the date of disposal of Equity Shares.

Under the Finance Act 2020, any dividends paid by an Indian company will be subject to tax in the hands of the shareholders at applicable rates. Such taxes will be withheld by the Indian company paying dividends. The company may or may not grant the benefit of tax treaty (where applicable) to a non-resident shareholder for the purposes of deducting tax at source pursuant to any corporate action including dividends. Investors are advised to consult their own tax advisors to understand their tax liability as per laws prevailing on the date of disposal of Equity Shares.

Furthermore, our Company cannot predict whether any tax laws or other regulations impacting it will be enacted, or predict the nature and impact of any such laws or regulations or whether, if at all, any laws or regulations would have a material adverse effect the Company’s business, results of operations, future cash flows and financial condition.

100. *If we are classified as a passive foreign investment company for U.S. federal income tax purposes, U.S. investors in Equity Shares may be subject to adverse U.S. federal income tax consequences.

For U.S. federal income tax purposes, a non-U.S. corporation will be classified as a passive foreign investment company (a “PFIC”) for any taxable year if either: (a) at least 75% of its gross income for such year is “passive income” for purposes of the PFIC rules or (b) at least 50% of the value of its assets (determined on the basis of a quarterly average) during such year is attributable to assets that produce or are held for the production of passive income. For this purpose, passive income includes interest, dividends, rents, royalties and other investment income, with certain exceptions. For the purpose of the test described in (b) above, cash and cash equivalents generally are treated as an asset that produces passive income. The PFIC rules also contain a look-through rule whereby we will be treated as owning our proportionate share of the assets and earning our proportionate share of the income of any other subsidiary in which we own, directly or indirectly, 25 percent or more (by value) of the equity interests of such other subsidiary.

Based upon our current and expected income and assets (including our goodwill and other unbooked intangibles and taking into account the expected proceeds from this offering) and the expected market price of the Equity Shares immediately following this offering, we do not expect to be classified as a PFIC for the current taxable year or the foreseeable future. However, while we do not expect to be or become a PFIC, no assurance can be given in this regard because the determination of whether we are or will become a PFIC for any taxable year is a fact-intensive inquiry made annually that depends, in part, upon the composition and classification of our income and assets. Fluctuations in the market price of the Equity Shares may cause us to be or become a PFIC for the current or subsequent taxable years because the value of our assets for the purpose of the asset test, including the value of our goodwill and other unbooked intangibles, may be determined by reference to the market price of the Equity Shares (which may be volatile). The composition of our income and assets may also be affected by how, and how quickly, we use our liquid assets and the cash raised in this offering. Furthermore, the determination of whether any non-U.S. corporation is a PFIC for a taxable year depends, in part, on the application of complex U.S. federal income tax rules, which are unclear in certain aspects and subject to differing interpretations. It is possible that the U.S. Internal Revenue Service may challenge our classification of certain income or assets or the valuation of our goodwill and other unbooked intangibles, which may result in our company being or becoming a PFIC for the current or future taxable years.

If we were to be or become a PFIC for any taxable year during which a U.S. Holder holds Equity Shares, certain adverse U.S. federal income tax consequences could apply to such U.S. Holder.

101. QIBs and Non-Institutional Investors are not permitted to withdraw or lower their Bids (in terms of quantity of Equity Shares or the Bid Amount) at any stage after submitting a Bid, and Retail Individual Investors are not permitted to withdraw their Bids after Bid/Issue Closing Date.

Pursuant to the SEBI ICDR Regulations, QIBs and Non-Institutional Investors are required to pay the Bid Amount on submission of the Bid and are not permitted to withdraw or lower their Bids (in terms of quantity of Equity Shares or the Bid Amount) at any stage after submitting a Bid. Retail Individual Investors can revise or withdraw their Bids at any time during the Bid/Issue Period and until Bid/Issue Closing Date, but not thereafter. While our Company is required to complete all necessary formalities for listing and commencement of trading of the Equity Shares on all Stock Exchanges where such Equity Shares are proposed to be listed including Allotment pursuant to the Issue within three Working Days from the Bid/Issue Closing Date or such other period as may be prescribed by the SEBI, events affecting the Bidders' decision to invest in the Equity Shares, including material adverse changes in international or national monetary policy, financial, political or economic conditions, our business, results of operation or financial condition may arise between the date of submission of the Bid and Allotment. Our Company may complete the Allotment of the Equity Shares even if such events occur, and such events limit the Bidders' ability to sell the Equity Shares Allotted pursuant to the Issue or cause the trading price of the Equity Shares to decline on listing.

102. Investors may have difficulty enforcing foreign judgments against our Company or our management.

Our Company is incorporated under the laws of India as a company limited by shares. Certain of our directors and executive officers are residents of India. A substantial portion of our Company's assets and the assets of our Directors and executive officers resident in India are located in India. As a result, it may not be possible for investors to effect service of process upon our Company or such persons in jurisdictions outside India, or to enforce judgments obtained against such parties outside India. Furthermore, it is unlikely that an Indian court would enforce foreign judgments if that court was of the view that the amount of damages awarded was excessive or inconsistent with public policy, or if judgments are in breach or contrary to Indian law. In addition, a party seeking to enforce a foreign judgment in India is required to obtain approval from the RBI under the FEMA to execute such a judgment or to repatriate outside India any amounts recovered.

Recognition and enforcement of foreign judgments is provided for under Section 13 and Section 44A of the Code of Civil Procedure, 1908 ("CPC"). India has reciprocal recognition and enforcement of judgments in civil and commercial matters with only a limited number of jurisdictions, such as the United Kingdom, Singapore and Hong Kong. In order to be enforceable, a judgment from a jurisdiction with reciprocity must meet certain requirements established in the CPC. The CPC only permits the enforcement and execution of monetary decrees in the reciprocating jurisdiction, not being in the nature of any amounts payable in respect of taxes, other charges, fines or penalties. Judgments or decrees from jurisdictions which do not have reciprocal recognition with India, including the United States, cannot be enforced by proceedings in execution in India. Therefore, a final judgment for the payment of money rendered by any court in a non-reciprocating territory for civil liability, whether or not predicated solely upon the general laws of the non-reciprocating territory, would not be directly enforceable in India.

The party in whose favor a final foreign judgment in a non-reciprocating territory is rendered may bring a fresh suit in a competent court in India based on the final judgment within three years of obtaining such final judgment. However, it is unlikely that a court in India would award damages on the same basis as a foreign court if an action were brought in India or that an Indian court would enforce foreign judgments if it viewed the amount of damages as excessive or inconsistent with the public policy in India.

103. Investors will not be able to sell immediately on an Indian stock exchange any of the Equity Shares they purchase in the Issue.

In accordance with Indian law and practice, final approval for listing and trading of our Equity Shares will not be granted until after certain actions have been completed in relation to this Issue and until our Equity Shares have been issued and allotted. Such approval will require the submission of all other relevant documents authorizing the issuance of our Equity Shares. In accordance with current regulations and circulars issued by SEBI, our Equity Shares are required to be listed on the Stock Exchanges within a prescribed time. Accordingly, we cannot assure you that the trading in our Equity Shares will commence in a timely manner or at all and there could be a failure or delay in listing our Equity Shares on the Stock Exchanges, which would adversely affect your ability to sell our Equity Shares.

104. Holders of Equity Shares may be restricted in their ability to exercise pre-emptive rights under Indian law and thereby may suffer future dilution of their ownership position.

Under the Companies Act, a public company having share capital and incorporated in India must offer its holders of equity shares pre-emptive rights to subscribe and pay for a proportionate number of equity shares to maintain their existing ownership percentages before the issuance of any new equity shares, unless the pre-emptive rights have been waived by adoption of a special resolution. However, if the laws of the jurisdiction the investors are located in do not permit them to exercise their pre-emptive rights without our filing an offering document or registration statement with the applicable authority in such jurisdiction, the investors will be unable to exercise their pre-emptive rights unless we make such a filing. If we elect not to file a registration statement, the new securities may be issued to a custodian, who may sell the securities for the investor's benefit. The value the custodian receives on the sale of such securities and the related transaction costs cannot be predicted. In addition, to the extent that the investors are unable to exercise pre-emption rights granted in respect of the Equity Shares held by them, their proportional interest in our Company would be reduced.

105. Any future issuance of Equity Shares may dilute your shareholding, and significant sales of Equity Shares by our Promoters, may adversely affect the trading price of the Equity Shares.

Any future issuance of the Equity Shares or convertible securities or securities linked to the Equity Shares by our Company, including issuance of Equity Shares to employees or former employees upon exercise of vested options held by them under ESOP Scheme, may dilute your shareholding. Any such future issuance of the Equity Shares or future sales of the Equity Shares by any of our significant shareholders may also adversely affect the trading price of the Equity Shares and impact our ability to raise funds through an offering of our securities. Any perception by investors that such issuances or sales might occur could also affect the trading price of the Equity Shares. Additionally, the disposal, pledge or encumbrance of the Equity Shares by any of our significant shareholders, or the perception that such transactions may occur, may affect the trading price of the Equity Shares.

There can be no assurance that we will not issue further Equity Shares or that our existing Shareholders, including our Promoters, will not dispose of further Equity Shares after the completion of the Issue (subject to compliance with the lock-in provisions under the SEBI ICDR Regulations) or pledge or encumber their Equity Shares.

106. A third-party could be prevented from acquiring control of our Company because of anti-takeover provisions under Indian law.

There are provisions in Indian law that may delay, deter or prevent a future takeover or change in control of our Company, even if a change in control would result in the purchase of your Equity Shares at a premium to the market price or would otherwise be beneficial to you. Such provisions may discourage or prevent certain types of transactions involving actual or threatened change in control of our Company. Under the SEBI Takeover Regulations, an acquirer has been defined as any person who, directly or indirectly, acquires or agrees to acquire shares or voting rights or control over a company, whether individually or acting in concert with others. Although these provisions have been formulated to ensure that interests of investors/shareholders are protected, these provisions may also discourage a third-party from attempting to take control of our Company. Consequently, even if a potential takeover of our Company would result in the purchase of the Equity Shares at a premium to their market price or would otherwise be beneficial to its stakeholders, it is possible that such a takeover would not be attempted or consummated because of the SEBI Takeover Regulations.

107. Rights of shareholders under Indian law may be more limited than under the laws of other jurisdictions.

Our Articles of Association, composition of our Board, Indian laws governing our corporate affairs, the validity of corporate procedures, directors' fiduciary duties, responsibilities and liabilities, and shareholders' rights may differ from those that would apply to a company in another jurisdiction. Shareholders' rights under Indian law may not be as extensive and widespread as shareholders' rights under the laws of other countries or jurisdictions. Investors may face challenges in asserting their rights as shareholder in an Indian company than as a shareholder of an entity in another jurisdiction.

Book building process, in the context of the Issue, refers to the process of collection of Bids from Bidders on the basis of the Red Herring Prospectus and the Bid cum Application Forms and the Revision Forms within the Price Band. The Price Band and the minimum Bid Lot size will be decided by our Company, in consultation with the BRLMs and shall be advertised in all editions of Financial Express, the English national daily newspaper, all editions of Jansatta, the Hindi national daily newspaper and Ahmedabad edition of Jai Hind, the Gujarati daily newspaper (Gujarati being the regional language of Ahmedabad, Gujarat, where our Registered Office is located), each with wide circulation, and advertised at least two Working Days prior to the Bid/Issue Opening Date and shall be made available to the Stock Exchanges to upload on their respective websites. The Issue Price shall be determined by our Company, in consultation with the BRLMs, after the Bid/Issue Closing Date. For details, see “Issue Procedure” on page 1063.

All Bidders, except Anchor Investors, are mandatorily required to use the ASBA process for participating in the Issue by providing details of their respective ASBA Account in which the corresponding Bid Amount will be blocked by SCSBs. In addition to this, the Retail Individual Bidders may participate through the ASBA process by either (a) providing the details of their respective ASBA Account in which the corresponding Bid Amount will be blocked by the SCSBs; or (b) through the UPI Mechanism. Anchor Investors are not permitted to participate in the Anchor Investor Portion through the ASBA process. Pursuant to SEBI ICDR Master Circular, all individual bidders in initial public offerings whose application sizes are up to ₹500,000 shall use the UPI Mechanism.

In terms of the SEBI ICDR Regulations, QIBs and Non-Institutional Investors are not permitted to withdraw their Bid(s) or lower the size of their Bid(s) (in terms of quantity of Equity Shares or the Bid Amount) at any stage. Retail Individual Investors (subject to the Bid Amount being up to ₹200,000) and Eligible Employees Bidding in the Employee Reservation Portion can revise their Bid(s) during the Bid/Issue Period and withdraw their Bid(s) until Bid/Issue Closing Date. Anchor Investors are not allowed to revise and withdraw their Bids after the Anchor Investor Bidding Date. Except Allocation to Retail Individual Investors, Non-Institutional Investors and the Anchor Investors, Allocation in the Issue will be on a proportionate basis. The allocation to each Retail Individual Investor shall not be less than the minimum Bid Lot, subject to availability of Equity Shares in the Retail Category and the remaining available Equity Shares, if any, shall be allocated on a proportionate basis. The allocation to each Non-Institutional Investor shall not be less than the minimum Bid Lot, subject to availability of Equity Shares in the Non-Institutional Category and the remaining available Equity Shares, if any, shall be allocated on a proportionate basis in accordance with the conditions specified in this regard in Schedule XIII to the SEBI ICDR Regulations. Allocation to the Anchor Investors will be on a discretionary basis. For further details on the method and procedure for Bidding and the Book Building Process, see “Terms of the Issue”, “Issue Structure” and “Issue Procedure” beginning on pages 1051, 1058 and 1063, respectively.

In accordance with the SEBI ICDR Regulations, QIBs Bidding in the QIB Portion and Non-Institutional Bidders bidding in the Non-Institutional Portion are not allowed to withdraw or lower the size of their Bids (in terms of the quantity of the Equity Shares or the Bid Amount) at any stage. Retail Individual Bidders and Eligible Employees Bidding in the Employee Reservation Portion (subject to their Bid Amount being up to ₹500,000 (net of Employee Discount, if any, as applicable) can revise their Bids during the Bid/Issue Period and withdraw their Bids on or before the Bid/Issue Closing Date. Further, Anchor Investors cannot withdraw their Bids after the Anchor Investor Bid/Issue Period. Allocation to the Anchor Investors will be on a discretionary basis.

Each Bidder by submitting a Bid in the Issue, will be deemed to have acknowledged the above restrictions and the terms of the Issue.

The Book Building Process is in accordance with guidelines, rules, regulations prescribed by SEBI, which are subject to change from time to time. Bidders are advised to make their own judgment about an investment through this process prior to submitting a Bid.

Bidders should note that the Issue is also subject to obtaining (i) final listing and trading approvals of the Stock Exchanges, which our Company shall apply for after Allotment; and (ii) filing of the Prospectus with the RoC.

For further details on the method and procedure for Bidding, see “Issue Structure” and “Issue Procedure” beginning on pages 1058 and 1063, respectively.

Underwriting Agreement

Our Company intends to enter into an Underwriting Agreement with the Underwriters for the Equity Shares proposed to be offered through the Issue. The Underwriting Agreement has not been executed as of the date of this Updated Draft Red Herring Prospectus-I and will be executed after the determination of the Issue Price and allocation of Equity Shares, but prior to the filing of the Prospectus with RoC.

The Underwriting Agreement is dated [●]. Pursuant to the terms of the Underwriting Agreement, the obligations of the Underwriters will be several and will be subject to conditions specified therein.

The Underwriters have indicated their intention to underwrite such number of Equity Shares as disclosed below:

(This portion has been intentionally left blank and will be filled in before the Prospectus is filed with the RoC)

| Name, Address, Telephone Number and E-mailAddress of the Underwriters | Indicative Number of EquityShares to be Underwritten | Amount Underwritten(in ₹ million) |
|---------------------------------------------------------------------------|----------------------------------------------------------|---------------------------------------|
| [●]                                                                       | [●]                                                      | [●]                                   |

The abovementioned underwriting commitments are indicative and will be finalized after determination of the pricing and Basis of Allotment and the allocation, subject to and in accordance with the provisions of the SEBI ICDR Regulations.

In the opinion of our Board (based on representations made to our Company by the Underwriters), the resources of each of the abovementioned Underwriters are sufficient to enable them to discharge their respective underwriting obligations in full. The abovementioned Underwriters are registered with the SEBI under Section 12(1) of the SEBI Act or registered as brokers with the Stock Exchange(s). Our Board/ IPO Committee, at its meeting held on [●], has accepted and entered into the Underwriting Agreement mentioned above on behalf of our Company.

Notwithstanding the above table, the Underwriters will be severally responsible for ensuring payment with respect to Equity Shares allocated to Bidders procured by them in accordance with the Underwriting Agreement.

Allocation among the Underwriters may not necessarily be in proportion to their underwriting commitment disclosed in the table above. In the event of any default in payment, the respective Underwriter, in addition to other obligations defined in the Underwriting Agreement, will also be required to procure subscribers for or subscribe to the Equity Shares to the extent of the defaulted amount in accordance with the Underwriting Agreement. The extent of underwriting obligations and the Bids to be underwritten in the Issue shall be as per the Underwriting Agreement.
